NOTIFICATION.

THE following instructions are issued for general information with regard to rule 6 of the Junior Scholarship Rules, which runs as follows :—

"No candidate will be eligible for a scholarship who has not studied for the whole session previous to the examination in the school to which he belongs at the time of presenting himself at the Entrance Examination, unless he has been transferred within that period with the sanction of the Circle Inspector."

(a). For the purposes of this rule the 1st February will be taken as the commencement of a High School Session; but in the case of candidates who have failed (or who, having paid their admission fee, have been prevented by sickness or other cause from appearing at the next preceding Entrance Examination, the 1st July will be accepted as the date from which the session begins.

(b). The transfer of students from one school to another takes place under the ordinary transfer rules, and the Inspector's sanction is not generally required. But if a student of the first class is transferred without the sanction of the Inspector after the 1st February (or, as the case may be, the 1st July, see preceding clause), he will not be eligible for a scholarship, and if after the 1st September he will be treated by the University as a private student (see Calendar for 1895, page 89, foot-note 1).

(c). Application for the Inspector's sanction to such transfer should be forwarded without delay to the Inspector by the parent or guardian of the student, either through the Head Master of the school which he is leaving or directly, in which latter case the Inspector will consult the Head Master. It is open to the Inspector to sanction the transfer of a student, while withholding the right of competing for a junior scholarship at the next examination.

(d). If the school to which the transfer is sanctioned by the Inspector is in another circle, a copy of the order of transfer should be furnished by him to the Inspector of that circle.

(e). A complete list of all the candidates at the Entrance Examination (and not merely, as heretofore of those who are candidates for junior scholarships) will in future be called for from all recognized high schools. The Head Masters will be required to state against the name of each candidate whether he is eligible or ineligible for a scholarship.

(f). The transfer certificates of all candidates who have been admitted into a school after the 1st February next preceding the Entrance Examination should be forwarded with the list of candidates to the Circle Inspector for examination and return. In the case of candidates who failed, or were prevented from appearing, at a previous Entrance Examination, the Registrar's receipts may take the place of the transfer certificates.

Director of Public Instruction.

I.—The Commander of every vessel, including buggalows or other native craft, arriving from Arabian Ports of the Red Sea shall, before entering the harbour, indicate by signal the port from which such vessel has come.

II.—Such Commander shall not, except as hereinafter provided, allow any communication, either with the pilot boat, except orally, or with the shore, or with any other vessel or boat in the harbour.

III.—Immediately on arrival the Commander shall cause the letter R of the Commercial Signal Code to be hoisted, and shall keep the said flag flying during his stay in port or until authorized by the Health Officer to haul it down. If communication with the shore is not desired, the vessel shall anchor at such place as may be pointed out by the Port authorities, having regard to the season of the year. If communication with the shore is desired, the Health Officer shall go alongside the vessel, and, after all necessary enquiries, shall direct the Commander to take the vessel to the quarantine anchorage duly appointed and notified in that behalf by the Resident, there to remain for a period of seven days from the date of arrival, or for the shorter period prescribed in Rule IV, and undergo disinfection, which should apply as well to crew, passengers, effects, and susceptible goods.

IV.—If the Health Officer of the Port has sufficient evidence that no cases of a suspicious nature have taken place on board during the voyage, and if the vessel is besides in good hygienic condition, the duration of the quarantine will be diminished according to the following scale:—

After eight days of voyage		...	six days of quarantine.
Do. nine	ditto	...	five ditto.
Do. ten	ditto	...	four ditto.
Do. eleven	ditto	...	three ditto.
Do. twelve	ditto	...	two ditto.
Do. thirteen	ditto	and upwards ...	twenty-four hours of quarantine.

V.—If during the period a vessel is at the quarantine anchorage aforesaid any case or cases of cholera should occur on board, the said vessel shall remain in quarantine for a period of seven days from the date of the last case occurring, and be subject to all the prohibitions provided for in Rule III.

VI.—When any vessel has been placed in quarantine as aforesaid, the Health Officer may direct the removal of so many of the passengers and crew as may not be suffering from illness, and whose services may not be required on board the vessel, to such particular spots as may from time to time be selected by the Resident as places of quarantine, there to remain for a period of seven days. If a case of cholera occurs among such passengers and crew during any such period, they shall remain in a place of quarantine for a period of fifteen days from the date of the occurrence of the last case of such illness.

VII.—Any mails or cargo which may be brought by any vessel so arriving shall be landed under such precautions as the Health Officer may deem necessary to prevent the spread of the disease.

VIII.—It will be the duty of the Port Officer to facilitate the conveyance to all vessels in quarantine of such supplies of provisions, stores and other articles as may be required by those on board. Such supplies will be placed on the boats of the vessels in quarantine to be subsequently removed by members of their crews.

IX.—All vessels arriving at Aden, Perim and the Somali Coast which may have communicated with vessels coming from Arabian Ports of the Red Sea, shall be subjected to the same quarantine as vessels arriving at Aden, Perim and the Somali Coast from the Red Sea.

NOTIFICATION—No. 3461J.

THE following Rules are published for general information.

H. J. S. COTTON,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

CALCUTTA,
The 25th June 1895.

Revised Rules for the payment on the part of Government of the expenses of complainants and witnesses attending the Criminal Courts.

UNDER the provisions of section 544 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Act X of 1882), the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal has, with the sanction of His Excellency the Governor-General of India in Council, been pleased to prescribe the following revised rules for regulating the payment on the part of Government of the expenses of complainants and witnesses in cases coming before the criminal courts.

2. The criminal courts are authorized to pay, at the rates specified below, the expenses (a) of complainants or witnesses, whether for the prosecution or for the defence (1) in cases in which the prosecution is instituted, or carried on by, or under the orders, or with the sanction, of the Government, or any Judge, Magistrate, or other public officer, or in which it shall appear to the presiding officer to be directly in furtherance of the interests of the public service; and (2) in all cases entered in column 5 of schedule II appended to the Criminal Procedure Code, as not bailable; and (b) of witnesses in all cases in which they are compelled by the Magistrate of his own motion to attend under the provisions of section 540 of the Code.

3. If a witness is summoned at the instance of the complainant or accused under section 544, his expenses shall not be withheld from him except on the ground of failure to do his duty as a witness when summoned.

4. As a general rule, the allowances to be paid to complainants and witnesses shall be a diet allowance calculated at the following rates:—

(a) For the ordinary labouring class of natives, 2 annas per diem.
(b) For natives of higher rank in life, 4 annas per diem.
(c) For Europeans and Natives of superior rank, a diet allowance according to circumstances up to a limit of Rs. 3 per diem.

5. In addition to the above, charges for toll at ferries will be allowed at the authorized rates to the extent to which they may have been actually incurred.

6. Other travelling expenses will be given only when the journey could not have been performed on foot, or in the case of persons whose age, position, and habits of life render it impossible for them to walk. In such cases, in addition to diet-allowance and ferry tolls, travelling allowance shall be given at the following rates:—

(1) When the journey is by rapid dák by road, the actual expenses incurred up to a maximum limit of 4 annas a mile.

(2) When the journey is, wholly or partly, by rail—

(a) For the ordinary class of natives, third class railway fare.

(b) For natives of higher rank in life, intermediate class railway fare; except in the case of the Darjeeling-Himalayan Railway, where second class railway fare may be allowed.

(c) For Europeans and Natives of superior rank, second class railway fare.

(3) In the Eastern Districts of Bengal, where the only mode of travelling is by water, the actual expenses incurred for boat-hire up to a limit of Rs. 2 per diem.

7. Notwithstanding the above rules—

(1) Government servants when summoned to give evidence in their public capacity shall receive nothing from the Court. In this case they are entitled to travelling allowance under the Civil Service Regulations. Government servants when summoned to give evidence in their private capacity may be paid by the Court and may retain any travelling allowance due to persons of corresponding rank under these rules, but no diet allowance, and they shall not be entitled to any travelling allowance under the Civil Service Regulations.

(2) To witnesses following any profession, such as Medicine or Law, a special allowance shall be given according to circumstances.

8. Officers will be held responsible that parties of witnesses are brought to court together as far as possible, so as to save expense. The hire of more than one boat shall not be allowed in one case, unless the presiding officer is satisfied that the witnesses could not have arranged to come together.

9. The number of days for which diet allowance should be granted will be determined by the officer ordering payment in each case.

10. For this purpose and for regulating the reimbursement of tolls paid, a table shall be prepared and kept in each court, showing the distance of each thana from the Sadar station and subordinate stations, the number of intermediate ferries to be crossed, and the authorized rates of charges for tolls at each of these ferries, the existence or absence of roads or waterways being also noted in the table.

The above rules are issued in supersession of all existing rules, and cancel Judicial Department circulars—

CALCUTTA,
The 25*th June* 1895.

Revised Rules for the payment on the part of Government of the expenses of complainants and witnesses attending the Criminal Courts.

UNDER the provisions of section 544 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Act X of 1882), the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal has, with the sanction of His Excellency the Governor-General of India in Council, been pleased to prescribe the following revised rules for regulating the payment on the part of Government of the expenses of complainants and witnesses in cases coming before the criminal courts.

2. The criminal courts are authorized to pay, at the rates specified below, the expenses (a) of complainants or witnesses, whether for the prosecution or for the defence (1) in cases in which the prosecution is instituted, or carried on by, or under the orders, or with the sanction, of the Government, or any Judge, Magistrate, or other public officer, or in which it shall appear to the presiding officer to be directly in furtherance of the interests of the public service; and (2) in all cases entered in column 5 of schedule II appended to the Criminal Procedure Code, as not bailable; and (b) of witnesses in all cases in which they are compelled by the Magistrate of his own motion to attend under the provisions of section 540 of the Code.

3. If a witness is summoned at the instance of the complainant or accused under section 244, his expenses shall not be withheld from him except on the ground of failure to do his duty as a witness when summoned.

4. As a general rule, the allowances to be paid to complainants and witnesses shall be a diet allowance calculated at the following rates:—

(a) For the ordinary labouring class of natives, 2 annas per diem.
(b) For natives of higher rank in life, 4 annas per diem.
(c) For Europeans and Natives of superior rank, a diet allowance according to circumstances up to a limit of Rs. 3 per diem.

5. In addition to the above, charges for toll at ferries will be allowed at the authorized rates to the extent to which they may have been actually incurred.

6. Other travelling expenses will be given only when the journey could not have been performed on foot, or in the case of persons whose age, position, and habits of life render it impossible for them to walk. In such cases, in addition to diet allowance and ferry tolls, travelling allowance shall be given at the following rates:—

(1) When the journey is by rapid dák by road, the actual expenses incurred up to a maximum limit of 4 annas a mile.
(2) When the journey is, wholly or partly, by rail—
   (a) For the ordinary class of natives, third class railway fare.
   (b) For natives of higher rank in life, intermediate class railway fare; except in the case of the Darjeeling-Himalayan Railway, where second class railway fare may be allowed.
   (c) For Europeans and Natives of superior rank, second class railway fare.
(3) In the Eastern Districts of Bengal, where the only mode of travelling is by water, the actual expenses incurred for boat-hire up to a limit of Rs. 2 per diem.

7. Notwithstanding the above rules—

(1) Government servants when summoned to give evidence in their public capacity shall receive nothing from the Court. In this case they are entitled to travelling allowance under the Civil Service Regulations. Government servants when summoned to give evidence in their private capacity may be paid by the Court and may retain any travelling allowance due to persons of corresponding rank under these rules, but no diet allowance, and they shall not be entitled to any travelling allowance under the Civil Service Regulations.

(2) To witnesses following any profession, such as Medicine or Law, a special allowance shall be given according to circumstances.

8. Officers will be held responsible that parties of witnesses are brought to court together as far as possible, so as to save expense. The hire of more than one boat shall not be allowed in one case, unless the presiding officer is satisfied that the witnesses could not have arranged to come together.

9. The number of days for which diet allowance should be granted will be determined by the officer ordering payment in each case.

10. For this purpose and for regulating the reimbursement of tolls paid, a table shall be prepared and kept in each court, showing the distance of each thana from the Sadar station and subordinate stations, the number of intermediate ferries to be crossed, and the authorized rates of charges for tolls at each of these ferries, the existence or absence of roads or waterways being also noted in the table.

The above rules are issued in supersession of all existing rules, and cancel Judicial Department circulars—

NOTIFICATION.

THE following rules framed by the Board of Revenue, Lower Provinces, under section 109 of the Sea Customs Act, VIII of 1878, with the approval of Government, are published for general information:—

OPERATIONS ON GOODS IN A WAREHOUSE.

1. Before any operation is performed in a warehouse, an application, stating the exact nature of the proposed operation, must be made to the Collector of Customs.

2. The officer of Customs deputed will compare the marks in the application with those on the goods and, where necessary, ascertain the actual quantity of the goods prior to the operation and record the same.

3. When the operation is completed, the officer will ascertain the quantities, if necessary, and record and sign the new account of the goods.

Racking and vatting.

4. Racking from cask to cask may be performed in a warehouse, and casks in bad condition may have their contents racked out into sound casks.

5. Empty casks must be properly drained before removal from a warehouse.

6. The operation of putting wines or spirits together in a vat may only be performed in a compartment of a warehouse fitted and used for that purpose only, unless the vat is a close covered vessel which has been accurately gauged, and of which the hatch and discharge cock can be secured by locks, the keys of which will remain with the bonding department.

7. Vats must be distinctly marked with their numbers and capacity in gallons. The strength of spirits taken from a vat is to be ascertained by a sample from each cask.

8. After any spirits have been racked from a vat, the remainder must be drawn off before any more spirits are put into the vat.

Blending rules.

9. Applications for permission to the blending of spirits or wines in bond in the same warehouse are to be presented to the Collector of Customs.

10. Each application must contain a full description of the spirits or wine to be mixed, and must be accompanied by a fee at the rate of Rs. 7 per diem, to cover the pay of an officer of Customs, to be deputed by the Collector, in whose presence the blending must be effected. The Collector may at his discretion accept the fee for half a day at the above rate.

11. The amount of liquor drawn from each cask for the purpose of blending will be shown as cleared on the original bond. If any deficiency be found on emptying a cask, duty thereon will at once be levied under section 116, but allowance under section 117 for such deficiency or any portion of it may be subsequently made by the Chief Customs Authority if sufficient grounds exist.

12. The blend, when effected, will be retested and regauged, and a fresh bond will be made out for the duty found leviable thereon.

13. For the purpose of calculating the period of three years under section 103, and the allowances for ullage and wastage under section 116, the date of the new bond will be taken to be the date on which the earliest of the bonds relating to any of the spirits in the blend was executed.

14. The spirits or wines blended must be the produce and manufacture of the same country.

15. The word "blend" must be cut into or indelibly marked on the vat or cask containing the blended spirits or wines. Original marks and brands must be removed, unless the spirits or wines be of the same mark.

16. Wines and spirits may only be bottled from casks in a bottling warehouse. No other operation may be performed in such warehouse at the same time.

17. Wines and spirits intended for bottling must be removed from the warehouse to a bottling warehouse in presence of a Customs Officer.

18. Bottles must be packed immediately after filling. Each package must contain a dozen or multiple of a dozen of quarts or pints, and the bottles in each package must be of uniform size.

19. The officer deputed must record in his bottling book the number of bottles filled before they are packed: the bottles must then be packed without unnecessary delay. The officer is to satisfy himself that the proper number of bottles are placed in each case, and see that packed cases are at once closed and fastened.

20. The bonding officer will have the key of the door of the bottling warehouse.

21. The officer must see that in the labelling and corking of bottles, the provisions of the Merchandise Marks Act are observed.

22. Wines and spirits in bottle may, if it be necessary, be started into casks.

23. Wines and spirits imported in cases may, if it be necessary, be adjusted and repacked, but not more than once while in bond. Labels and capsules may be renewed, but not changed for others not identical in terms.

24. Spirits may be methylated in a warehouse. The spirits are to be gauged and the strength ascertained prior to the operation: deficiency not exceeding legal allowance may be written off.

25. After methylation a sample must be drawn off and sent for the usual report to the Chemical Examiner.

The notifiction dated 10th December 1892 and published at page 1109, Part I of the Calcutta Gazette of the 14th idem, is hereby cancelled.

N.B.—All applications under the above rules must, under Schedule II, 1(a) of the Court Fees Act, bear a stamp of one anna.

N. K. BOSE,
Offg. Secretary.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL—MARINE DEPARTMENT.

The 11th July 1895.

No. 95 Marine.—The following Resolution of the Government of India setting forth certain alterations which it is proposed to make in the existing law for regulating the pilgrim traffic by sea between British India and Arabia, is published for general information :—

RESOLUTION.

IN the beginning of 1894 an International Sanitary Conference was convened at Paris to consider especially the best means of preventing the spread of cholera westwards by way of the Red Sea and Persian Gulf. The British Government accepted an invitation to join in its deliberations, and a Convention drawn up by the Conference in April 1894 was accepted by Her Majesty's Government, with reservations upon three points (to be mentioned below). The agreement is binding for five years, and is to be renewed unless notice of withdrawal is given six months before the end of that period.

As the provisions of the Convention were intended directly to affect the pilgrim traffic by sea between British India and Arabia, it became necessary to consider what amendments should be made in the law by which that traffic is at present controlled. The Government of India have been in communication with Her Majesty's Secretary of State and the Local Maritime Governments as to the best way of giving effect to these provisions, some of which introduce considerable changes into the existing arrangements. It has eventually been decided that the course which may most conveniently be adopted in all the circumstances of the case, is to remove from the operation of the Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887, vessels engaged in the pilgrim traffic and to provide for them separately. A Bill drawn with that object is about to be introduced in the Council of the Governor-General for making Laws and Regulations, and rules aimed at carrying out all needed changes in the regulations are now being prepared and are intended to be brought into force under and simultaneously with the new law. Meanwhile the Governor-General in Council is desirous of taking this opportunity of placing before the public as early as possible full information regarding the impending changes, which are in some respects of considerable importance, and which will, it is expected, be in force in time to regulate the pilgrimage to the Hajj of the year 1896.

The new rules will provide for a disinfecting stove on board ship to purify the clothes and effects of pilgrims who have suffered from cholera or choleraic diarrhœa. Provisions will also be made regarding the method of disinfecting.

(d) Latrines.

The Government of India will take this opportunity to raise the number of seats from the rate of two to that of four for every hundred pilgrims, in accordance with the recommendation of the Committee which enquired into the working of the Native Passenger Ships Act in 1890. Provision will also be made for a staff of sweepers at the rate of two for every hundred pilgrims. Further provisions will be added for the better cleansing and disinfecting of the latrines.

(e) Pilgrims' luggage.

The Convention provides that prilgrims' heavy luggage must be registered, numbered and deposited in the hold, and that pilgrims are to be allowed to keep with them only such articles as are absolutely necessary (not to exceed a maund in weight for each pilgrim). A rule will be framed to carry this provision into effect.

(f) Daily medical inspection on board.

One of the terms of the Convention requires that when there are cases of cholera in port, pilgrims shall not be embarked until after they have been collected and subjected for five days to an observation which will admit of an assurance that none of them are affected with cholera. It was, however, agreed, on the representation of the British delegates, that this observation could be practised on board ship between the time of departure from India and the call at Aden. A rule will be framed to provide for this.

(g) Second medical inspection before departure from India.

A reference was made to the Local Governments on a suggestion put forward by Her Majesty's Secretary of State as to the desirability of adding a second medical inspection of pilgrims on board just before a steamer weighs anchor. The Governor-General in Council proposes to make a rule to the effect that in cases where a pilgrim ship may be detained in harbour for more than 48 hours after the embarkation of the pilgrims, and there is reason to suspect that small-pox, cholera, yellow fever or plague may have attacked some of the pilgrims, a second medical inspection shall be made by a competent medical officer.

4. The reservations made by Her Majesty's Government from the terms of the Convention were, as noticed above, upon three points. One of these as regards space has already been mentioned in paragraph 3 (a) supra. The second reservation was regarding arrangements in the Persian Gulf, and does not call for notice here. The third was as to a provision of the Convention requiring that all pilgrims must have ample funds in their possession before they are allowed to embark. The British Government, acting on the previously declared views of the Government of India, who have always desired to facilitate the pilgrimage to the Hedjaz as much as possible, felt that this restriction upon the religious liberty of Muhammadan subjects of Her Majesty was not justifiable, and declined to accede to it.

5. It will be observed that the changes in the regulation of the pilgrim traffic between India and Arabia which are necessitated by the Paris Convention made between the chief European Powers have for their object the amelioration of the conditions under which Muhammadans perform their journey to and from the Hedjaz. At the same time it is fully recognized both by Her Majesty's Government and by the Government of India that some of these changes, especially that as regards space, will add very materially to the cost of the sea-voyage. The Governor-General in Council is therefore glad to be able to intimate that the British Government have undertaken to lose no opportunity of pressing upon the Turkish Government—and, if requested, they will lend skilled officers to assist His Majesty the Sultan's Government in fulfilling—the duty of remedying the condition of affairs at Camaran in the manner indicated by the Paris Convention, and of improving the sanitary administration at Jeddah and Mecca in the way proposed by the Sanitary Council of Constantinople and the able officers who have from time to time reported to the Porte on the requirements of the situation. The Governor-General in Council also wishes to assure the Muhammadan community that he is most anxious, whilst taking measures to bring about improvements in the conditions of both the sea and the land journeys to Mecca, to impose no additional expense of an unnecessary nature, and he is also not without hope that it may be found possible to induce the Turkish Government to lessen the time for which Indian pilgrims are placed in quarantine at Camaran, and thereby to reduce the sanitary taxes which will have to be recovered from pilgrims, and also to exempt really needy pilgrims from payment of these dues.

6. It is proposed that the provisions of the Bill and the new rules shall come into force on the 1st October 1895, so as to apply to the pilgrimage which will take place in the spring of 1896. Local Governments and Administrations are requested to make the contents of this Resolution generally known as soon as possible.

2. The following are the matters in which changes have to be made by legislation :—

(i) The definition of a "pilgrim ship."

By section 5 (2) of the Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887, a passenger on a ship to which that Act applies is defined to be "a native of Asia or Africa of the age of twelve years or upwards, who is not on the articles of the ship as one of the crew," but the term does not include either a passenger in attendance on a person other than a native of Asia or Africa, or a child under one year of age, and in the computation of passengers for any of the purposes of the Act, two persons of the age of one year or upwards and under the age of 12 are reckoned as one passenger. The Act does not apply to any steam-ship not carrying as passengers more than 60 natives of Asia or Africa (or any less number down to 30 which may be fixed by the Local Government; with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, as the minimum). In accordance with the terms of the Convention every individual, of whatever age, will be reckoned as a pilgrim in the proposed Bill, the provisions of which will be made applicable to all vessels carrying pilgrims, subject to the proviso that no vessel is to be reckoned as a pilgrim ship which, besides its ordinary passengers, among whom may be included pilgrims of the superior classes, embarks pilgrims of the lowest class in a smaller proportion than one pilgrim to 100 gross tonnage.

The object of the Conference, in extending the scope of the regulations to vessels to which they do not now apply, was to prevent pilgrims from being carried in ill-found craft, the sanitary arrangements on which might be insufficient or incomplete.

(ii) Notice of sailing.

By section 7 (ii) of the Native Passenger Ships Act, 1887, the master, owner, or agent of a ship is required to give not less than 24 hours' notice of his intention to sail. The Conference determined that in the case of a pilgrim ship the interval should be extended to three days, and the Bill will contain a provision modified accordingly.

(iii) The upper deck.

The Convention provides that the deck must, during the voyage, remain clear of all encumbering articles and be reserved day and night for the persons embarked, and placed gratuitously at their disposal.

A provision to this effect will be embodied in the Bill.

(iv) Hospital accommodation.

The Conference determined that there should be hospital accommodation for 5 per cent. of the pilgrims at 3 square metres (32 square feet) per head. This is considerably in excess of the present allowance. The necessary provision will be included in the Bill.

(v) Medical inspection previous to embarkation.

The Conference attached considerable importance to this matter. In addressing the Local Maritime Governments on the subject in October last, the Government of India expressed their opinion that the practice of allowing pilgrims to go on board before inspection is open to serious objection, as it opens the way to the introduction on board a pilgrim vessel of infectious or contagious diseases by persons suffering from them. The Local Governments agree in this view, though there are some practical difficulties which will have to be met. Provision will accordingly be made in the Bill in order to give effect to the decisions of the Conference that the medical examination should take place on land immediately before embarkation, and that articles contaminated by persons who have suffered from cholera or choleraic diarrhœa should not be taken on board until disinfected, nor persons suffering from those diseases permitted to embark.

(vi) Sanitary taxes at Camaran and Jeddah.

It is provided in the Convention that the Master of a pilgrim vessel must pay the whole amount of the sanitary taxes at the ports visited, and it is suggested that the amount of them might be included in the price of the ticket. The Bill will contain a provision requiring the Master to pay these fees.

This decision was adopted by the Conference because of complaints made by the Turkish authorities that Indian pilgrims often fail to pay any fees at all, and the members of the Conference felt that, unless help is given to the local authorities in realizing the proper fees, it will be less easy to press for the carrying out of local sanitary reforms the cost of which is, or should be, partly defrayable from the fees collected from pilgrims.

It is necessary here to explain that the immediate adoption of this provision presents difficulties, owing to the fact that the Turkish Government did not agree to the conditions on which the retention of Camaran as a quarantine station was assented to by the British delegates at the Conference. Those conditions were that vessels should be subjected to differential treatment according as they were declared, after medical inspection, to be* indemnes, suspects, or infectés. If of the first class, pilgrim ships were to be detained for 48 hours only at Camaran ; if suspects they were to be detained 48 hours and to undergo a second medical inspection at Jeddah ; and if infectés they were to be detained at Camaran for five days from arrival, or from the occurrence of the last case, and to undergo a second medical inspection at Jeddah. The past practice has been for all pilgrims on vessels coming from Indian ports to be detained Indemnes—are vessels on which no case of cholera has occurred either at the port of departure or on the voyage.

Suspects—are vessels on which there has been cholera but no fresh case within seven days before arrival at Camaran.

Infectés—are vessels on which fresh cases of cholera have occurred within seven days of arrival at Camaran.

for ten days on shore at Camaran; if cholera or choleraic diarrhœa exists on board or breaks out during quarantine, they are detained for longer periods. It is impossible for the Government of India to declare finally what sum will have to be added on account of sanitary dues to the cost of a ticket for the voyage to Jeddah; but according to the figures supplied by the Turkish Consul-General at Bombay, about Rs. 12-8 may be taken to be the present minimum cost per pilgrim in respect of the sanitary taxes for a stay of ten days at Camaran, besides a charge of nearly Rs. 2 at Jeddah.

As the Turkish delegates at the Paris Conference announced that they would agree to the abolition of the requirement that every ship from India should be detained for ten days if the periods of detention proposed, as mentioned above, were raised to three days for indemnes, five days for suspects, and ten days for infectés, the Government of India have requested Her Majesty's Government to address the Porte with the suggestion that the rules which the Turkish delegates were prepared to accept may be adopted for the future. If this is effected, there will be a very considerable reduction in the amount of the sanitary taxes to be paid for with the price of the steamer ticket.

The Government of India, recognizing that a rigid rule requiring the prepayment of sanitary dues by every pilgrim may operate with hardship in the case of poor pilgrims, who, it appears from the reports of the Turkish authorities, are at present excused the sanitary fees when they are unable to pay them, have decided to suggest for the consideration of the Porte that ready needy pilgrims might be excused from payment of the sanitary taxes in addition to the steamer fare if they are granted passes signed by a District Officer or Political Officer on the advice of respectable Muhammadan residents of the neighbourhood in which they live, and countersigned by a Turkish Consul in India certifying that their pecuniary position justifies their exemption. It appears to the Governor-General in Council that such a measure would afford effectual relief in the case of poor Muhammadans resident in India, and His Excellency in Council trusts that it may be found possible to carry it into effect.

(vii) A second medical officer on board.

The Convention requires every vessel embarking 100 pilgrims or more to have on board a duly qualified medical officer, and a second such officer when the number of pilgrims exceeds 1,000. The first provision is in accordance with the present law; but though under the provision for the increase of space for each pilgrim (see paragraph 3 (a) below) it is unlikely that many steamers will carry more than 1,000 pilgrims, it is necessary to give effect to the Convention in this respect. This requirement will be entered in the Bill. The qualifications which these medical officers must possess will be set forth in the rules.

The Government of India, with the acquiescence of the Government of Bombay, have decided that the present compulsory call at Aden on the return journey to India is unnecessary and inconvenient in many cases. The Bill which is about to be introduced will contain the requisite provision which is not necessary to carry out the terms of the Convention, but it is in no way opposed thereto. The present requirement that every pilgrim ship from India must call at Aden, and shall not leave that port for the Red Sea without a clean bill of health, will be retained.

3. The chief points in the existing rules under the Native Passenger Ships Act, in respect of which changes have been rendered necessary by the terms of the Convention, are the following:—

(a) Increase in the space for each pilgrim.

This is the most important point in the Convention, as it will involve a considerable increase in the cost of the journey by steamer. As the law stands (section 21 of Act X of 1887), the allowance in the between decks for a steamer passenger on a long voyage (of 5 days or over) is a space of at least 9 superficial and 54 cubic feet; two children under 12 years of age, and not under one, counting as one pilgrim, and children under the age of one year not counting. By section 56 of the Act, the Governor-General in Council has power to prescribe in the case of any class of ships other provisions as regards superficial or cubic space to be available for passengers.

The Convention provides for two square metres (21½ square feet) for each pilgrim of whatever age. This is one of the points upon which the British Government made a reservation. Her Majesty's Government has, however, intimated to the French Government that a minimum standard of 1½ square metres (16 square feet) for every pilgrim of whatever age will be prescribed on all Indian pilgrim ships, and the Bill will be drawn in such a manner as to enable the Governor-General in Council to give effect thereto. This decision was arrived at as some increase of space was dictated by the best sanitary authorities and by the voice of all the European Powers, including the Porte, who are interested in the matter, though it is recognized that the additional space will cause increase in the cost of steamer tickets to the pilgrims.

(b) Water.

In accordance with the Convention, the allowance of a gallon of drinking water a day will be made for every pilgrim of whatever age, instead of to each pilgrim of 12 years of age and over (children not over 12 years, but not under one, counting as one pilgrim, and children under one year of age not counting at all) as under the present rule.

NOTIFICATION—No. 2675.

The 6th August 1895.—The following papers regarding the working of the Indian Factories Act in Bengal, during the year 1894, are published for general information.

C. E. BUCKLAND,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. 77, dated Calcutta, the 28th March 1895.

From—C. A. WALSH, ESQ., A.M.I.C.E., Special Inspector of Factories,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Revenue Department.

I HAVE the honour to submit my annual report on the working of the Indian Factories Act in Bengal for the year ending December 1894.

I am glad to be able to report that the provisions of the Act have on the whole been well observed throughout the year. There are at present on the register of factories 14 in the town of Calcutta, 60 in 24-Parganas, 31 in the Howrah district, 6 in Hooghly, and 19 scattered over the other districts of Bengal. Excluding jute presses at Narayanganj, of which there are 34, the majority of these presses are hand boomer presses, but I notice they are gradually being replaced by hydraulic boomer ones. They work on and off for a season extending a little over six months. Besides these, there are a number temporarily erected in Northern Bengal and Assam which I have not inspected, as it would necessitate continual travelling to no useful purpose; in fact, these presses might well be included in the category of tea and indigo plantations referred to in section 2 of the Act.

Two large mills were opened during the year—one in January for the manufacture of paper, and a jute mill in December situated in Chandernagore;* the latter being in French territory will not come within the jurisdiction of the Act. Should other mills contemplate extending their business by erecting new mills, French territory will afford them the opportunity like Gondalpara of working the mill without the annoyance of possible further interference from home in factory matters. One jute mill that has been closed for the past 18 months was re-opened in October; two other mills were closed for short periods, and the majority only worked five days a week from 1st of April till the end of June, due to the scarcity of jute and the high prices prevailing; but the new season jute, which was the largest crop on record, has since kept all mills working full time. The Hastings mill in March commenced a system of working at night as well as day in shifts by the aid of the electric light. This night work had been carefully considered by the owners before its introduction, and every effort was made by them to keep within and strictly observe the factory regulations. A number of young persons were employed in the night shift, but all appeared well over 14. I found it necessary to make some alterations in the intervals allowed for women, which were readily adopted by the manager. The mill was frequently inspected during the night working by the Civil Surgeon of Serampore, and he was satisfied regarding the ages of the operatives. I noticed many spinning frames standing for want of labour at the time of my first inspection, although a number of children applied at the gates for work; they were disqualified from entering as being too young. It is questionable whether the system will be maintained for long, as there are certain manifest objections, apart from the increased expenditure, in having to employ boys of 16 and 18 as shifters at the spinning frames.

Night work.

The increased demand for labour has induced, and in all possibility will continue to induce, a large number of new hands to settle in the vicinity of mills, and more attention might be paid by owners and managers to provide suitable accommodation for them. The quarters in which the operatives live need, I think, investigation. Glance over the boundary wall of Barnagore,† or walk a hundred yards from Shamnagore, Titaghur or other large mill, and look at the miserable quarters of those whose lot it is to labour daily in the mill. A collection of filthy hovels meets the eye, constructed rudely of mud thatched with grass or old kerosine oil tins flattened out, devoid of drainage, and too crowded for a proper supply of air. It remains a marvel how human life, however accustomed to insanitary surroundings, can survive. When it is considered that so many mills are paying large dividend, it is surely not too much to ask that a few thousand rupees be annually spent on improved, well-drained, ventilated pucka quarters for the operatives, together with public latrines and urinals similar to those provided by Messrs. David and Company, Ralli Brothers, and other jute pressing firms at Narayanganj. Much has been done by some mills to provide decent housing for the workers, and more would be done if the municipalities would render some assistance in aiding the mill owners to acquire land for the purpose of building and allowing them to fill up cess-pools, and generally to improve the sanitary condition of these mill surroundings.

Sanitation.

2. Improvement is noticeable in the latrines each year. Many that were originally constructed in a temporary manner of old material have been replaced by new well-built brick ones with cemented floors, or built of corrugated iron, known as Horbury's patent. There is still room for improvement, and a number of mills require additional accommodation to keep pace with the mill extensions and extra hands now employed. It is satisfactory for me to be able to report the improvements that have taken place in the conservancy arrangements at the East Indian Railway shops at Jamalpore. Formerly I had occasion to call attention to the limited space allotted for burying night-soil and its vicinity to the shops. The Locomotive Superintendent has now completed a small tram line to convey the night-soil to a suitable locality, well removed from the neighbourhood of the shops, and has received an offer from a native of Rs. 40 a bigha for every bigha that is manured. This is the first instance that has come to my notice of a native appreciating the value of this manure as a fertilising agent, and I hope to see other factories follow in the same lines. The time, I think, is not far distant when every manager (outside municipal limits) will see that proper use is made of night-soil on ground trenched for cultivation, instead of burying it as is at present done in some instances I can call to mind. I presume municipalities take advantage of the trenching system for the disposal of night-soil. Whether this is the case in every instance I am unable to say.

Lime-washing.

The mills are generally lime-washed annually. A few workshops and jute presses were called upon during the year to conform to the rules regarding periodical lime-washing; and the work was put in hand without undue delay. A plentiful supply of water is obtainable in the mills, but not in every instance is the water filtered. However, filtering beds and tanks are gradually being introduced, for it is noticed that unless the water is filtered in large quantities the operatives will not readily take to it.

Drinking-water.

Humidity.

The climate of Bengal, where cotton factories are situated, may, for the greater part of the year, be considered suitable for cotton spinning without resorting to artificial means to procure the required humidity. The mills with one exception are built on the banks of the river Hooghly, which may assist in a small way to moisten the dry air when the hot winds are blowing. I observe that throughout the year the air in the morning at 8 A.M. contains a considerable quantity of moisture, and during the months of January and February approaches saturation,* and averaging some 70 per cent. in March, 80 per cent. in April, and somewhat higher percentage of humidity in May and June. During the rainy season, or in July, August, and September, the moisture registered in the morning remains fairly constant during the day; but in the absence of rain after 10 A.M. the moisture generally falls considerably below normal (50 per cent.) at such times, and during the dry season the mills frequently resort to watering the floors or placing matting against the windows, which is constantly kept watered. In one mill humidifiers are worked when necessary, and drasophors (a patent water spray) are about to be introduced in two others. The latter appliance appears to be in general favour, although I noticed in a mill at Cawnpore in which the drasophors were at work the effect was very local, and a hygrometer placed a few feet outside the radius of the water spray hardly registered any moisture beyond what was noticeable in rooms not using the drasophors. The effect of these water sprays on the operatives has a cooling effect, but the air should then be extracted before it becomes heated. I had some conversation with the Inspector of Humidity in Manchester, during the summer of 1893, and he corroborated the opinion given in Mr. Wallace's "Sanitation in India" regarding the use of artificial moisture in mills, which I quote below:—"By a fortunate coincidence the best conditions for cotton spinning are also favourable to the health of the operatives, but the moistening of the air should not be permitted or attempted without an adequate provision for the supply of fresh air to carry off the vapours as soon as it becomes too hot." It is well known that the dry air causes the yarn to break at the spinning frames, and is detrimental to the fibre in the process of carding. For this reason the windows are closed, but managers will frequently inform Inspectors that the natives prefer them shut, and when left open they (the natives) will immediately shut them directly your back is turned. This is true, but not because they prefer a close humid atmosphere to work in in preference to fresh air, but because the open windows cause additional labour in piecing the yarn, and possibly less wages as they are paid on the gross outturn. I, however, generally found a suitable number of windows open in the mills, which afford good lateral ventilation, but this has not always been the case, and I think mill managers would study their own interest if they placed air propellers in the carding and spinning rooms, and thus ensure a constant gradual change of air.

It is interesting to note how inapplicable are the rules laid down to regulate the temperature in home mills when applied to this country. In the Cotton Cloth Factories Act of 1889 any one exceeding a humidity of over 78 per cent. when the dry bulb thermometer registered over 80° would be fined, but in Bengal the mills have frequently to work with a humidity equal to saturation, the same humidity being registered by the Meteorological Society in the open. Such an excess of humidity in the home mills raised artificially with steam would be extremely harmful to the operatives, but the conditions here are very different. In Bengal the variations between the temperatures of the inside and outside of a mill are slight, and would seldom exceed 10° Fahrenheit.

Health of operatives, &c.

3. A certain amount of sickness has occurred amongst the operatives in certain districts during the rainy season; but I am not aware whether the death-rate is above the average. The medical officers of the various districts will doubtless supply information on this point. I have already alluded to the unhealthy conditions under which so many of the native workers live, and I would here only reiterate what I have already urged that attention be given to improve these quarters.

Working hours.

4. The working hours in the mills, with the exception of the Hastings mill, remain the same. A few mills have ordered the electric light to increase the hours during the short days of the cold-weather months; and, while abundance of labour is always to be obtained in this country, it is doubtful if one would be justified in restricting the hours, considering the system of shifts that Indian mills adopt, and remembering the increased number of hands employed when compared with Dundee mills. As pointed out in my last report, it may also be said the majority of the workers are land-owners, and this fact may account for the quantity of leave annually taken. This is noticeable both in mills and workshops, and although the natives ask for leave, as a matter of form they take it, whether granted or not, which I think goes to prove that they are not entirely dependent on the mills as the Dundee and Lancashire operatives are.

Women and children.

5. I have no special remark to make regarding the employment of women and children beyond what I have already stated in previous reports. A very large number find employment in these mills (as will be observed from reference to Form I). The labour required may be termed "unskilled" except in the spinning and weaving. This offers employment to a number of old women that may occasionally be noticed feeding the carding and jute-softening machines, and I have always regarded the employment of such as creditable to the managers concerned, for it is evident they can be of little service except in so far as relieving others during the interval, or when younger members of the family are sick. This renders it possible for them to live with the family, and avoid becoming a burden on them, being able to contribute the little they earn towards the keep of the house. So long as the mill engine is constantly kept working from morning till evening, the number of women and children—I might almost add adults—employed is a matter of secondary consideration, but this is necessary if all the machines are to work, as so many daily absent themselves from Indian mills.

Accidents.

6. During the year there were 10 fatal accidents and 127 accidents reported as serious and 206 as slight. Taking the total number of persons employed from last year's return, viz. 139,973, or, say, 140,000, represent an average of 1 in 400 injured, or ·245 per cent. I have no statistics showing the number of accidents that occur during the year in English factories; consequently am unable to make any comparison, or to state if this percentage is small. My impression is it would compare favourably with any other country. Regarding the fatal accidents mentioned above, three were caused from adjusting belts when the machinery was in motion (a large number of accidents occur annually in home mills from this cause, and no satisfactory means has yet been devised to prevent them), two men were crushed while shunting wagons on the factory sidings, one man was killed by falling down the hold of a ship docking in the Rivers Steam Navigation Company's dockyard, another lost his life by a bale of paper falling from the sling on him when loading in a boat, and one was killed by falling on the doffer roller of a jute-carding machine while he was engaged in cleaning it. Some serious accidents were noticeable amongst those reported, but on the other hand a number of slight accidents reported can hardly be considered accidents. Many of them consist of slight bruises, cuts, and falls.

During the month of September I issued a circular letter to all managers of mills and workshops of both provinces, pointing out the serious accidents that had occurred from adjusting belts while the machinery was in motion; for I considered it desirable that those in charge of machinery should be made aware of the danger of allowing men to replace belts that are not specially trained for the work. I also suggested a larger use of belt hangers, &c. A few accidents of serious nature occur annually to those working the jute-softening machine. Under these circumstances, I think it should be made compulsory to fix a self-travelling cloth at the delivery end of these machines, to avoid the necessity of taking the jute direct from the rollers. This arrangement has been fixed in a few mills with satisfactory results, and is preferable to inserting two smooth rollers (occasionally done), as they are apt to cause the jute to become jammed. The managers are, with few exceptions, most willing to adopt any device that will reduce accident if practicable, and I find the machinery generally better protected than will be found in English mills.

Work of the Certifying Surgeon.

7. Some excellent work has been done by the Civil Surgeons in sanitary matters, also in bringing about a better supply of water, and their periodical inspection of children in the mill has a tendency to keep out small children which would otherwise creep in. I notice in some instances that warning is sent by the Civil Surgeon, intimating the date of his intended visit. I think for various reasons it would be preferable not to send any advice, as a more accurate knowledge of the mill working would then be gained. I should be glad if the Medical Inspectors would especially note the conditions of the atmosphere in cotton mills during the dry weather, as the windows at that time will be found generally closed, and ventilation insufficient.

Fires.

8. A few serious fires have taken place during the year in both jute press godowns and jute mill godowns. I think it strange that mill owners and Life Insurance Companies do not make use of such means as are well known to be effective in preventing fires, knowing how difficult it is to extinguish jute when it once catches fire. A steam pipe carried into each godown, with outside means of closing the ventilators, would in time of fire at least enable every available engine to proceed to the mill before any appreciable damage would be done.

In concluding I must thank the Magistrates for the help they have rendered me by enforcing orders that have occasionally been neglected. Slight errors will always be noticeable, many of which are almost excusable when it is known how much an Indian mill manager has to contend with in dealing from morn till night with large numbers of men, which cannot always be relied on, to exert themselves in the interest of the mill.

No. 208T.G., dated Darjeeling, the 30th June 1895.

From—C. E. BUCKLAND, ESQ., C.I.E., Secretary to the Government of Bengal, General Department,

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department.

I AM directed to submit the Report on the working of the Indian Factories Act, XV of 1881, as amended by Act XI of 1891, in Bengal during the year 1894. The prescribed statements, Forms I and II, are appended. The only change in the rules which took place during the year was a change in Form B (the form in which remarks of Inspecting Officers are recorded) and of the instructions relating thereto. A copy of the notification of 5th February 1895, containing the latest revision of the instructions, is appended to this report.

A jute mill, called the Imperial Jute Mill, was opened in December 1894 at Gondalpara in Chandernagore, but being in French territory, does not come under the operation of the Factory Act. Mr. Walsh, the Special Inspector, remarks on this that similar extensions are likely to be widely made, as French territory will afford them the opportunity of working the mill without the annoyance of possible further interference from England in factory matters.

2. Number of factories and the system of work.—There were 158 factories under the operation of the Act in Bengal at the commencement of the year. Twelve were brought under the Act during the year, namely, one cotton mill and one jute press in Howrah; one jute press in Jalpaiguri; seven jute presses in Dacca; one bone-crushing mill and one match factory in the 24-Parganas. Eight factories were closed or excluded from the operation of the Act. The match factory was closed before the end of the year, as were also four jute presses in Dacca; and the three jute presses named in the margin were exempted either because the number of hands working in them had fallen below 50, or because they had been worked for less than four months in the year. Thus the year closed with 162 factories on the list. A majority of the jute mills worked for only five days a week, from 1st April till the end of June, owing to the scarcity of jute and the high prices prevailing; but the jute crop of 1894, which was the largest crop on record, has since kept all mills working full time. In 71 factories work was carried on by shifts or sets, and in 75 by midday stoppages, while the remainder worked otherwise. The number of factories exempted from the rule requiring a Sunday or weekly holiday was 61, against 57 in the previous year. The four additional factories were jute presses—1 in Calcutta and 3 in Dacca.

The Chitpur Hydraulic Press.
The Howrah Hydraulic Press.
Chitpur Canal Press.

The Hastings Jute Mill at Serampore commenced, in March 1894, a system of working by shifts at night as well in the day time by the aid of electric light. A question was asked in the House of Commons in regard to this system of work, and at the request of the Secretary of State for India, the Government of India called for a report on the facts. The Lieutenant-Governor, after due enquiry, was satisfied that the owners of the mill had not infringed the law in any respect. The services of the few boys employed at night, to whom exception was taken by the Civil Surgeon, were promptly dispensed with. A report to this effect was submitted to the Government of India with this Government's letter No. 138T.G., dated the 16th September 1894.

3. Inspections.—The total number of inspections held during the year was 626, against 509 in the previous year. Thus, on an average, each factory was inspected nearly four times. The number of inspections held by medical officers rose from 201 in the previous year to 267 in the year under review.

There are only two cases in which no inspection was made during the year; in one the factory was closed throughout the year: in the other, which occurred at Jalpaiguri, an explanation has been called for.

4. Results of inspection.—The results of inspections were generally satisfactory. The registers prescribed were found to be duly kept, and the periodical returns were submitted in due time. The suggestions of the inspecting officers received full and prompt attention from the managers of factories.

Mr. Walsh, the Special Inspector of Factories, says that he has noticed in some instances that warning is sent by the Civil Surgeon of the date of his intended visit, and he thinks that it would be preferable not to send any such intimation, as a more accurate knowledge of the working of mills would then be gained. The Lieutenant-Governor will cause the suggestion to be made to them that as a rule surprise visits are likely to be most effective. There are certain cases, however, as, for instance, where Civil Surgeon wants to have all the children mustered before him on his arrival, when it is essential for him to send notice beforehand.

5. Sanitary condition and sanitary arrangements in factories.—As reported in the previous year, the sanitary condition of the factories and the sanitary arrangements in them were generally satisfactory. The buildings were kept clean and well ventilated, and accommodation in them was sufficient. The rule as to periodical lime-washing was duly observed.

6. Quarters for the operatives.—Mr. C. A. Walsh, the Special Inspector of Factories, makes the following remarks regarding the accommodation for operatives:—

"The increased demand for labour has induced, and in all possibility will continue to induce, a large number of new hands to settle in the vicinity of mills, and more attention might be paid by owners and managers to provide suitable accommodation for them. The quarters in which the operatives live need, I think, investigation. Glance over the boundary wall of Barnagore, or walk a hundred yards from Shamnagore, Titaghur or other large mill, and look at the miserable quarters of those whose lot it is to labour daily in the mill. A collection of filthy hovels meets the eye, constructed rudely of mud thatched with grass or old kerosine oil tins flattened out, devoid of drainage, and too crowded for a proper supply of air. It remains a marvel how human life, however accustomed to insanitary surroundings, can survive. When it is considered that so many mills are paying large dividends, it is surely not too much to ask that a few thousand rupees be annually spent on improved, well-drained, ventilated pucka quarters for the operatives, together with public latrines and urinals, similar to those provided by Messrs. David and Company, Ralli Brothers, and other jute-pressing firms at Narayanganj. Much has been done by some mills to provide decent housing for the workers, and more would be done if the municipalities would render some assistance in aiding the mill-owners to acquire lands for the purpose of building, and allowing them to fill up cesspools, and generally to improve the sanitary condition of these mill surroundings."

The owners of factories are under no legal obligation to attend to the sanitary wants of their employés when outside the limits of the factory; this duty devolves on the municipality, if any such exists. At the same time His Honour is persuaded that factory owners would find any money spent in this manner to be well laid out, owing to the improvement that would result in the health, contentment and regularity of attendance of their workmen.

The insanitary condition of the bastis inhabited by the employés of the factories at Garden Reach was referred to in paragraph 6 of the report for 1893. The main evils in this case (for the remedying of which the Municipal Administration is responsible) are (1) the overcrowding of the houses, (2) want of proper drainage, (3) want of good water-supply, and (4) want of an efficient system of conservancy. The Chairman of the Municipality has been directed to take immediate steps to initiate the necessary measures for removing these complaints.

7. Vaccination of operatives.—In paragraph 11 of the report for the year 1892, it was stated that the question of insisting on the vaccination of factory employés would be separately considered. Most of the factories in the province are situated within municipal limits in which the Bengal Vaccination Act, 1880, was in force. The operatives therefore in these factories, equally with other residents of the town, were bound to be vaccinated, and no further action has been taken than to call upon all Civil Surgeons as Superintendents of Vaccination to see that the law was carried out. As to the few factories situated outside municipal limits, the Lieutenant-Governor considered but finally rejected the proposal to apply the Vaccination Act to them specially, by treating them as 'local areas' within the meaning of section 1 of the Act. It was thought that the object in view would be gained by the voluntary co-operation of the managers and owners of factories with the Vaccination Department, and the Sanitary Commissioner was requested to take steps to secure this with the assistance of the Special Inspector of Factories.

8. Water-supply.—As reported in the previous year, the arrangement for the supply of drinking-water is of very varying character. Where a factory is situated within a Municipality which has a pure water-supply, nothing further is necessary: elsewhere the quality of the water used is very doubtful, except in those factories where filtered water is supplied from reservoirs on the premises. Several factories have introduced such filters, and inspecting officers have been instructed to press this matter on the attention of managers, and especially to invite them to consider the advantages offered by the Pasteur-Chamberland filter, of which excellent accounts are received. In future all District Officers will be directed to report specially into how many factories filtering arrangements have been introduced during the year.

9. Latrines.—There have been marked improvements in the latrines during the year. Many that were originally constructed in a temporary manner of old materials have been replaced by new structures built of brick with cemented floors or of corrugated iron. In the factories where both male and female operatives are employed, separate latrine accommodation is provided for each sex. Good flushing arrangements and constant use of disinfectants have been insisted on, and the number of sweepers where found inadequate, has been increased. Generally it may be said that improvements proposed by inspecting officers have been readily complied with.

10. Number of operatives.—The total number of operatives employed in the various factories was 129,729, against 139,973 reported in the previous year, but the real number should have been 126,012. The error in the figures for 1893 occurred in regard to the Alipore Jail Jute Mill, the average number of men employed in that year having been reported to be 14,201, instead of 240. The number of male adults was 101,631 against 98,511, female adults 18,206 against 17,607, boys 9,053 against 9,196, and girls 839 against 701. The Dacca return has fallen from 5,973 to 4,047, in consequence of a change introduced by the Magistrate of Dacca, who has left out a large number of coolies who were engaged on such incidental processes as collection, storage and shipment of jute, considering that they are not in any way connected with the factory, and should not be counted. The Lieutenant-Governor considers that Magistrate is correct, and directs that this system shall be invariably followed in future in counting the number of factory hands.

11. General health of the operatives.—The general health of the operatives employed in the factories in Dacca, Patna, Rajshahi, and Orissa Divisions was good during the year, no epidemic of any kind having occurred. In the Raniganj Paper Mill in Burdwan, cholera and influenza broke out in a most malignant form, resulting fatally in several cases. Some deaths from cholera also occurred among the employés of the Iron and Steel Works of that subdivision. In some factories in the district of Hooghly, cholera made its appearence, though the mortality was not heavy. The mill hands in some places in the 24-Parganas suffered from malarious fever, and there were also some sporadic cases of cholera; but these illnesses occurred among operatives living outside the factory premises in their own bastis, and were not due to the insanitary condition of the factories themselves. Small-pox was prevalent in this district during the year, but very few cases of the disease occurred among the factory hands.

12. Wages and general conditions of the operatives.—There was no material alteration in the rates of wages paid to the different classes of operatives in the year under report as compared with the previous year. In this connection Surgeon-Major Leahy, Civil Surgeon of the 24-Parganas, makes the following remarks:—

"In attempting to strike a correct average among the hands employed in factories, it must be borne in mind that many branches of manufactures are represented. It is common for various members of one family, consisting of men, women and children, to obtain employment together in some of the larger concerns, such as the jute and cotton mills, and in this way the total earnings of the family are very much higher than is the case with the ordinary daily labourer, who alone works for his family. Within the factories, the employés work in shifts, and their periods of work alternate with the periods of rest. Their sanitary surroundings are good; they are sufficiently clad, and they are well fed; so that, on the whole, the condition of the operatives may be said to compare very favourably with that of the outside labourer."

The Officiating Commissioner of Burdwan, Mr. Bourdillon, observes that factory labour is more popular than work elsewhere, because it provides continuous employment, allows a liberal scale of wages, and payments are made with regularity, and the other reporting officers appear to agree generally in these remarks.

13. Employment of women.—There are no special remarks to be made regarding the employment of women beyond what was stated in the last report. The law and rules are generally observed, and as a rule light work is given to them. In the Jobra Workshop, in Cuttack, the women are employed in carrying water, removing rubbish, and sweeping the shops. In the jute factories in Dacca they are employed in cleaning and sorting jute and rope making. The old women are engaged in feeding the carding and jute-softening machine. Regarding the employment of old women, the Special Inspector of Factories writes:—

"I have always regarded the employment of such as creditable to the managers concerned, for it is evident they can be of little service, except in so far as relieving others during the intervals, or when younger members of the family are sick. This renders it possible for them to live with the family and avoid becoming a burden on them, being able to contribute the little they earn towards the keep of the house."

14. Employment and ages of children.—In Dacca no certificate of age appears to have been applied for or granted during the year. The only case of misfeasance contained in the reports regarding the employment of children is that of the Bengal Cotton Mills in the district of the 24-Parganas, where 261 male and 25 female children are employed. The Commissioner writes:—"The manager of this mill has often been found to disregard orders and to employ children in his factory under the age of nine years." A special enquiry has been ordered into this case. With this exception, it is said that in the 24-Parganas the ages of all were duly certified. Dr. R. S. Ashe, the Civil Medical Officer of Serampore, makes the following remarks regarding the certificates of age of children employed in the factories within his jurisdiction:—

"During the year at each inspection as many of the children as were on the premises, and who were admitted since last inspection, were paraded, and all children of doubtful ages were ordered to be examined and certified for further service. It was the one way of dealing with the question of age on the refusal of the manager to get their juveline workers certified en masse. Still under their system it was found impracticable to examine every new child; numbers would be absent during the day of inspection, and these children would escape all examination, and there was nothing but the age entered in the book kept in the Form F, which was uncorroborated by any examination, to show that the child was not under age. I am therefore very strongly impressed with the experience of the year's working of the Act as regards children that there would be no possibility of any child under age being taken in by mistake (for I do not think for a moment that the managers would deliberately contravene the Act) if each child before obtaining service were to produce a certificate of age from the Certifying Surgeon, or, if this be found inconvenient, be made to obtain one within a week of his being taken into work."

Mr. Duke, the Magistrate of Hooghly, however, correctly observes that the managers cannot be compelled, under the law, to have children certified. They run the risk of prosecution if they are found employing children below nine years who have not been certified; but the law does not prohibit them from relying on their own judgment as to the age of the children if they choose to run that risk. They are, however, bound, under rule 21, to "bring before an Inspector, on the occasion of an inspection, all children employed in the factory." Civil Surgeons should insist on having all the children mustered before them, and they will be instructed to this effect.

15. Fencing of machinery.—All the dangerous parts of the machinery were properly fenced, and wherever any defects were noticed during the inspections, they were properly attended to.

16. Accidents.—The total number of accidents reported during the year was 417, against 431 and 338 in the two preceding years, respectively. Of these 19 were fatal (against 11 in the previous year), 193 were of a serious nature, and 205 were slight, consisting of bruises, cuts, and falls. There was thus on an average one person injured to every 311 employed during the year, and one person killed to every 6,827. Of the fatal accidents mentioned above, three were caused from an attempt to adjust belts while the machinery was in motion. As accidents arising from this cause are of frequent occurrence in this country, the advisability of legislative interference to prevent their occurrence has been under consideration. It was thought that a circular issued by

Mr. Walsh to all mills in Bengal and the North-Western Provinces, suggesting the introduction of belt shippers and pulley hooks, would have the effect of diminishing the number of accidents, and the rules to be adopted in Bengal for the purpose of minimising the risk of such accidents, are now under the consideration of this Government.

The following are some of the fatal and serious accidents that occurred during the year:—

(1) On the 2nd July 1894, a servant of the Tarpur Sugar Factory, in Jessore, was fatally injured in an attempt to replace a belt which had slipped off the revolving wheel. He was sent to the Jessore Hospital, where he died.

(2) On the 11th August 1894, a cooly of the Kanchrapara Railway Workshop, while looking after the drawbar couplings being fitted on two third-class carriages on the weigh-bridge line, was crushed between the buffers of the two vehicles, which were being hand-shunted at the time, and met with immediate death. He had been warned beforehand, but disregarded the warning.

(3) On the 6th September last, a man employed in the Shamnagore Jute Mills, in picking the dappering roller of a carding machine, had his hand entangled into the machinery, and in his attempt to extricate himself, fell within and was killed at once.

(4) On the 20th September 1894, in the Cossipore Foundry and Shell Factory, a cooly, while being pulled up by a rope for hoisting a chain, fell down owing to the rope giving way. He died on his way to hospital.

(5) On the 22nd September 1894, a cooly in the Baranagore Branch Jute Mill, while oiling a spinning machine, accidentally slipped over it and received serious injuries, which resulted in his death after lying two days in the Campbell Hospital.

(6) On the 25th September 1894, in the Gouripore Jute Mills, while an employé was engaged in tying on mats to the sides of jute piles, two jute bales rolled upon him, breaking his leg, hand and back. He was immediately sent to the Hooghly hospital, where he died.

(7) On the 31st October 1894, a bale of paper fell out of sling on a cooly of the Tittaghur Paper Mill while a boat was being loaded. The man was severely injured, and was removed to hospital, where he died.

(8) On the 9th November 1894, a moulder of the Cossipore Gun Foundry, while passing by a machine where tin cups were being made, received an injury on his abdomen, by a cup splitting out of the machinery. He was removed to the North Suburban Hospital, where he died.

(9) On the 30th October 1894, a Muhammadan boy of 15 or 16 years of age was found dead, in a sleeping posture, near the boilers of the Bengal Iron and Steel Works at Raniganj. The accident, which occurred near the boilers, was due to a leakage of gas at one of the safety valves, and to the neglect of the men on duty in not stopping it more promptly, and then to their endeavouring to stop it themselves when it had already attained dangerous proportions, without giving any intimation to the officer then on duty. That officer found that five of the men on duty were more or less stupefied by gas, and took immediate steps to restore them to consciousness with success. The Muhammadan boy was not found until long after, and no one could tell what he was doing in that place and how he got there.

(10) A cooly at work in the Champdani Mill at Serampore was caught in the belting while shipping it on to the shafting and was carried upwards to the roof and had his head smashed in. Death was instantaneous.

(11) A cooly at the Wellington Mills in the Serampore subdivision fell into the crankshaft pit and had his back broken. He died half an hour afterwards.

(12) A cooly at the Central Jute Mills was killed while trying to put on a belt that was off the pulley without asking the sardar to stop the engine.

(13) On the 19th May 1894, a workman in the Locomotive Workshop at Jamalpur, named Kadir, while engaged in crane lifting, got his foot badly crushed by a cast-iron flooring plate, which he had neglected to fasten securely with chains and hooks provided for the purpose.

17. Prosecutions.—No prosecution was instituted in any of the factories during the year under report.

NOTIFICATION—No. 2676.

The 6th August 1895.—The following papers are published for general information.

C. E. BUCKLAND,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Extract, paragraph 9, from the letter from the Commissioner of the Presidency Division, No. $\frac{G}{191}$, dated the 13th May 1895.

PARA. 9.—Results of inspection.—On the whole, 37 more inspections were held during the year under report than in the previous year. It appears from the reports received from the several Inspectors that the requirements of the Factories Act and the rules framed thereunder were generally complied with, and that suggestions made by the Inspectors as regards sanitary improvements, supply of drinking water and attention to the rules, were readily attended to. The Bengal Cotton Mills seem to form an exception. The manager of this mill has often been found to disregard orders and to employ children in his factory under the age of nine years. I have requested the Magistrate to give him a formal warning of the measures which the law allows to be taken against him, if he continues to disregard the authority of the officers of Government.

No. 1939, dated Calcutta, the 4th June 1895.

From—N. BONHAM-CARTER, ESQ., Under-Secretary to the Government of Bengal, General Department,
To—The Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

WITH reference to your letter No. $\frac{G}{191}$, dated the 13th May 1895, submitting the report on the working of the Indian Factories Act in your Division during the year 1894, I am directed to request that a special report may be submitted on the disregard of orders by the manager of the Bengal Cotton Mills, and the employment in his factory of children under nine years, mention of which is made in paragraph 9 of your letter.

No. $\frac{G}{62P}$, dated Calcutta, the 23rd July 1895.

From—E. V. WESTMACOTT, ESQ., Commissioner of the Presidency Division,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, General Department.

WITH reference to your No. 1939, dated the 4th June last, and the subsequent reminder, I have the honour to submit, for the information of Government, copy of letter No. 2493, dated the 27th idem, from the Magistrate of the 24-Parganas, on the subject of employment of children under nine years of age at the Bengal Cotton Mills.

2. With regard to paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Magistrate's letter, I have informed him that in any case in which an Inspector feels any doubt as to a child's age, he must call for a regular certificate from the certifying Surgeon, who is specified in paragraph 6 of Government Resolution No. 1312, dated the 30th April 1892, and that the certificate of a mill doctor cannot be accepted.

No. 2493, dated Alipore, the 27th June 1895.

From—E. W. COLLIN, ESQ., Offg. Magistrate of the 24-Parganas,
To—The Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

WITH reference to your letter No. 47G F, dated the 13th instant, on the subject of the employment of children at the Bengal Cotton Mills, it appears that in June 1894, the Civil Surgeon reported that the age of all the children employed had been certified. On the 6th November 1894, out of 263 children, 55 were examined and 6 were found below nine years of age. In your letter No. 138G.F., dated the 27th November, it was said that the six children should not be allowed to work. On the 30th November the Special Inspector complained that the register of children in Form E was not kept in proper form, nor were certificates of ages given in the proper forms. He also reported that there was no regular manager there, and that the management of the factory was lax. The agents were addressed, and were requested to see that the Register E was properly kept up, and that no child was admitted without a certificate of age. In March 1895, the Special Inspector of Factories reported that the Register E was kept up to date, and that the names of children were correctly entered and their ages certified.

2. On the 11th April 1895, the mills were again inspected by the Civil Surgeon. He examined 44 children out of 150 employed, and found three under age, and on the 10th May 1895, the manager was warned that the employment of children under the age of nine in contravention of section 7(1) of the Act would make him liable to prosecution.

3. In compliance with your letter No. 97G.F., dated 13th June 1895, I deputed the Joint-Magistrate to make an inquiry. He found that the children declared to be under 9 years of age by the Civil Surgeon at his inspection of the 11th April had been dismissed, and that the manager employs a qualified native doctor, without whose certificate no children are employed.

4. It appears that the manager does not obtain a certificate from a certifying Surgeon as to the age of all children employed, as he has been instructed to do. On this subject I have the honour to refer you to my letter No. 2492, dated the 27th June 1895, from which it will appear that such order is not justified by the law as it at present stands. I have the honour to suggest that if at the next inspection the Civil Surgeon finds any children under nine years of age, the manager should be prosecuted.

No. 2621, dated Calcutta, the 5th August 1895.

From—C. E. BUCKLAND, ESQ., C.I.E., Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal, General Department,

To—The Commissioner of the Presidency Division.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. G./62F., dated the 23rd July 1895, and its enclosure, submitting a special report on the disregard of orders by the Manager of the Bengal Cotton Mills in regard to the employment in his factory of children under nine years.

2. In reply, I am to say that the leniency with which the Manager of the mill has been treated for his repeated breaches of the law has been very great, and in future if any breach is proved against him, he should be dealt with according to the strict provisions of the law.

By order,

R. BELCHAMBERS,

IT is ordered that the following Rules be read and passed as Rules of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, to take effect from the 12th day of August 1895:—

1. From and after the 12th day of August 1895, three General Cause Lists shall be kept in the Registrar's Office, to be called respectively "General List of Causes," "General List of Suits for Liquidated Claims," and "General List of Commercial Causes."

2. Every suit which is a commercial cause, that is to say, in which the claim arises out of the ordinary transactions of merchants and traders—amongst others, those relating to the construction of mercantile documents, exports or imports of merchandise, affreightment, insurance, banking and mercantile agency and mercantile usage—shall be entered in the General List of Commercial Causes.

3. On and after the 12th day of August 1895, when a plaint is presented, the Judge shall, on the application to that effect of the plaintiff, unless he be of opinion, on reading the plaint, that the suit does not properly belong to the class of commercial causes, as described in rule 2, direct that the suit shall be placed in the General List of Commercial Causes. When no such application is made, it shall be for the Judge, when a plaint is presented, to determine whether the case shall as a commercial cause be placed in such list.

4. Either party may apply, by summons, to the Judge in Chambers that any case entered in the General List of Causes, whether before on after the 12th day of August 1895, may be transferred to the General List of Commercial Causes.

5. Either party may apply, by summons, to the Judge in Chambers, that any case entered in the General List of Commercial Causes may be transferred to the General List of Causes, on the ground only that the case is not a commercial cause; provided that the plaintiff shall not be entitled to apply under this rule for the transfer of a case from the General List of Commercial Causes if such case was entered therein on his application.

6. Whenever two or more Courts shall sit concurrently in the exercise of Ordinary Original Civil Jurisdiction, two or, if there be three Courts, three peremptory lists of defended causes shall be prepared for every working day, and, unless otherwise ordered, one or, if there be three Courts, two of such lists shall be supplied with cases from the General List of Causes, and the other with cases from the General List of Suits for Liquidated Claims, and from the General List of Commercial Causes, and also, when necessary, from the General List of Causes.

7. When only one Court shall sit in the exercise of Ordinary Original Civil Jurisdiction, one peremptory list of defended causes shall be prepared for every working day, and shall be supplied on such day or days of each week as such Judge may order, first with cases from the General List of Suits for Liquidated Claims, next with cases from the General List of Commercial Causes, and next with cases from the General List of Causes.

8. All applications in Chambers and all motions in cases placed in the General List of Commercial Causes will be heard by the Judge in whose list suits for liquidated claims and commercial causes shall for the time being be set down.

9. The Rules of this Court for regulating its procedure on the Original Side are hereby confirmed, except so far as they are inconsistent with these rules.

MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT—(SANITATION).

NOTIFICATION.

No. 3295S. The 13*th August* 1895.—The following report by Surgeon-Colonel R. Harvey on the causation of malarial fever is published for general information.

H. H. RISLEY,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. 8267, dated Calcutta, the 18th September 1894.

From—SURGEON-COLONEL R. HARVEY, M.D., D.S.O., Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals, Bengal,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Municipal Department.

WITH reference to your No. 3245S., dated 10th August, forwarding copy of the Sanitary Drainage Bill, &c., for favour of opinion, I have the honour to state that, having carefully gone through the Bill and considered all the criticisms on it and on His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor's speech at Dacca, explaining its objects and reasons, I have come to the following conclusions.

That the Bill itself being of a purely technical nature, it is beyond my province or capacity to criticise it, the more so as it does not itself contain any medical facts or arguments with which I could deal.

3. These facts and arguments are contained in His Honour's speech and in the criticisms on the speech and on the reasons which are supposed to justify or to condemn the Bill, and it is on these that I understand my opinion is required. They involve the whole question as to the causation of so-called malarious fevers, and call for an explanation of various differences or supposed differences of medical opinion on that subject.

4. Briefly put, the chief arguments in favour of the Bill are that malarious fevers are as a matter of fact notoriously prevalent and unusually fatal in marshy and water-logged tracts, where defective or obstructed drainage is met with; that in certain districts of Bengal where these conditions obtain they are so prevalent and fatal as to counteract the natural growth of population, and that the most, or indeed the only, effective remedy for such tracts is drainage.

5. It is maintained on the other hand that the cause of malaria is not obstruction to drainage, but proverty;—and numerous medical opinions are cited in proof of this;—that such obstructions as exist are mainly due to railways and roads; that the Act is unnecessary, because such drainage as is required should be provided for by District Boards from the Road Cess Fund; that the people are too poor to pay for costly projects the utility of which is doubtful; and that what money is available should be applied to the more important object of an improved water-supply.

6. The main contention is, however, the first, viz., that malarial fever is not due to obstructed drainage, but to poverty, and much is made in many of the Indian newspapers of the supposed differences of opinion among medical men on this point. So far as I can see, however, there is no such difference of opinion, and the views held by the supporters and opponents of the Bill are perfectly compatible with each other, so far as the causes of malaria are concerned.

7. In most questions of causation many factors are concerned, some of which, though of great importance, are mere accidents, and not essentials. Besides the real, true, or primary cause, we have all sorts of secondary causes, predisposing causes, exciting causes, and causes which may augment or diminish or otherwise modify the action of the true cause. This is specially the case with malaria and its causes, and it is to the ascription of undue importance to secondary issues that much of the confusion of thought and opinion is due. A concrete example may bring this out and serve as an illustration of the complexity of conditions which govern the genesis of malaria. What are the causes of a field of rice ready for the sickle? Every one can see that they are many and complex. Unless the soil is carefully prepared at the proper season, unless it is duly planted out, unless it has sufficient water and sufficient sunshine, it cannot exist. All these are in one sense causes, but they are secondary causes, all of which combined are powerless without the first essential, the provision of the seed. Yet the seed itself will come to nothing unless it meets with the secondary causes named. If sown on dry ground it withers away, if exposed to excess of water it rots, and so on, so that we require not only a seed as a condition sine quâ non, but a host of other causes to bring this seed to its culmination of bearing fruit an hundredfold. This analogy applies exactly to the development of a large number of diseases. They depend on a specific cause, which may be compared to a seed; but this cannot grow unless the conditions of its environment are such as to furnish a soil in which it can flourish. In many cases, such as anthrax, tuberculosis, splenic fever, erysipelas, &c., this seed or germ has been isolated and demonstrated. In others, such as enteric fever, cholera, leprosy, and tetanus, the evidence, though sufficient to satisfy many, cannot as yet be said to have been completely accepted by the profession. In others, again, the specific cause has not yet been demonstrated; yet there is no doubt whatever that it exists. Take small-pox for instance. Everybody knows that a drop of matter from a small-pox postule will give small-pox if inoculated under the skin of an unprotected person. A drop of ordinary pus will have no such effect. Yet the specific pus of small-pox cannot be distinguished chemically, microscopically, or bacteriologically from ordinary pus. Measles, typhus fever, and other so-called zymotic diseases are all due to specific causes which have not yet been isolated. The plague is another, and it is now announced that Dr. Kitasato of Japan has succeeded in isolating its bacillus at Hongkong. None of these diseases can originate de novo. If the seed is not there, no amount of favourable secondary causes will produce them. Measles was unknown in the Fiji Islands till introduced by an imported case, when 20,000 persons perished.

8. It is now generally accepted by the medical profession that malaria is due to a specific cause, though some are not prepared to admit that it has as yet been demonstrated. The researches, however, of Laveran in Algeria, Marchiafava and Celli in Rome, Patrick Manson in China and elsewhere, Vandyke Carter in Bombay, Olser in Baltimore, Kaufmann at Ismalia and Cairo, Crombie in Calcutta, Councilman and others go to show that it is due to a specific bacillus (or rather plasmodium) present in the blood corpuscles. Whether this be true or not,—and bacteriology, though the latest of the medical sciences, is already so encyclopedic that medical men engaged in active practice have to accept or reject the conclusions of bacteriologists to a large extent on trust,—the consensus of medical opinion is, as I have stated, that malaria is due to some specific cause, and that in the absence of that cause neither poverty, nor exposure, nor chill, nor dampness from deficient drainage will produce it. Given the germ, however, all these act as powerful secondary causes in promoting its growth and extension.

9. We know that poor, badly kept seed will produce a poor crop; well-selected and carefully-kept seed a good crop. We know also that the inherent activity of the seeds of disease may be lessened or increased under certain conditions, and this has no doubt a distinct, though ill-defined, relation to the varying severity of epidemics. We know also that as the ultimate result of a field sown with good seed depends on the many secondary conditions already alluded to, so the result of the implantation of the seeds of disease will depend entirely on the conditions they meet with. If they find a congenial soil, they will flourish, the result being an epidemic; if they find no such soil, they also will wither away.

10. There can be no manner of doubt that one of the most favourable conditions for intensifying the malarial germ (whatever it may be) is a marshy and water-logged soil. But it is now generally recognised that such a soil will not generate fever unless the specific cause is there, and this accounts for the absence of fever in many such places. There is also no manner of doubt that when fever prevails in such localities, thorough drainage is the only efficient remedy. England affords an excellent illustration of both these points. In the days of the Tudors ague was prevalent all over the country, then sparsely peopled and cultivated, but especially so in the eastern counties, which are very flat, marshy, and water-logged. With increased cultivation and mproved drainage ague gradually disappeared, except from the eastern counties, which were not thoroughly drained till the present century. The disease has now, however, all but disappeared, and only lingers here and there in a few marshy places which have not been affected by the drainage operations. In 1809 a British army practically disappeared under the deadly influence of malaria in the marshes of Walchern. These marshes have now been drained, and fever is nearly unknown. In the early days of the settlement of the Carolinas malarial fevers were very prevalent and deadly, especially in the belt of rice growing country near the coast. As population and cultivation increased fevers diminished; but since the abolition of slavery after the war of 1861—64, large tracts of land have gone out of cultivation for want of labour, drainage has become obstructed, and fevers have again become common. I have seen large tracts which were once flourishing plantations reduced to sodden marsh, in which white men could no longer live.

11. These cases seem a sufficient reply to the question of the Hindu Patriot of 26th July 1894:—"Is there any one who is prepared to say that the connection between obstructed drainage and malaria has been conclusively established yet?" Indeed, the Hindu Patriot itself was for a long time the chief exponent of the theory that the one essential cause of malaria was obstructed drainage. In its issue of 19th December 1873, for instance, it says:—

"This big drain [in Sibpur] cannot possibly fail to strike any man as being the drainage channel of the village, carrying the periodical monsoon rainfall over the village through a culvert in the road to its outfall, the Hooghly, by means of a creek which runs along the southern boundary of the Botanic Gardens. This drain, as already observed, was filled up between April and June last, and the epidemic fever—true to the law which governs it, as we have repeatedly shown in these columns—broke out at the latter end of September following. We are aware that it is hard for our rulers, learned in the abstruse laws of nature, to swallow such a simple cause as this, explaining so important a phenomenon, which has for the last 14 years eluded the grasp of its own scientific officers But whether our lamentations are heard or not, the very expression of them gives relief to our minds, and this is one excuse for recurring so often to the subject."

12. Several other papers at that time took the same view, which was very strongly held by the late Raja Digamber Mitter, C.S.I., and in consequence of their representations a Committee, of which Dr. Lethbridge was President, and Mr. J. Whitfield, C.E., Executive Engineer, Assistant Surgeon Amrito Lal Mozamdar, Babu Piari Mohan Mukerji, and Deputy Collector Hem Chandra Kur, members, was appointed. Their instructions were (Bengal Government, Sanitation No. 1628, dated 29th May 1877) "to examine Sibpur, Bally, and Connagar, the places mentioned in Rajah Digambar's memorandum, and see if they can find from their investigations there where there are any grounds for continuing the enquiry."

After a careful enquiry, which include a systematic survey

"by a competent overseer of the Public Works Department,"

they arrived at the conclusion that as regards Sibpur

"it is physically impossible that the filling up of the Chowdhry's gurh can have caused any obstruction to the drainage" (paragraph 8).

As regards Bally they found that—

"There has been no obstruction, nor is it possible that there could be any" (paragraph 18).

And again—

"Every statement made regarding Bally having been found to be incorrect, it was considered unnecessary to make any enquiry into the prevalence of fever" (paragraph 23).

As regards Connagar they say—

"Since the main roads of the village run parallel to the drainage channels, no serious obstructions can be caused * * * and * * except in a few minor instances no such obstruction existed" (paragraph 26).

Again—

"Although there may have been some obstruction caused by the bund, it is physically impossible, from the nature of the ground, that it could have been to any great extent" (paragraph 36).

13. It will thus be seen that the Committee do not say that obstructed drainage is not the cause of fever, but that in the particular instances which they were commissioned to examine, the drainage had not been obstructed, a very different thing. Indeed, in paragraph 2 they say:—"We are not prepared to say that increased dampness is not one of the causes of the fever." * * * "There is a popular idea that there is increased dampness in the villages around Calcutta."

14. That Dr. Lethbridge was of a totally different opinion to that now attributed to him is shown by the following extract from his No. 594M.I., dated 15th May 1877, when he was Officiating Sanitary Commissioner for Bengal:—

"It was shown by the Commission of 1864 that the fever then prevailing was of malarious origin, and that the chief factor in its development was dampness of the subsoil. With one or two exceptions all subsequent enquirers (and there have been many) are of the same opinion, and for all practical purposes these two points are now established. It is when we come to account for the unusual dampness that we find a very considerable difference of opinion.

"While I refrain from discussing the question here. I ought to mention that I cannot altogether accept Rajah Digambar Mitter's view of the dampness of the village subsoil itself being the sole and only cause of the fever, or that this has altogether been brought about by roads and railways, yet I am so profoundly impressed with the evidence that goes to show that long continued dampness at a time of the year when the soil ought to be rapidly drained of its excess of moisture is the chief cause of unhealthiness, that I accept the Rajah's recommendations for facilitating the drainage of villages as being worthy of serious consideration."

15. Yet Dr. Lethbridge is now claimed as holding the opinion that poverty and not obstructed drainage, is the chief cause of fever, and the report of his Committee, which was severely criticised at the time, is held to take the same view. Yet poverty is not so much as mentioned in the report unless "the poor condition of the people," mentioned by Dr. Greene (paragraph 31) refers to poverty; I believe it refers to physique. This one statement of Dr. Greene's is used by the Hindu Patriot to make him also an upholder of the causation-by-poverty theory, whereas he was one of the strongest up-holders of the causation-by-obstructed-drainage theory.

16. Poverty is to fever what sunshine or rainfall or proper tillage is to the hypothetical rice-field; that is a purely secondary cause. It cannot of itself—though carried to starvation point—produce an ague, unless the ague seed is there. That by diminishing vital stamina, and the power of resistance to disease, it renders the poor much more obnoxious to the attacks of fever and much more likely to die of it, is admitted by all. Eliminate poverty, so that people can be well fed, well clothed, well housed; their power of resisting malaria will be immensely increased: eliminate malaria, their powers of work will be increased and poverty more or less eliminated. The two things act and react on each other, the poverty making them more liable to fever, the fever diminishing their wage earning power. The poperty cannot be got rid of by legislative action, the malaria can.

Much stress is laid on the opinion of Colonel Haig and Dr. Saunders as to poverty, and not obstructed drainage, being the cause of the prevalence of fever; but the opinions of both officers really amount to no more than the admitted fact just stated. Colonel Haig's words are—

"The excessive mortality must be due to the failing stamina of the people generally, to a degeneration and loss of vital energy which render them less capable of resisting the morbific influences to which they have always been exposed."

The italics are mine. Dr. Saunders—

"Ascertained by actual personal enquiry * * * that their means of subsistence were wholly inadequate to maintain them in such a hygienic condition as to enable them to successfully resist the existing causes of disease."

The italics are again mine. I entirely agree with the opinions of both officers, so does His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, so I venture to say does every medical man. But the fact that poverty intensifies the action of malaria is no proof that it can cause it. Every country has many poor, many countries have no malaria.

17. It is clear then that, so far as Dr. Lethbridge and his Committee, Dr. Greene, Colonel Haig, and Dr. Saunders are concerned, their opinions have no validity as arguments against the Sanitary Drainage Bill, and that they have in fact been given an interpretation which they do not warrant. I have been unable to trace Dr. Lyons' or his opinion, he is probably Surgeon-Major Lyons of the 28th and 17th N. I., who retired in 1886.

18. Obstructed drainage is at best only a secondary cause of malaria, and could cause no fever unless the germs were there. It merely acts, when it acts, by providing a suitable nidus in which these germs can flourish; but it acts in this way so frequently, and the germs are so widely distributed in certain countries, that in popular language it is said to be the cause, and the expression is legitimate enough. No one except the late Rajah Digambar Mitter and the Hindu Patriot of the time of Dr. Lethbridge's Committee, asserts that it is the sole cause of malaria.

In the instructions to Dr. Lethbridge for the guidance of his Committee, drawn up by Mr. H. J. S. Cotton, this fact is very clearly brought out—

"The Rajah maintains that by the construction of roads and embankments the natural drainage of the country has been obstructed, and that this is the sole and only cause of the fever. But it has been demonstrated again and again that the fever has prevailed in villages and in parts of the country with which roads and railways can have had no possible concern. On the other hand it has frequently been shown that the Rajah is right to a very great extent, and that artificial obstructions have on many cases occasioned and have in others aggravated the outbreak of fever" (paragraph 2).

"There is little doubt that the epidemic fever is of malarious origin, and that while the chief factor in its development is unusual dampness in the subsoil, this dampness is created by defective drainage. The Lieutenant-Governor observes that while accepting this view you confine yourself in your letter to recommending action in the direction of increased and improved drainage. If the Committee, you write, while enquiring into the cause of the excessive dampness could at the same time suggest reasonable means for removing it by utilising the natural drainage of the country, they would, even if they failed to elucidate the cause, confer great benefits to the people, and you go on to say that you would gladly see the services of the Committee utilised in the organisation of a general drainage scheme" (paragraph 3).

19. In the face of this statement it is hard to see how Dr. Lethbridge can be cited as a witnness against the present Bill. His opinions have been perfectly consistent throughout, and his Committee, while disproving the existence of particular alleged obtructions, expressly reserved themselves against such use as is now being made of their report, by saying that increased dampness might be a cause of the fever, and that opinion was in favour of the fact that dampness had increased.

20. A very excellent illustration of excessive development of fever clearly due to obstructed drainage is given in the report of the Sanitary Commissioner, Bengal, for 1877, pages 6 and 7:—

"The district of Dinajpur has long had an unenviable reputation for unhealthiness caused almost entirely by fever. * * * * When fifteen out of seventeen adult Europeans had to leave the station in a single year, broken by repeated attacks of fever, and official business could hardly be carried on, a Committee was appointed by Government to report on the causes of this great unhealthiness and suggest means for improving the station.

"The investigations of the Committee brought out the following facts:—A terrible amount of constant sickness and a very high death-rate. An examination of nearly 1,000 individuals shows that 74·45 per cent. of the inhabitants of all classes were in shattered health, while 53 per cent. had marked enlargement of the spleen. Great pains have been bestowed on registration, and the district was declared by Dr. Coates in last year's Sanitary Report to be the best registered in Bengal. Deaths of infants often escape registration, however, and so far the total deaths registered are short of the actual mortality. It was found, however, that the registered death-rate of the Municipality was 42 per 1,000, nearly double the death-rate of London, while the police died at the rate of 46 and the prisoners in jail at 74·6 per 1,000 per annum. The Municipality lies between a river and a smaller stream, which, after receiving a large part of the town drainage, falls into the former below the town. The river rises in some extensive marshes to the north and brings down in the rains large quantities of decomposing vegetable débris. The smaller stream receives the accumulated surface washings and much of the sewage of the town. It is partly silted up; and, except during the rains, is little more than a succession of detached pools of foul water. During the heavy floods of the rainy season it is swollen to a large size, but the water is prevented from running off by the river floods, which not only head it up and cause it to inundate the town and station, but themselves pour up the stream, bringing large quantities of the vegetable matter abovementioned. The result is temporary stagnation, the deposit of large quantities of foul matter, and the general sturation of the soil. The flood gradually subsides, leaving a slimy and indescribably offensive deposit behind it; and this process is renewed perhaps three or four times in the season, the waters ebbing and flowing and stagnating and depositing their filth. The stream in question has always been considered the chief cause of the unhealthiness of the town. Two years ago an attempt was made to divert the greater part of its water into a dead river to the east and to keep out the river floods. For this purpose three or four dams were made, the largest across the junction of the stream and river below the town. Exceptionally high floods, however, overtopped the dam; the others were also inefficient; and the only effect of the operations intended to improve the drainage was to retain the flood waters unusually long and cause greater soakage than ever. This was aggravated by an exceptionally heavy and ill-distributed rainfall, and followed on the subsidence of the floods by an all but universal development of fever, very few persons escaping. The evidence that the prevalance of fever and the amount of rainfall and flooding are directly connected was further strengthened when it was found that a large decrease in the registered mortality in 1875 as compared with 1874 (great attention having been paid to registration in both years) was coincident with a rainfall much below the average, and shorter and less widespread floods; and still more so by the fact that the diminished sickness of that year was confined to the native town, while the European residents living south of the town, near the junction of the two streams, and exposed to the partial floods which did occur, were as unhealthy as usual."

21. The Committee recommended a number of general sanitary reforms, such as improved conservancy, better means of disposing of the dead, &c., but their main reliance for the improvement of the public health was a new drainage scheme by which the river was completely dammed up, and the waters of the small stream with the town drainage carried by a new cut seven miles lower down the river. The project was put in hand shortly afterwards, and was practically completed in 1879. I am informed by Mr. Nolan, Commissioner of the Division, that the results have been excellent on the whole, and that the general health has greatly improved.

Another most interesting illustration of the effect of obstructed drainage from the silting up of rivers in producing epidemic fever is given at pages 57 and 58 of the same report, by Dr. Crombie, of Dacca, but need not be noticed in detail, since the instances already given suffice and the fact is notorious.

22. To recapitulate briefly, this memorandum claims to prove—

(1) that malaria is due to a specific cause—the plasmodium of Laveran;

(2) that without the presence of the specific cause no insanitary conditions, poverty or obstructed drainage, can originate malaria;

(3) that given its presence all insanitary conditions, poverty, &c., make people more obnoxious to its attacks by diminishing their vital powers of resistance;

(4) that a damp and water-logged soil, whether from defective or obstructed drainage, forms a most favourable nidus for the development and intensification of the germ;

(5) that this can be remedied by drainage;

(6) that there is no real difference of opinion among medical men on the above points; and

(7) that the opinions of the medical men and others, who have been cited by the opponents of the Bill as witnesses against it, do not bear the interpretation put on them, and are really arguments in favour of the Bill.

23. I have limited myself to the main issue, and will only say regarding the contention that a good water-supply is much more essential than any drainage scheme; that both are most desirable, and that when both are needed, but money is only available for one, each case must be decided on its merits. In the case of Dinajpur, drainage was emphatically the one thing needful, and I might say that in many sodden and water-logged soils a good water-supply is impossible without preliminary drainage.

24. I have submitted this note for criticism to a number of medical officers serving in Bengal, and append their remarks. They agree in the main with the conclusions above expressed. I also append some interesting details as to the past and present history of malarial fever in Walcheren and in America, referred to in paragraph 10.

APPENDIX A.

OPINIONS OF MEDICAL OFFICERS.

BDE.-SURG.-LIEUT.-COL. H. PURVES, Civil Surgeon, Howrah.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge receipt of your No. 7244 of the 20th instant, with printed paper, dated the 17th idem, in regard to the question of the causation of malaria.

In reply, I beg to state that I quite agree with you that poverty has nothing to do with the origin of malaria; it may follow as the result of such fever, but is certainly not the cause. "Maclean" defines malaria as "an earthborn poison generated in soils, the energies of which are not expended on the growth and sustenance of healthy vegetation," and adds that "by almost universal consent this poison is the cause of all the types of intermittent and remittent fevers commonly called malarial."

In my own experience I have found that the malarial poison is no respecter of persons; it attacks rich and poor, young and old, strong and weak.

Had poverty anything to do with the genesis of malaria, we would expect to find cases of ague and enlarged spleen common in all tracts where famine prevailed and in the slums of towns where poverty is rife, independently of whether the surrounding country was malarious or not, but such is not found to be the case.

BDE.-SURGN.-LIEUT.-COL. D. D. CUNNINGHAM, M.B., F.R.S., C.I.E., Professor of Physiology, Medical College, Calcutta.

IN reply to your No. 7237, dated 20th August 1894, I have the honour to state that I entirely concur with you in holding that malarial fevers must be due to some specific cause, and that the idea that poverty is capable of acting as such arises from confounding coincidences with causes.

SURGN.-LIEUT.-COL. J. F. P. MCCONNELL, M.D., F.R.C.P., Professor of Materia Medica.

WITH reference to your No. 7236 of the 20th instant, and enclosures, I have the honour to state that I concur entirely with the remarks you have made on the relation of malaria to drainage, and that your memorandum on the subject is so complete and concise that any further observation from myself would, I consider, be quite superfluous.

SURGN.-LIEUT.-COL. A. CROMBIE, M.D., Superintendent, Presidency General Hospital.

I ENTIRELY agree with Dr. Harvey in the opinions expressed in the accompanying memorandum with regard to the effective cause of malaria and the relation which poverty, obstructed drainage, and water-logging of the soil bear to its manifestation. I have satisfied myself that the plasmodium (more properly amœba) of Laveran is the essential organism giving rise to every case of malarial fever, that the different forms of malarial fever, quotidian, tertian and quartan, are each due to a different variety of the malarial amœba, and that these varieties are identical with those occurring in Europe, and can be distinguished from each other under the microscope by characteristic differences which are the same for each variety in Bengal and in Europe. Poverty may certainly increase the liability of the population of a malarious district, that is, a district the conditions of which are favourable to the growth and multiplication of the malarial organism, to attacks of malarial fever, but will not in itself and by itself and in the absence of the malarial amœba give rise to a single case of illness of that nature. The disease which follows on the tracks of poverty—and is almost an essential sequel of poverty and starvation—is not malarial but relapsing fever, a fever which has been found by Vandyke Carter and others to be also due to a bacteriological organism entirely different from that of malaria, being a spirillum, and not an amœba.

I have little to add to what Dr. Harvey says on the subject of obstructed drainage. I think there can be little doubt but that in certain very limited areas in Bengal, in the immediate neighbourhood of railways especially, considerable interference with natural surface drainage has been caused by public works of these kinds. But their influence can only be of the smallest extent, and could be remedied by increasing the number of culverts and waterways. But the malarial condition of the country at large, in so far as it is induced by increased dampness of the soil, is related to causes acting in a much larger way, and especially by the inevitable silting of rivers and consequent water-logging the soil generally. I saw unquestionable evidences of this in Eastern Bengal, where there were no public works of this kind. How far it will be possible to deal with these larger causes under the Bill is a question which I am not called upon to discuss. The giving of a good water-supply may often be feasible when a large drainage scheme is inadmissible; but so long as the state of the soil is such as to favour the life of the malarial organism, drainage will always be essential to the health of the people as the only known means of getting rid of these conditions.

SURGN.-LIEUT.-COL. E. G. RUSSELL, M.B., B.SC., Civil Surgeon of Dacca.

Letter dated the 17th August 1894, from the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals, Bengal, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Municipal Department.

IN reply to your No. 7238 of 20th instant, giving cover to marginally noted document, I have the honour to intimate that I entirely concur in the remarks made in the document referred to.

SURGN.-LIEUT.-COL. GORDON PRICE, M.D., Offg. Civil Surgeon of Murshidabad.

WITH reference to your No. 7245, dated the 20th instant, I have the honour to state that I entirely concur with the remarks made in your letter to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal dated the 17th of August 1894.

SURGEON-MAJOR G. BOMFORD, M.D., Principal, Medical College.

IN reply to your docket No. 7241, dated the 20th of August, in which you ask for my opinion on the subject of sanitary drainage, I have the honour to offer the following observations.

Taking the propositions laid down in paragraph 22 of your letter to the Government in order, I may say that—

(1) I agree that malaria is due to a specific cause, though I am not prepared to accept the plasmodium of Laveran or any of the other appearances described by other writers as that cause. On the other hand, I do not think that there is sufficient proof that the great mortality that occurs in certian districts and in certain years is always the result of malaria.

(2) I agree that malaria is not the result of poverty, and as evidence of this I would instance my own experience in the North Arcot district of Madras in 1877-78, where there was an almost incredible degree of poverty, but very little malaria. On the other hand, malaria is undoubtedly a cause of poverty, by bringing about a condition of chronic ill-health; and poverty in its turn, from whatever cause it may arise, brings about a great increase in the mortality, and may have more to do with the excessive mortality in certain years than malaria. If it could be shown that the Drainage Bill is likely to still further impoverish the lower strata of the people, nobody would, I presume, advocate its adoption.

(3) About the third proposition I am doubtful, as I do not think that there is any sufficient evidence that malarial disease is influenced in any way by ordinary sanitary measures apart from those which may be supposed to act directly upon the cause of malaria. Malaria does not seem to be a consequence of ordinary filth; on the contrary in dirty places, in cities for instance, malaria seems to be rather crowded out, and it is in jungles, which, apart from malaria, are not insanitary places, that we find it in its worst forms. In places where malaria is rife we do not find that the rich man with his filters and other sanitary precautions has a much greater immunity from attack than his poorer brethern, who can take no particular precautions.

(4) There is evidence that irrigated land has a high fever mortality, whatever this "fever mortality" may really be,—vide on this point the report of the Sanitary Commissioner of the North-Western Provinces for 1887, and also that the mortality from fevers in any particular district of the North-Western Provinces varies as a rule directly as the rainfall. On the other hand, the Sanitary Commissioner for Bengal was forced to admit in his report for 1891 that fever had been unusually prevalent in a year of deficient rainfall, and his explanation of this apparent paradox has some bearing on the present enquiry, because it raises the question whether—

(5) Drainage might not, under certain circumstances, actually increase the mortality. If by drainage we bring about the condition described by him as the result of deficient rainfall, it might do harm instead of good. Supposing that malaria acts rather by impoverishing and enfeebling the people and is not so much a direct cause of mortality, and for this view there is considerable evidence in what we see every day in our hospitals, then the immediate effect of drainage might be to bring about conditions which would act adversely upon the already impoverished and enfeebled people, although eventually it might by checking malaria improve the general health, and so enable a new generation of people to withstand the evil effects of both floods and droughts.

(6) I do not think that there is any real difference among medical men on these matters, but few have made a special study of these questions and know how complicated they are, especially in India.

(7) To be sure that the letter really expresses the views of the medical officers mentioned, one would have to see their statements in full, and to understand the circumstances under which they were made. The Lyons referred to is probably Surgeon-Major Lyons of the Bengal Medical Service, who retired about 1886, and who used to write a good deal in the medical papers in the earlier years of his service.

In conclusion I would suggest that it would be well to ascertain the result of drainage experiments in other provinces, and then to begin by making cautious experiments in Bengal in places where the general health is known to have deteriorated since the closing of natural channels. Places that have been always water-logged should be left alone, at least until the success of these first experiments is assured. This is what I understand the Government intends to do, and all I would say is that they must not be surprised if such drainage experiments do not appear to have such good results as they anticipate.

SURGEON-MAJOR J. B. GIBBONS, Superintendent, Campbell Medical School and Hospital.

WITH reference to your No. 7242, of the 20th instant, enclosing copy of your letter to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Municipal Department, I have the honour to state that I concur generally with the opinions which you express.

With regard to the statement that malaria is due to a specific cause I agree, but I am not satisfied with the proofs hitherto put forward that the bodies found in the blood, and which Laveran and other observers state are living organisms, have any causal relation to the disease, or more probably group of diseases, to which we give the name malaria. This is, however, a point of no value in connection with the important question of the relationship between malaria and a water-logged soil. It is, I believe, proved by the experience of observers in all countries where malaria exists that excessive moisture, especially when the water is stagnant, leads to the development of a virulent type of malarial fever. The instances mentioned by you in paragraph 10 could, if necessary, be multiplied by examples taken from every tropical and sub-tropical part of the world. But malaria is not the only disease connected with a water-logged soil. Dysentery and diarrhœa are also favoured by this condition. Although many observers deny the direct causal relationship between excessive soil moisture and these diseases, all are agreed that a wet soil by determining sudden and great variations in the temperature of the atmosphere favours their development. These two diseases are very prevalent in the water-logged districts of Bengal, and not only lead to a large mortality, but also to much chronic unhealth.

I altogether agree with your remarks in paragraph 23. I would only add that where the question arises of choosing between drainage and a water-supply, I would certainly give the preference to the drainage, for I hold that a comprehensive system of drainge by preventing the accumulation of stagnant water will necessarily improve the drinking supply of the district.

SURGEON-CAPTAIN A. LEAHY, M.D., Civil Surgeon, 24-Parganas, Alipore.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of your memorandum on the Sanitary Drainage Bill, forwarded to this office with your No. 7240, dated Calcutta, 20th August 1894.

2. I now annex for your information a few remarks I have taken the liberty of making in the form of a note.

IT is easier for me to embody the few remarks I have to make into the form of a note. I think the memorandum puts the medical opinion regarding the views which have been advanced against the Sanitary Drainage Bill in clear and concise language which leaves little to be desired. In paragraph 7 Surgeon-Colonel Harvey carefully explains the differences which exist between primary and secondary causes, and shows how the want of carefully discriminating between these two classes of causes must lead to errors in judgment. I entirely concur with the résumé of the relation of the Plasmodium of Laveran and of the Roman school to the production of the malarial condition in the individual, as laid down by Surgeon-Colonel Harvey in paragraph 8 of his memorandum. I further concur generally with most of the other parts of the memorandum. Regarding the contention of the opponents of the Sanitary Drainage Bill that malarial fever is not due to obstructed drainage, but to poverty, I entirely disagree, and desire to place upon record the following observation. A conversation I had with Professor D. D. Cunningham, F.R.S., recalled to my memory my experiences as a medical officer among the poor in Persia and Turkish Arabia. Let me take, for instance, the latter country and its inhabitants. There are perhaps few places in India where the people as a whole suffer more from poverty than do the Arabs, who constitute the nomad desert tribes. Yet a pretty extensive experience of them from a medical point of view has led me to the conclusion that malaria and malarial fevers are almost unknown among them. This singular exemption from malaria and its effects cannot be attributed to poverty, because to those who know the Arabs that mythical cause is only too plainly present among them. (Many of the Arab tribes exist for weeks and weeks on nothing but dates and water.) Secondly, it cannot be said to be owing to a pure water-supply, for the people take water with them for drinking purposes from each town or village, large or small, through which they may happen to pass in the course of their wandering, and in many of these places the water is polluted and impure to a degree. To what, then, is such immunity due? I believe it is due to the fact that the Arabs are not subjected to the effects of bad drainage, that they do not inhabit water-logged tracts of country. The desert in which they live is dry, the soil porous and so sparsely populated that drainage is neither possible nor necessary. This immunity from the poisonous effects of malaria, however, in the case of the Arab is not due to any individual peculiarity; for when any of the tribes come into the city of Bagdad, and take up their residence in spots, the drainage of which is notoriously bad, they suffer from malarial fever in the same way as everyone else. My belief is that it is the absence of proper drainage, not the presence of poverty, which is the great cause of malarial fever. But I do not for one moment deny that poverty may act as a predisposing cause in the same manner in which anything that lowers vitality, and therefore lessens the resisting power of the individual, will act as a predisposing cause to malaria and many other diseases. The statement or belief that poverty per se can create malaria is illogical in the extreme, for all scientific research goes far towards proving the cause of malaria to be a specific germ, which will flourish and multiply under certain conditions, of which the most important is bad or indifferent drainage, but which will under more or less perfect sanitary conditions cease to live. The world-famed instance of the drainage of the Roman Campagna forcibly illustrates this fact. In conclusion I may refer to the unhealthy condition of the Barasat subdivision of this province, which I recently made the subject of a report to you. I said — "Barasat is notoriously unhealthy, and during the rainy season fever and dysentery almost decimate the population. The history of this unhealthiness is perhaps somewhat interesting. Several years ago many European officials and landed native gentry lived in Barasat, and the health of the place was in those times good. I am informed its unhealthiness began from the time that two large ditches or canal drains, which ran through Barasat, almost due north and south, were allowed to silt up and to become blocked. It is stated at the time when Barasat was healthy those drains were carefully kept patent, but that on the departure of the various officials no further care was exercised regarding them, and they became blocked. This defective drainage is believed to be the cause of the present unhealthy condition of Barasat, which has now become so notorious that no natives, except those who are compelled to live there, will stay in the place." If it was desirable I could quote other equally well-known instances where obstruction to the drainage of land has been followed by marked deterioration in the health of its inhabitants from the prevalence of malarial fever. In rural tracts in this province, where, owing to the large extent of country inhabited by great numbers of people, scattered over it in villages and collection of villages, it is probably quite impossible to provide them with water rendered pure by large and expensive systems of water-works. The majority of such people in the rural areas derive their supply of drinking water from wells and rivulets. In these cases bad and indifferent drainage means the contamination of such water, and it must be clear to all if the drainage of the land is improved, the result will be a purer water-supply for the consumption of the inhabitants. Thus it appears to me to be merely begging the question to assert, as has been done, that the outbursts of malarial fever in places such as Barasat are to be attributed to a polluted water-supply. Of the two insanitary factors impure water-supply and bad drainage, the first undoubtedly owes its existence to the second. It is in fact an instance of cause and result, and if by improving the drainage of a district, where the drinking water is largely derived from wells, we render that water purer and thus prevent it being the means of conveying the poison of malaria into the systems of those who drink it, it is, I take it, most certainly our duty to attack the bad drainage as the fons et origo mali.

SURGEON-CAPTAIN H. W. PILGRIM, M.B., Offg. 1st Resident Surgeon, Presidency General Hospital.

I HAVE the honour to state, in answer to your memorandum No. 7243, dated 20th August, forwarding a report of yours to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Municipal Department, that I entirely concur with the opinions you express on the ætiology of malarial fevers. Moreover, I think that your exposition of the subject is now-a-days in accordance with the views held by nearly all medical men, both in this country and elsewhere. I do not think that any scientist would seriously state that poverty is the primary cause of malarial fevers. While fully believing that malarial fevers are due to a specific cause, I do not think that the researches referred to in your paper establish beyond all doubt that the Plasmodium of Laveran is the ætiological factor. Just in the same way as the specific cause has not, in my opinion, been exactly demonstrated, so too I do not think we know all the exact conditions of soil which are essential for the development of the organism or organisms. No doubt a damp and water-logged condition of the soil seems to be the most common feature of soils where malarial fevers most prevail; but malarial fevers also prevail in connection with soils in which the conditions are the very reverse of the above, viz. in chalky and granite soils that are dry and well drained. While recognising these difficulties, I think that the effect of drainage and cultivation in reducing the prevalence of malarial fevers is admittedly well marked, and we are therefore bound to advocate the drainage and cultivation of all lands, with a view to removing one of the most important secondary causes of malaria.

SURGEON-CAPTAIN C. E. SUNDER, M.B., B.S., Offg. Resident Surgeon, Eden Hospital.

WITH reference to your No. 7239, I have the honour to express my full concurrence with the remarks in your letter, dated 17th August 1894, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Municipal Department. When writing about the heavy mortality from fevers in Purnea district I adduced poverty not as a cause of malarial fevers, but as conducing to a heavy death-rate from them. I still do not consider that Laveran's plasmodium malariæ has been definitely proved to be the cause of malarial fevers. As the specific cause of a definite disease it seems to me to be in much the same position as one acquitted with a verdict of "not proven." But this has no bearing on the question of drainage and its effects on malarial diseases. In the light of history and of observation it is undoubted that drainage has a beneficial effect on malarial areas. Whilst I was at Purnea it would have been premature to offer an opinion, but I am much mistaken if the branch line from Katihar station, Assam-Behar State Railway, to Kishanganj, bounded as it is, will not tend to water-log the Kishanganj subdivision and so increase malarial fevers there.

The effect was partial last year. This is an example of the opposite effect to that aimed at in the Bill; but I think that, if my suspicion be justified, it will tend to strengthen the opinion on which the Bill is founded.

DR. W. J. SIMPSON, M.D., Health Officer to the Corporation of Calcutta.

WITH regard to the memorandum in connection with the Drainage Bill and the request that I should state may opinion thereon, I have the honour to inform you that I am not in a position to give an opinion. As far as I am able to judge regarding the utility or otherwise of a Drainage Bill for Bengal, I have seen no marshalling of facts indicating that such a Bill is absolutely necessary. I am inclined to think that investigation in the form of a Commission is first needed to ascertain whether the deaths which are attributed to fevers all over Bengal are in reality due to fever. With the present method of collecting death statistics and classification of the causes of death, it is quite impossible to have anything else than an appalling number of deaths attributed to fever because there is no other heading under which they can well be placed. But this in no way proves that the people of Bengal are dying from a disease which will be remedied by costly drainages. To my mind enquiry is needed, and after that people will be in a position to say whether a Drainage Bill of the character proposed is necessary, and if necessary, in what districts.

APPENDIX B.

Note on Malarial fever in Walcheren and in America (see paragraph 10).

"HOLLAND is still the most malarious region of Northern Europe; although, from the progress of drainage and cultivation, improvements in the water-supply and in the dwellings of the middle and lower classes, and the general advance in social well-being, the health of the population has improved immensely during the present century" (p. 146). * * * * * *

"The nature of the causes of the disease may be inferred from the measures that have been found to improve the health of the country. Let us take as an example the town of Middleburg, the capital of Zeeland, situated in Walcheren. Here a steady diminution in the fever mortality has been going on throughout this century. Dr. de Man has constructed a table from the death registers of the Municipality, showing the number of deaths from various diseases for the ninety years 1792—1881. I extract the figures relating to intermittent fevers during that period:—

Decennial periods.		Deaths from intermittent fevers.
1792—1801	...	305
1802—1811	...	534
1812—1821	...	404
1822—1831	...	304
1832—1841	...	230
1842—1851	...	211
1852—1861	...	168
1862—1871	...	88
1872—1881	...	62

"In this table the population (at present actually 16,000) has been reduced to a constant mean of 10,000. There were only seven deaths from endemic fevers in each of the years 1879 and 1881.

"This great improvement is ascribed by de Man to the means taken to prevent the admixture of sea water with the fresh water of the canals and the alternate submersion and uncovering of the soil by the flux and reflux of the tide, and to the better drainage of the soil, the prevention of the impurities of the latrines passing into the canals, the better construction of houses, the paving of streets, and finally to the improved method of treating these fevers (Annales d'hygiene, pub., May 1883)" (p. 148) * * * *

"The Walcheren expedition of 1809 is one which exhibited in a manner, and to a degree seldom met with, at least in temperate regions, the dire influence of malaria under certain conditions. The leading points connected with this expedition, as narrated by Sir Gilbert Blane, are these:—The troops sailed from the Downs on the 28th July 1809, landed in Walcheren and North and South Beveland on the 31st July and the 1st August. Flushing was invested on the 1st August, and capitulated on the 15th of the same month. In the beginning of September the islands of North and South Beveland were evacuated, and that portion of the army which occupied them returned to England, leaving about 18,000 men to garrison Walcheren. More than one-half of these died, or were sent back to England on account of sickness, in the course of the three following months, and the island was finally evacuated on the 23rd of December 1809. The admissions into hospital between the 21st August and the 18th of November amounted to 26,846, including relapses, and the whole number of sick, including a small number of wounded, conveyed from thence to England between the 21st August and the 16th December, amounted to 12,863, and many instances occurred, in the case of those who returned to England apparently in health, in whom the endemic disease of Zeeland appeared after the slight fatigue of a march. The disease did not show itself among the soldiers during the first month of their residence in Holland." Geographical Pathology, by Andrew Davidson, M.D., F.R.C.P., Ed., 1892—(p. 150.)

"The remarkable increase which has occurred in the pernicious remittent fevers (febris remittens hæmorrhagica) within the last ten or twenty years in the Southern States of the Union is referred to by Norcom as follows:—'Before the war the Southern States were in a high state of cultivation and the lands thoroughly drained; hence the malignant forms of malarial disease as a general rule were not known, except in very low, badly-drained swamp lands. Within the past eight years (written in 1874), owing to so much land lying waste, defective drainage, and the general insanitary condition of the country, the malarial poison has acted with intense virulence, and caused the disease we are now considering.' The same opinion is expressed by Green, by observers in Georgia, and by others.". Handbook of Geographical and Historical Pathology, by Dr. August Hirsch, 1883 (p. 275).

Mode in which Managers are to apply income of Pension Fund.

5. All income arising from the Pension Fund and paid to the Managers under the provisions of this scheme shall be applied by them in accordance with the following provisions, that is to say:—

First in payment of pensions set forth in the Schedule.

(a) In the first place, the Managers shall pay out of the said income to each of the persons whose names, addresses and descriptions are set forth in the first and second columns of the Schedule hereto (such persons being hereinafter referred to as "the original pensioners"), a pension of such an amount and payable at such times as is shewn by the particulars set opposite the name of such original pensioner in the third column of the said Schedule during his life, or until he shall, in the opinion of the Managers, have been guilty of such misconduct as to disentitle him to receive such pension, or until he assign or charge or attempt to assign or charge the same or any part thereof, or until the happening of any other event whereby such pension or any part thereof, if belonging absolutely to him, would become vested in or payable to some other person and not be applicable for the personal benefit of such pensioner, or until the circumstances of such pensioner shall for any reason have so changed as, in the opinion of the Managers, to render it inexpedient that he should any longer receive his said pension, so that such pension shall cease to be payable upon the happening of such of the said events as shall first happen.

Events upon which the original pensions are to determine.

As to continuing pensions to wives or husbands of original pensioners.

(b) If and so often as the pension payable to any married original pensioner hereunder shall cease to be payable either by reason of his death or during his lifetime by the happening of any event other than his misconduct, then the Managers shall (unless in their discretion they deem it inexpedient so to do) pay to the wife or husband of such pensioner (as the case may be) a pension of such amount not exceeding the amount of the pension payable to such original pensioner as the Managers may think fit during the life of such wife or husband, or during such shorter period or periods, either continuous or discontinuous, and upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the Managers may deem proper.

As to payment of other pensions and allowances.

(c) So much of the said income arising from the Pension Fund as from time to time shall not in the opinion of the Managers be required for the payment of any of the pensions mentioned in either of the two last preceding sub-sections shall from time to time be applied by the Managers in payment of pensions or allowances to such persons for the time being resident in Calcutta, and being of any Christian religion as may from time to time be selected by the Managers. Every such pension or allowance shall be of such amount (not exceeding in the case of any one person the sum of Rs. 25 per month) as the Managers may from time to time determine, and may be made payable during the life of the recipient thereof or during such shorter period or periods, either continuous or discontinuous, and determinable on such events and be subject to such conditions as the Managers may in each case deem expedient. In this sub-section the expression "Calcutta" shall mean and include every place situate within the town of Calcutta or the suburbs adjacent thereto (including Howrah), and in selecting pensioners under the provisions of this scheme the Managers shall, as far as practicable, give a preference to such persons as the Managers may consider to be East Indians or of European parentage and permanently domiciled in Calcutta. Provided that the Managers shall not be bound to make any pension or allowance determinable upon the recipient thereof ceasing to reside in Calcutta or to cease to pay any pension or allowance upon the recipient thereof ceasing to so reside.

As to payments to or for the benefit of incapacitated pensioners.

(d) If and so often as any pensioner (whether original or otherwise) shall by reason of bodily or mental ill health be, in the opinion of the Managers, incapable of receiving his pension or allowance, the Managers may pay the same or any part thereof to such person on his behalf as they may think fit without being bound to see to the application thereof or being responsible for the misapplication thereof, or they may themselves apply all or any part of such pension or allowance in such manner as they may consider to be for the benefit of such pensioner.

Books to be kept by Managers.

(e) The Managers shall at all times keep proper books, and shall cause to be entered therein the names, addresses, and descriptions of all the recipients of pensions or allowances under this scheme and the respective amounts of such pensions and allowances, and also accounts of all monies received and expended by the Managers under this scheme, and all other matters likely to be useful for or in connection with the administration of the trusts hereof, or which may from time to time be required by the Government of Bengal to be entered in such books, and the Government of Bengal and any person appointed by them shall at all reasonable times have access to all such books and be at liberty to inspect the same and take copies or extracts therefrom.

Managers to give information to the Government of Bengal.

(f) The Managers shall also at all times, both during their tenure of office and after the determination thereof, furnish to the Government of Bengal or any person appointed by such Government all such information as the Government may require in relation to the trusts hereof or the administration thereof, or any other matters in anywise connected therewith.

(g) The Managers may from time to time make such rules and regulations (not being inconsistent with the terms of this scheme) as they may think fit with reference to the management of the income of the Trust Fund and the mode of payment of any pensions or allowances hereunder and otherwise in connection with the administration of the trusts of this scheme, and may from time to time alter or vary the same in such manner as they may deem expedient; provided that all such rules and regulations, and all alterations and variations thereof, shall as soon as practicable after the making thereof be submitted to the Government of Bengal, and any rule or regulation, whether original, or altered, or varied, which that Government shall consider improper or undesirable shall be forthwith cancelled.

Mode in which Managers are to apply income of Management Fund.

6. By order,

R. BELCHAMBERS,

Registrar.

IT is ordered that the following Rules be read and passed as Rules of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, to take effect from the 12th day of August 1895:—

1. From and after the 12th day of August 1895, three General Cause Lists shall be kept in the Registrar's Office, to be called respectively "General List of Causes," "General List of Suits for Liquidated Claims," and "General List of Commercial Causes."

2. Every suit which is a commercial cause, that is to say, in which the claim arises out of the ordinary transactions of merchants and traders—amongst others, those relating to the construction of mercantile documents, exports or imports of merchandise, affreightment, insurance, banking and mercantile agency and mercantile usage—shall be entered in the General List of Commercial Causes.

3. On and after the 12th day of August 1895, when a plaint is presented, the Judge shall, on the application to that effect of the plaintiff, unless he be of opinion, on reading the plaint, that the suit does not properly belong to the class of commercial causes, as described in rule 2, direct that the suit shall be placed in the General List of Commercial Causes. When no such application is made, it shall be for the Judge, when a plaint is presented, to determine whether the case shall as a commercial cause be placed in such list.

4. Either party may apply, by summons, to the Judge in Chambers that any case entered in the General List of Causes, whether before or after the 12th day of August 1895, may be transferred to the General List of Commercial Causes.

5. Either party may apply, by summons, to the Judge in Chambers, that any case entered in the General List of Commercial Causes may be transferred to the General List of Causes, on the ground only that the case is not a commercial cause; provided that the plaintiff shall not be entitled to apply under this rule for the transfer of a case from the General List of Commercial Causes if such case was entered therein on his application.

6. Whenever two or more Courts shall sit concurrently in the exercise of Ordinary Original Civil Jurisdiction, two or, if there be three Courts, three peremptory lists of defended causes shall be prepared for every working day, and, unless otherwise ordered, one or, if there be three Courts, two of such lists shall be supplied with cases from the General List of Causes, and the other with cases from the General List of Suits for Liquidated Claims, and from the General List of Commercial Causes, and also, when necessary, from the General List of Causes.

7. When only one Court shall sit in the exercise of Ordinary Original Civil Jurisdiction, one peremptory list of defended causes shall be prepared for every working day, and shall be supplied on such day or days of each week as such Judge may order, first with cases from the General List of Suits for Liquidated Claims, next from the General List of Commercial Causes, and next with cases from the General List of Causes.

8. All applications in Chambers and all motions in cases placed in the General List of Commercial Causes will be heard by the Judges in whose list suits for liquidated claims and commercial causes shall for the time being be set down.

9. The Rules of the Court for regulating its procedure on the Original Side are hereby confirmed, except so far as they are inconsistent with these rules.

3. The Trust Fund shall be designated the "deSouza Charitable Fund."

4. Subject to the provisions of this scheme, the Treasurer shall out of the annual income of the Pension Fund pay and discharge all trust expenses and, subject thereto, shall pay such income, and shall also pay the annual income of the Management Fund to the Managers, or to their treasurer or other proper officer for the time being on their behalf, by half-yearly payments which shall as nearly as practicable be of equal amount, and shall be made on the 31st day of May and the 30th day of November in each year (the first of such yearly payments to be made on the 30th day of November next) to the intent and so that all such income shall be applied by the Managers in the manner and for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

Mode in which Managers are to apply income of Pension Fund.

5. All income arising from the Pension Fund and paid to the Managers under the provisions of this scheme shall be applied by them in accordance with the following provisions, that is to say:—

First in payment of pensions set forth in the Schedule.

(a) In the first place, the Managers shall pay out of the said income to each of the persons whose names, addresses and descriptions are set forth in the first and second columns of the Schedule hereto (such persons being hereinafter referred to as "the original pensioners"), a pension of such an amount and payable at such times as is shewn by the particulars set opposite the name of such original pensioner in the third column of the said Schedule during his life, or until he shall, in the opinion of the Managers, have been guilty of such misconduct as to disentitle him to receive such pension, or until he assign or charge or attempt to assign or charge the same or any part thereof, or until the happening of any other event whereby such pension or any part thereof, if belonging absolutely to him, would become vested in or payable to some other person and not be applicable for the personal benefit of such pensioner, or until the circumstances of such pensioner shall for any reason have so changed as, in the opinion of the Managers, to render it inexpedient that he should any longer receive his said pension, so that such pension shall cease to be payable upon the happening of such of the said events as shall first happen.

Events upon which the original pensions are to determine.

As to continuing pensions to wives or husbands of original pensioners.

(b) If and so often as the pension payable to any married original pensioner hereunder shall cease to be payable either by reason of his death or during his lifetime by the happening of any event other than his misconduct, then the Managers shall (unless in their discretion they deem it inexpedient so to do) pay to the wife or husband of such pensioner (as the case may be) a pension of such amount not exceeding the amount of the pension payable to such original pensioner as the Managers may think fit during the life of such wife or husband, or during such shorter period or periods, either continuous or discontinuous, and upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the Managers may deem proper.

As to payment of other pensions and allowances.

(c) So much of the said income arising from the Pension Fund as from time to time shall not in the opinion of the Managers be required for the payment of any of the pensions mentioned in either of the two last preceding sub-sections shall from time to time be applied by the Managers in payment of pensions or allowances to such persons for the time being resident in Calcutta, and being of any Christian religion as may from time to time be selected by the Managers. Every such pension or allowance shall be of such amount (not exceeding in the case of any one person the sum of Rs. 25 per month) as the Managers may from time to time determine, and may be made payable during the life of the recipient thereof or during such shorter period or periods, either continuous or discontinuous, and determinable on such events and be subject to such conditions as the Managers may in each case deem expedient. In this sub-section the expression "Calcutta" shall mean and include every place situate within the town of Calcutta or the suburbs adjacent thereto (including Howrah), and in selecting pensioners under the provisions of this scheme the Managers shall, as far as practicable, give a preference to such persons as the Managers may consider to be East Indians or of European parentage and permanently domiciled in Calcutta. Provided that the Managers shall not be bound to make any pension or allowance determinable upon the recipient thereof ceasing to reside in Calcutta or to cease to pay any pension or allowance upon the recipient thereof ceasing to so reside.

As to payments to or for the benefit of incapacitated pensioners.

(d) If and so often as any pensioner (whether original or otherwise) shall by reason of bodily or mental ill health be, in the opinion of the Managers, incapable of receiving his pension or allowance, the Managers may pay the same or any part thereof to such person on his behalf as they may think fit without being bound to see to the application thereof or being responsible for the misapplication thereof, or they may themselves apply all or any part of such pension or allowance in such manner as they may consider to be for the benefit of such pensioner.

Books to be kept by Managers.

(e) The Managers shall at all times keep proper books, and shall cause to be entered therein the names, addresses, and descriptions of all the recipients of pensions or allowances under this scheme and the respective amounts of such pensions and allowances, and also accounts of all monies received and expended by the Managers under this scheme, and all other matters likely to be useful for or in connection with the administration of the trusts hereof, or which may from time to time be required by the Government of Bengal to be entered in such books, and the Government of Bengal and any person appointed by them shall at all reasonable times have access to all such books and be at liberty to inspect the same and take copies or extracts therefrom.

Managers to give information to the Government of Bengal.

(f) The Managers shall also at all times, both during their tenure of office and after the determination thereof, furnish to the Government of Bengal or any person appointed by such Government all such information as the Government may require in relation to the trusts hereof or the administration thereof, or any other matters in anywise connected therewith.

(g) The Managers may from time to time make such rules and regulations (not being inconsistent with the terms of this scheme) as they may think fit with reference to the management of the income of the Trust Fund and the mode of payment of any pensions or allowances hereunder and otherwise in connection with the administration of the trusts of this scheme, and may from time to time alter or vary the same in such manner as they may deem expedient; provided that all such rules and regulations, and all alterations and variations thereof, shall as soon as practicable after the making thereof be submitted to the Government of Bengal, and any rule or regulation, whether original, or altered, or varied, which that Government shall consider improper or undesirable shall be forthwith cancelled.

Mode in which Managers are to apply income of Management Fund.

6. All income arising from the Management Fund shall be applied by the Managers in payment of the expenses incurred by them in connection with the duties imposed on them by sub-section (c) of the last preceding clause hereof and so that for the purposes of such duties the Managers may from time to time employ an accountant or clerk upon such terms as they may think fit, provided that the salary for the time being payable to any such accountant or clerk shall not exceed the income for the time being of the Management Fund.

Receipt of the treasurer or proper officer of the Managers to be good discharge for income, and treasurer not to be liable for misapplication.

7. The receipt in writing of the person acting as treasurer to or other proper officer for the time being of the Managers shall be a good discharge to the Treasurer for all monies paid to the Managers under the provisions of this scheme, and the Treasurer shall not be in anywise responsible for the misapplication or non-application of any such monies, or be bound to see whether such monies or any of them are being applied in accordance with the provisions of this scheme.

Investment clause.

8. The Treasurer may either permit the Trust Fund or any part thereof to remain in the state of investment in which it may be when the vesting order is made, or may under direction of the Government of Bengal, as provided in section 10 of Act VI of 1890, vary or transpose such investment or any future investments representing the Trust Fund or any part thereof into or for any other investment in which trust funds may for the time being be authorized by the law for the time being in force in India or in England to be invested, provided that, notwithstanding any change of investments, the Pension Fund and the Management Fund shall, as far as practicable, be kept separate.

How allotments of new stock, &c., are to be dealt with.

9. In case any preferential right to take or subscribe for any new or other funds, shares, stock, or securities shall be offered to the Treasurer as holder of the Pension Fund or of the Management Fund, the Treasurer may, under such direction as aforesaid, dispose of or transfer any such new funds, shares, stock or securities or the title thereto in such manner as he may be directed, and every premium or profit arising therefrom shall, as well as all interest, dividends, bonuses or other advantages payable or receivable in respect of the Pension Fund or the Management Fund be treated as income of the Fund in respect of which it shall be payable or receivable.

Duration and termination of office of Managers.

10. Every Association who shall for the time being be Managers under this scheme shall hold their office until—

(a) they shall be dissolved, or

(b) they shall, by giving notice in writing to the Government of Bengal, resign their office, or

(c) the Government of Bengal shall, by writing under the hand of the Secretary in the General Department, certify to the effect that, in the opinion of Government, they have seriously and persistently failed to observe or perform the provisions herein contained with respect to the application by them of the income of the Pension and Management Funds, or either of them, and upon the happening of any such event, such Association shall vacate their office of Managers.

Government of Bengal to have power of appointing new Managers.

11. If and so often as the office of Managers under this scheme shall by any means be vacant, the Government of Bengal may from time to time appoint any Association which they may think fit, to fill the vacant office. Provided that, if the District Charitable Society at Calcutta, who shall be the first Managers, shall vacate their office by reason of their dissolution, the Government of Bengal shall appoint as Managers in their place the successors of the said Society, if such successors shall, in the opinion of the Government of Bengal, be a charitable association constituted or organised under or in accordance with a scheme approved by the Government of Bengal; and so that in filling up any vacancy in the office of Managers the said Government shall, as far as may be practicable, always appoint an Association constituted or organised in manner last aforesaid.

As to delivery up of funds, &c., by Managers vacating office.

12. Any Managers who shall vacate their office under any of the foregoing provisions shall thereupon deliver all monies in their hands subject to the trusts of this scheme, and all books and papers relating to the administration of the said trusts, or to any matters in anywise connected therewith to such person as the Government of Bengal may appoint for that purpose.

18. The Government of Bengal shall have power in their uncontrollable discretion to determine all questions, disputes or matters of doubt touching the construction, meaning or effect of these presents or any clause or thing herein contained, or the rights or liabilities of any person under these presents or otherwise howsoever in relation to the trusts hereof or arising in the execution of the trusts of these presents, and every determination, whether made upon a question actually raised or implied in the acts and proceedings of the Government of Bengal shall be conclusive and binding on all persons interested or claiming to be interested under this scheme.

Power to Government of Bengal to determine questions.

Mode in which Managers are to apply income of Pension Fund.

5. All income arising from the Pension Fund and paid to the Managers under the provisions of this scheme shall be applied by them in accordance with the following provisions, that is to say:—

First in payment of pensions set forth in the Schedule.

(a) In the first place, the Managers shall pay out of the said income to each of the persons whose names, addresses and descriptions are set forth in the first and second columns of the Schedule hereto (such persons being hereinafter referred to as "the original pensioners"), a pension of such an amount and payable at such times as is shewn by the particulars set opposite the name of such original pensioner in the third column of the said Schedule during his life, or until he shall, in the opinion of the Managers, have been guilty of such misconduct as to disentitle him to receive such pension, or until he assign or charge or attempt to assign or charge the same or any part thereof, or until the happening of any other event whereby such pension or any part thereof, if belonging absolutely to him, would become vested in or payable to some other person and not be applicable for the personal benefit of such pensioner, or until the circumstances of such pensioner shall for any reason have so changed as, in the opinion of the Managers, to render it inexpedient that he should any longer receive his said pension, so that such pension shall cease to be payable upon the happening of such of the said events as shall first happen.

Events upon which the original pensions are to determine.

As to continuing pensions to wives or husbands of original pensioners.

(b) If and so often as the pension payable to any married original pensioner hereunder shall cease to be payable either by reason of his death or during his lifetime by the happening of any event other than his misconduct, then the Managers shall (unless in their discretion they deem it inexpedient so to do) pay to the wife or husband of such pensioner (as the case may be) a pension of such amount not exceeding the amount of the pension payable to such original pensioner as the Managers may think fit during the life of such wife or husband, or during such shorter period or periods, either continuous or discontinuous, and upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the Managers may deem proper.

As to payment of other pensions and allowances.

(c) So much of the said income arising from the Pension Fund as from time to time shall not in the opinion of the Managers be required for the payment of any of the pensions mentioned in either of the two last preceding sub-sections shall from time to time be applied by the Managers in payment of pensions or allowances to such persons for the time being resident in Calcutta, and being of any Christian religion as may from time to time be selected by the Managers. Every such pension or allowance shall be of such amount (not exceeding in the case of any one person the sum of Rs. 25 per month) as the Managers may from time to time determine, and may be made payable during the life of the recipient thereof or during such shorter period or periods, either continuous or discontinuous, and determinable on such events and be subject to such conditions as the Managers may in each case deem expedient. In this sub-section the expression "Calcutta" shall mean and include every place situate within the town of Calcutta or the suburbs adjacent thereto (including Howrah), and in selecting pensioners under the provisions of this scheme the Managers shall, as far as practicable, give a preference to such persons as the Managers may consider to be East Indians or of European parentage and permanently domiciled in Calcutta. Provided that the Managers shall not be bound to make any pension or allowance determinable upon the recipient thereof ceasing to reside in Calcutta or to cease to pay any pension or allowance upon the recipient thereof ceasing to so reside.

As to payments to or for the benefit of incapacitated pensioners.

(d) If and so often as any pensioner (whether original or otherwise) shall by reason of bodily or mental ill health be, in the opinion of the Managers, incapable of receiving his pension or allowance, the Managers may pay the same or any part thereof to such person on his behalf as they may think fit without being bound to see to the application thereof or being responsible for the misapplication thereof, or they may themselves apply all or any part of such pension or allowance in such manner as they may consider to be for the benefit of such pensioner.

Books to be kept by Managers.

(e) The Managers shall at all times keep proper books, and shall cause to be entered therein the names, addresses, and descriptions of all the recipients of pensions or allowances under this scheme and the respective amounts of such pensions and allowances, and also accounts of all monies received and expended by the Managers under this scheme, and all other matters likely to be useful for or in connection with the administration of the trusts hereof, or which may from time to time be required by the Government of Bengal to be entered in such books, and the Government of Bengal and any person appointed by them shall at all reasonable times have access to all such books and be at liberty to inspect the same and take copies or extracts therefrom.

Managers to give information to the Government of Bengal.

(f) The Managers shall also at all times, both during their tenure of office and after the determination thereof, furnish to the Government of Bengal or any person appointed by such Government all such information as the Government may require in relation to the trusts hereof or the administration thereof, or any other matters in anywise connected therewith.

(g) The Managers may from time to time make such rules and regulations (not being inconsistent with the terms of this scheme) as they may think fit with reference to the management of the income of the Trust Fund and the mode of payment of any pensions or allowances hereunder and otherwise in connection with the administration of the trusts of this scheme, and may from time to time alter or vary the same in such manner as they may deem expedient; provided that all such rules and regulations, and all alterations and variations thereof, shall as soon as practicable after the making thereof be submitted to the Government of Bengal, and any rule or regulation, whether original, or altered, or varied, which that Government shall consider improper or undesirable shall be forthwith cancelled.

Mode in which Managers are to apply income of Management Fund.

6. All income arising from the Management Fund shall be applied by the Managers in payment of the expenses incurred by them in connection with the duties imposed on them by sub-section (e) of the last preceding clause hereof and so that for the purposes of such duties the Managers may from time to time employ an accountant or clerk upon such terms as they may think fit, provided that the salary for the time being payable to any such accountant or clerk shall not exceed the income for the time being of the Management Fund.

Receipt of the treasurer or proper officer of the Managers to be good discharge for income, and treasurer not to be liable for misapplication.

7. The receipt in writing of the person acting as treasurer to or other proper officer for the time being of the Managers shall be a good discharge to the Treasurer for all monies paid to the Managers under the provisions of this scheme, and the Treasurer shall not be in anywise responsible for the misapplication or non-application of any such monies, or be bound to see whether such monies or any of them are being applied in accordance with the provisions of this scheme.

Investment clause.

8. The Treasurer may either permit the Trust Fund or any part thereof to remain in the state of investment in which it may be when the vesting order is made, or may under direction of the Government of Bengal, as provided in section 10 of Act VI of 1890, vary or transpose such investment or any future investments representing the Trust Fund or any part thereof into or for any other investment in which trust funds may for the time being be authorized by the law for the time being in force in India or in England to be invested, provided that, notwithstanding any change of investments, the Pension Fund and the Management Fund shall, as far as practicable, be kept separate.

How allotments of new stock, &c., are to be dealt with.

9. In case any preferential right to take or subscribe for any new or other funds, shares, stock, or securities shall be offered to the Treasurer as holder of the Pension Fund or of the Management Fund, the Treasurer may, under such direction as aforesaid, dispose of or transfer any such new funds, shares, stock or securities or the title thereto in such manner as he may be directed, and every premium or profit arising therefrom shall, as well as all interest, dividends, bonuses or other advantages payable or receivable in respect of the Pension Fund or the Management Fund be treated as income of the Fund in respect of which it shall be payable or receivable.

Duration and termination of office of Managers.

10. Every Association who shall for the time being be Managers under this scheme shall hold their office until—

(a) they shall be dissolved, or

(b) they shall, by giving notice in writing to the Government of Bengal, resign their office, or

(c) the Government of Bengal shall, by writing under the hand of the Secretary in the General Department, certify to the effect that, in the opinion of Government, they have seriously and persistently failed to observe or perform the provisions herein contained with respect to the application by them of the income of the Pension and Management Funds, or either of them, and upon the happening of any such event, such Association shall vacate their office of Managers.

Government of Bengal to have power of appointing new Managers.

11. If and so often as the office of Managers under this scheme shall by any means be vacant, the Government of Bengal may from time to time appoint any Association which they may think fit, to fill the vacant office. Provided that, if the District Charitable Society at Calcutta, who shall be the first Managers, shall vacate their office by reason of their dissolution, the Government of Bengal shall appoint as Managers in their place the successors of the said Society, if such successors shall, in the opinion of the Government of Bengal, be a charitable association constituted or organised under or in accordance with a scheme approved by the Government of Bengal; and so that in filling up any vacancy in the office of Managers the said Government shall, as far as may be practicable, always appoint an Association constituted or organised in manner last aforesaid.

As to delivery up of funds, &c., by Managers vacating office.

12. Any Managers who shall vacate their office under any of the foregoing provisions shall thereupon deliver all monies in their hands subject to the trusts of this scheme, and all books and papers relating to the administration of the said trusts, or to any matters in anywise connected therewith to such person as the Government of Bengal may appoint for that purpose.

13. The Government of Bengal shall have power in their uncontrollable discretion to determine all questions, disputes or matters of doubt touching the construction, meaning or effect of these presents or any clause or thing herein contained, or the rights or liabilities of any person under these presents or otherwise howsoever in relation to the trusts hereof or arising in the execution of the trusts of these presents, and every determination, whether made upon a question actually raised or implied in the acts and proceedings of the Government of Bengal shall be conclusive and binding on all persons interested or claiming to be interested under this scheme.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

Whereas We are happily at peace with all Sovereigns, Powers, and States;

And whereas a state of war unhappily exists between His Majesty the Emperor of China and His Majesty the Emperor of Japan, and between their respective subjects and others inhabiting within their countries, territories, or dominions;

And whereas We are on terms of friendship and amicable intercourse with each of these States, and with their subjects and others inhabiting within their countries, territories, or dominions;

And whereas great numbers of Our loyal subjects reside and carry on commerce and possess property and establishments, and enjoy various rights and privileges, within the territory of each of the aforesaid States, protected by the faith of Treaties between Us and each of the aforesaid States;

And whereas We, being desirous of preserving to Our subjects the blessings of peace which they now happily enjoy, are firmly purposed and determined to maintain a strict and impartial neutrality in the said state of war unhappily existing between the aforesaid States;

We therefore have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation;

And We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving subjects to govern themselves accordingly, and to observe a strict neutrality in and during the aforesaid war, and to abstain from violating or contravening either the Laws and Statutes of the realm in this behalf, or the law of nations in relation thereto, as they will answer to the contrary at their peril;

And whereas in and by a certain Statute made and passed in a Session of Parliament holden in the 33rd and 34th year of Our reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the Conduct of Her Majesty's Subjects during the Existence of Hostilities between Foreign States with which Her Majesty is at Peace," it is, amongst other things, declared and enacted as follows:

"This Act shall extend to all the dominions of Her Majesty, including the adjacent territorial waters. * * *

"Illegal Enlistment.

"If any person without the license of Her Majesty, being a British subject, within or without Her Majesty's dominions, accepts, or agrees to accept, any commission or engagement in the military or naval service of any foreign State at war with any foreign State at peace with Her Majesty, and in this Act referred to as a friendly State, or, whether a British subject or not, within Her Majesty's dominions, induces any other person to accept, or agree to accept, any commission or engagement in the military or naval service of any such foreign State as aforesaid—

"He shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour.

"If any person without the license of Her Majesty, being a British subject, quits or goes on board any ship with a view of quitting Her Majesty's dominions with intent to accept any commission or engagement in the military or naval service of any foreign State at war with a friendly State, or, whether a British subject or not, within Her Majesty's dominions, induces any other person to quit or to go on board any ship with a view of quitting Her Majesty's dominions with the like intent—

"He shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour.

"If any person induces any other person to quit Her Majesty's dominions, or to embark on any ship within Her Majesty's dominions, under a misrepresentation or false representation of the service in which such person is to be engaged, with the intent or in order that such person may accept, or agree to accept, any commission or engagement in the military or naval service of any foreign State at war with a friendly State—

"He shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour.

"If the master or owner of any ship without the license of Her Majesty knowingly either takes on board, or engages to take on board, or has on board such ship within Her Majesty's dominions, any of the following persons in this Act referred to as illegally enlisted persons, that is to say:

"(1) Any person who, being a British subject, within or without the dominions of Her Majesty, has without the license of Her Majesty accepted, or agreed to accept, any commission or engagement in the military or naval service of any foreign State at war with any friendly State:

"(2) Any person, being a British subject, who without the license of Her Majesty is about to quit Her Majesty's dominions with intent to accept any commission or engagement in the military or naval service of any foreign State at war with a friendly State:

"(3) Any person who has been induced to embark under a misrepresentation or false representation of the service in which such person is to be engaged with the intent or in order that such person may accept, or agree to accept, any commission or engagement in the military or naval service of any foreign State at war with a friendly State:

"Such master or owner shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and the following consequences shall ensue, that is to say:

"(1) The offender shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour; and

"(2) Such ship shall be detained until the trial and conviction or acquittal of the master or owner, and until all penalties inflicted on the master or owner have been paid, or the master or owner has given security for the payment of such penalties to the satisfaction of two Justices of the Peace, or other Magistrate or Magistrates having the authority of two Justices of the Peace; and

(3) All illegally enlisted persons shall, immediately on the discovery of the offence, be taken on shore, and shall not be allowed to return to the ship.

Illegal Ship-building and Illegal Expeditions.

"If any person within Her Majesty's dominions, without the license of Her Majesty, does any of the following acts, that is to say:

"(1) Builds, or agrees to build, or causes to be built, any ship with intent or knowledge, or having reasonable cause to believe that the same shall or will be employed in the military or naval service of any foreign State at war with any friendly State; or

"(2) Issues or delivers any commission for any ship with intent or knowledge, or having reasonable cause to believe that the same shall or will be employed in the military or naval service of any foreign State at war with any friendly State; or

"(3) Equips any ship with intent or knowledge, or having reasonble cause to believe that the same shall or will be employed in the military or naval service of any foreign State at war with any friendly State; or

"(4) Dispatches, or causes or allows to be dispatched, any ship with intent or knowledge, or having reasonable cause to believe that the same shall or will be employed in the military or naval service of any foreign State at war with any friendly State—

"Such person shall be deemed to have committed an offence against this Act, and the following consequences shall ensue:

"(1) The offender shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour.

"(2) The ship in respect of which any such offence is committed and her equipment shall be forfeited to Her Majesty:

"Provided that a person building, causing to be built, or equipping a ship in any of the cases aforesaid, in pursuance of a contract made before the commencement of such war as aforesaid, shall not be liable to any of the penalties imposed by this section in respect of such building or equipping if he satisfies the conditions following, that is to say:

"(1) If forthwith upon a Proclamation of Neutrality being issued by Her Majesty he gives notice to the Secretary of State that he is so building, causing to be built, or equipping such ship, and furnishes such particulars of the contract and of any matters relating to, or done, or to be done, under the contract as may be required by the Secretary of State:

"(2) If he gives such security, and takes and permits to be taken such other measures, if any, as the Secretary of State may prescribe for insuring that such ship shall not be despatched, delivered, or removed without the license of Her Majesty until the termination of such war as aforesaid.

"Where any ship is built by order of or on behalf of any foreign State when at war with a friendly State, or is delivered to or to the order of such foreign State, or any person who to the knowledge of the person building is an agent of such foreign State, or is paid for by such foreign State or such agent, and is employed in the military or naval service of such foreign State, such ship shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been built with a view to being so employed, and the burden shall lie on the builder of such ship of proving that he did not know that the ship was intended to be so employed in the military or naval service of such foreign State.

"If any person within the dominions of Her Majesty, and without the license of Her Majesty,—

"By adding to the number of the guns, or by changing those on board for other guns, or by the addition of any equipment for war, increases or augments, or procures to be increased or augmented, or is knowingly concerned in increasing or augmenting, the warlike force of any ship which at the time of her being within the dominions of Her Majesty was a ship in the military or naval service of any foreign State at war with any friendly State—

"Such person shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour.

"If any person within the limits of Her Majesty's dominions, and without the license of Her Majesty,—

"Prepares or fits out any naval or military expedition to proceed against the dominions of any friendly State, the following consequences shall ensue:

"(1) Every person engaged in such preparation or fitting out, or assisting therein, or employed in any capacity in such expedition, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, and shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment, or either of such punishments, at the discretion of the Court before which the offender is convicted; and imprisonment, if awarded, may be either with or without hard labour.

"(2) All ships and their equipments, and all arms and munitions of war used in or forming part of such expedition, shall be forfeited to Her Majesty.

"Any person who aids, abets, counsels, or procures the commission of any offence against this Act shall be liable to be tried and punished as a principal offender."

And whereas by the said Act it is further provided that ships built, commissioned, equipped, or despatched in contravention of the said Act may be condemned and forfeited by Judgment of the Court of Admiralty; and that if the Secretary of State or chief executive authority is satisfied that there is a reasonable and probable cause for believing that a ship within Our dominions has been or is being built, commissioned, or equipped contrary to the said Act, and is about to be taken beyond the limits of such dominions, or that a ship is about to be dispatched contrary to the Act, such Secretary of State or chief executive authority shall have power to issue a warrant authorizing the seizure and search of such ship and her detention until she has been either condemned or released by process of law: And whereas certain powers of seizure and detention are conferred by the said Act on certain local authorities:

Now, in order that none of Our subjects may unwarily render themselves liable to the penalties imposed by the said Statute, We do hereby strictly command that no person or persons whatsoever do commit any act, matter, or thing whatsoever contrary to the provisions of the said Statute upon pain of the several penalties by the said Statute imposed and of Our high displeasure.

And We do hereby further warn and admonish all Our loving subjects, and all persons whatsoever entitled to Our protection, to observe towards each of the aforesaid States, their citizens, subjects, and territories, and towards all belligerents whatsoever, with whom We are at peace, the duties of neutrality; and to respect, in all and each of them, the exercise of those belligerent rights which We and Our Royal predecessors have always claimed to exercise.

And We hereby further warn all Our loving subjects, and all persons whatsoever entitled to Our protection, that if any of them shall presume in contempt of this Our Royal Proclamation and of Our high displeasure to do any acts in derogation of their duty as subjects of a neutral Sovereign in a war between other States, or in violation or contravention of the law of nations in that behalf, as more especially by breaking, or endeavouring to break, any blockade lawfully and actually established by or on behalf of either of the said States, or by carrying officers, soldiers, despatches, arms, ammunition, military stores, or materials, or any article or articles considered and deemed to be contraband of war according to the law or modern usages of nations, for the use or service of either of the said States, that all persons so offending, together with their ships and goods, will rightfully incur and be justly liable to hostile capture, and to the penalties denounced by the law of nations in that behalf.

And We do hereby give notice that all Our subjects and persons entitled to Our protection who may misconduct themselves in the premises will do so at their peril, and of their own wrong; and that they will in nowise obtain any protection from Us against such capture, or such penalties as aforesaid, but will, on the contrary, incur Our high displeasure by such misconduct.

Given at Our Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, this seventh day of August, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, in the fifty-eighth year of Our reign.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

The following letter addressed by Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to the Right Hon'ble Henry Hartley Fowler, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, is also published for general information and guidance:

FOREIGN OFFICE,
August 7, 1894.

SIR,

HER MAJESTY being fully determined to observe the duties of neutrality during the existing state of war between the Emperor of China and the Emperor of Japan, and being moreover resolved to prevent, as far as possible, the use of Her Majesty's harbours, ports, and coasts, and the waters within Her Majesty's territorial jurisdiction, in aid of the warlike purposes of either belligerent, has commanded me to communicate to you, for your guidance, the following rules, which are to be treated and enforced as Her Majesty's orders and directions:

Her Majesty is pleased further to command that these rules shall be put in force in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Islands on and after the 12th day of this month, and in Her Majesty's territories and possessions beyond the seas six days after the day when the Governor or other chief authority of each of such territories or possessions respectively shall have notified and published the same, stating in such notification that the said rules are to be obeyed by all persons within the same territories and possessions.

1. During the continuance of the present state of war, all ships of war of either belligerent are prohibited from making use of any port or roadstead in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, or in any of Her Majesty's colonies or foreign possessions or dependencies, or of any waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of the British Crown, as a station, or place of resort, for any warlike purpose, or for the purpose of obtaining any facilities for warlike equipment; and no ship of war of either belligerent shall hereafter be permitted to sail out of or leave any port, roadstead, or waters subject to British jurisdiction from which any vessel of the other belligerent (whether the same shall be a ship of war or a merchant ship) shall have previously departed until after the expiration of at least twenty-four hours from the departure of such last-mentioned vessel beyond the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty.

2. If any ship of war of either belligerent shall, after the time when this Order shall be first notified and put in force in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Islands, and in the several colonies and foreign possessions and dependencies of Her Majesty respectively, enter any port, roadstead, or waters belonging to Her Majesty, either in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, or in any of Her Majesty's colonies or foreign possessions or dependencies, such vessel shall be required to depart and to put to sea within twenty-four hours after her entrance into such port, roadstead, or waters, except in case of stress of weather, or of her requiring provisions or things necessary for the subsistence of her crew or repairs, in either of which cases the authorities of the port, or of the nearest port (as the case may be), shall require her to put to sea as soon as possible after the expiration of such period of twenty-four hours without permitting her to take in supplies beyond what may be necessary for her immediate use; and no such vessel which may have been allowed to remain within British waters for the purpose of repair shall continue in any such port, roadstead, or waters for a longer period than twenty-four hours after her necessary repairs shall have been completed. Provided, nevertheless, that in all cases in which there shall be any vessel (whether ships of war or merchants' ships) of the said belligerent parties in the same port, roadstead, or waters within the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty, there shall be an interval of not less than twenty-four hours between the departure therefrom of any such vessel (whether ship of war or merchant ship) of the one belligerent, and the subsequent departure therefrom of any ship of war of the other belligerent; and the time hereby limited for the departure of such ships of war respectively shall always in case of necessity be extended so far as may be requisite for giving effect to this proviso, but no further or otherwise.

3. No ship of war of either belligerent shall hereafter be permitted, while in any port, roadstead, or waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty, to take in any supplies except provisions and such other things as may be requisite for the subsistence of her crew, and except so much coal only as may be sufficient to carry such vessel to the nearest port of her own country or to some nearer destination, and no coal shall again be supplied to any such ship of war in the same or any other port, roadstead, or waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of Her Majesty without special permission until after the expiration of three months from the time when such coal may have been last supplied to her within British waters as aforesaid.

4. Armed ships of either party are interdicted from carrying prizes made by them into the ports, harbours, roadsteads, or waters of the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, or any of Her Majesty's colonies or possessions abroad.

I have, &c.,
KIMBERLEY.

The Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct that the Orders and Directions of Her Majesty the Queen, Empress of India, as contained in the aforesaid Proclamation and Letter, are to be obeyed by all persons within the limits of Her Majesty's territories and possessions in India.

By Order of the Governor-General in Council,
W. J. CUNINGHAM,
Secretary to the Government of India.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION—No. 404T.—F.

The 14th September 1895.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 55 of the Indian Stamp Act, I of 1879, and section 27 of the Court Fees Act, VII of 1870, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to make the following rules, in supersession of all previous rules on the subject, supplementary to the rules for the custody, supply and sale of stamps of all descriptions prescribed in the Resolution of the Government of India in the Department of Finance and Commerce, No. 1439S.R., dated the 27th March 1895, and published under this Government Notification No. 2294S.R., dated the 18th April 1895, at pages 359-363, Part I of the Calcutta Gazette of the 24th idem:—

Supplementary to Rule 7 of the rules of the Government of India.

I. Under rule 7 of the rules of the Government of India, each local depôt should ordinarily maintain a supply of stamps equal to the probable consumption for five months. The whole stock of certificates to pleaders, mukhtears, and revenue agents should, however, be in the depôt by the beginning of December.

The Collector of Calcutta should ordinarily maintain a supply equal to the probable consumption for one month.

Supplementary to Rule 8 of the rules of the Government of India.

II. In order, however, to prevent the inconvenience which arises from the Superintendent of Stamps being required to comply with indents for stamps while engaged in half-yearly stock-taking, Collectors should make such arrangements to provide themselves with stamps of all kinds as will preclude the necessity of submitting any indents during the months of April and October each year.

Supplementary to Rule 11 of the rules of the Government of India.

III. (a) On the receipt of a supply of stamps in a local depôt from the central depôt, or from any other local depôt, packets or boxes containing stamps above the value of (eight) 8 annas shall be opened, one at a time, and within the day after their receipt at the latest, in the presence of the officer in charge, who shall count every stamp of the value of Rs. 8 and upwards. Stamps of the value of less than Rs. 8 shall be counted in the presence of the officer in charge. The number and value of the stamps received shall then be compared with the invoice, so that any deficiency may at once be detected. Packets containing stamps of the value of (eight) 8 annas and less shall be closely inspected by the officer in charge in order to ascertain that they have not been opened or tampered with in transit, and if they do not present any suspicious appearance, they shall be taken as containing the full number of stamps stated in the invoice and locked up in the stamp chests or presses with a copy of the invoice and the letter of advice. A receipt shall then be forwarded by the first post to the depôt from which the stamps have been supplied. Under rule 11 of the rules prescribed by the Government of India, the officer in charge is responsible for carefully observing these instructions and for satisfying himself as to the number of stamps before signing the receipts.

(b) On the receipt of a supply of court-fee stamps, the seals of the packets containing the stamps shall be broken and the packets opened in the presence of the officer in charge, who shall, with his own hands, count all sheets containing stamps of the value of (four) 4 annas and upwards, so that any deficiency may at once be detected. Court-fee stamps being supplied in sheets, each containing a number of stamps, the officer in charge shall, for his own security, see that each sheet contains the full number. Stamps of the value of less than 4 annas shall be counted also in the presence of the officer in charge. They shall then be compared with the invoice, and a receipt shall be forwarded by the first post to the depôt from which they have been supplied. The officer in charge is responsible for carefully observing these instructions, and for satisfying himself as to the number of stamps received before signing the receipt.

Supplementary to Rules 15 and 31 of the rules of the Government of India.

IV. The stock to be made over to the ex-officio vendor at a local depôt to be kept by him under single lock, should ordinarily be sufficient for the probable demand of one week. In the case of a branch depôt no portion of the stock should be made over to the ex-officio vendor, except when the officer in charge is proceeding on tour, when the amount made over should not exceed what will probably be required during his absence. The ex-officio vendor shall prepare an indent for the quantity required, and receive a supply in the manner indicated in Rule 15 of the rules prescribed by the Government of India. The Collector of a district may, with the sanction of Government, fix such shorter term as the necessities of his district may require.

V. The account of the daily sales of stamps, to be kept by the ex-officio vendor in the form and manner prescribed in Rule 16 of the rules of the Government of India, shall be kept in English or in the vernacular of the district.

Supplementary to Rule 16 of the rules of the Government of India.

VI. In cases where there is likely to be a distinct saving of cost or greater security of the stamps in transit, the Board of Revenue are authorized to sanction the despatch of stamps direct from the central depôt to branch depôts, such supplies being treated by the Superintendent of Stamps as supplies to the local depôts, to which the branch depôts are subordinate.

Supplementary to Rule 29 of the rules of the Government of India.

VII. Under Rule 30 of the rules prescribed by the Government of India, the supply to be kept in a branch depôt should ordinarily be equal to the probable demand for three months. In the Alipur and Angul depôts in the districts of Jalpaiguri and Angul, respectively, a supply equal to the probable consumption for six months should be kept at the end of each cold weather.

Supplementary to Rule 30 of the rules of the Government of India.

NOTIFICATION—No. 5000J.

The 10th September 1895.—In supersession of all previous orders on the subject, the following rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor under the power vested in him by section 4 of Act III (B.C.) of 1879, are hereby published for general information:—

Rules under Section 4, Act III (B.C.) of 1879, entitled an Act to provide for the Periodical Inspection of Steam-boilers and Prime-movers attached thereto in the Town and Suburbs of Calcutta, and in Howrah, and since extended to all places in the districts of Hooghly, Howrah and the 24-Parganas, within a radius of 30 miles from Calcutta, to the Subdivisions of Raniganj, Giridih, and Gobindpur, to the District of the Sonthal Parganas, and to the Municipalities of Burdwan and Bhagalpur.

I.—The office of the Commissioners for the Inspection of Boilers shall be attached to the office of the Commissioner of Police.

II.—A Boiler Commission shall be appointed, to consist of the Commissioner of Police, or the Deputy Commissioner of Police, or both, and not less than three other Commissioners to be appointed by Government from time to time; and it shall meet periodically (at least once a month) to arrange for the transaction of business. One of the Commissioners shall be appointed President, and the Secretary shall be Vice-President and ex-officio a member of the Commission.

III.—It shall be the duty of the Commissioners at the monthly meetings—

(1) To examine the diaries of the Inspectors and pass such orders thereon as may seem necessary.

(2) To revoke or suspend any certificates under section 8.

(3) To hear any appeals preferred by owners of boilers under section 9.

(4) To keep a record of their proceedings in such form as may seem advisable, and submit a copy of the same to the Chief Secretary to Government.

(5) To submit an annual budget to Government, showing the estimates, receipts, and disbursements of the Commission for the ensuing year.

(6) To submit an annual report* reviewing the work done by the Boiler establishment during the financial year.

(7) To prescribe the registers and accounts which are to be kept up by the Secretary and office.

(8) To cause a statement of demands, collections, and outstandings to be prepared by the Secretary, and to scrutinise the same.

(9) To check the statement of demands, comparing the arrear demand with the statement of outstandings for the previous month, and the current demand with a statement of work done, to be prepared by the Secretary from the diaries of the Inspectors.

(10) To compare the statement of collections with the cash-book, and the cash-book with the bank-book.

(11) To pass such orders as they may think fit for realising or otherwise disposing of the outstandings.

IV.—The Commissioners shall from time to time prepare and submit, for the sanction of Government, a schedule of the establishment and salaries they consider necessary for the purposes of this Act.

V.—After sanction of such schedule, the Commissioners shall have the power to appoint the Inspectors and clerks, &c., and they shall also have power to suspend or remove such officers.

V(a).—The Commissioners, other than the Vice-President and Secretary, shall receive a fee of Rs. 20 each for attending each general meeting of the Commission, the charge being debited to the "Steam-boiler Fund."

VI.—The Vice-President and Secretary shall be the head of the branch of the office of the Commissioner of Police which is set apart for the work of the Boiler Commission, and shall be responsible to the Commissioner of Police, or, if this officer is not a member of the Commission, to the Deputy Commissioner of Police for the good order and management of the office. He shall see that all notices are duly served, and that all fees are du[ly] brought to account and paid into the Bank. He shall himself verify the balance at credit, shown in the accounts of the Commissioners' office, with the balance in the Bank. He shall refer all matters of importance for the orders of the President.

VII.—Notices under section 6, requiring owners or persons in charge of boilers to make alterations or additions, shall only be given by the Inspectors in writing, and when any such notice is given, the recommendation shall also be recorded in the diary. When an appeal is heard by the Commission, notice shall be given to the appellant, and any representation that may be made by him will be heard in the presence of the Inspector. The Inspector will also be heard, and local inspection made, if necessary. The decision of the Commission will be given in writing, and such decision shall be final.

VIII.—When an inspection under the Act is completed, the Inspector making it shall prepare a declaration in the form No. 2 appended hereto, in column 8 of which the limit of the working pressure, in pounds per square inch, shall be clearly noted. The declaration shall then be sent to the owner.

IX.—The owner, manager or agent to whom a declaration is given under the last foregoing section shall, within fourteen days after the date of the receipt thereof, send the declaration, together with the amount of the fee mentioned at foot thereof, to the office of the Commissioner of Police.

If he fails to do so, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five rupees for every day beyond that period, and the owner, manager or agent shall pay the sum so forfeited on the delivery of the certificate of inspection in addition to the fee payable for the certificate.

X.—Upon receipt of the declaration in the office of the Commissioner of Police, the Vice-President and Secretary shall prepare a certificate in the form prescribed by the Act. Such certificate shall be signed by the Vice-President and Secretary and shall be delivered to the owner, manager or agent of the steam-boilers inspected, on his paying the fees and other sums (if any) payable under rule IX on delivery of a certificate.

* Not later than the 15th May.

XI.—The declaration given shall have the effect of a certificate for 30 days from the date of inspection under rule VIII, but no longer; and unless the fees and other demands are paid, and the certificate taken out within that period, the owner, manager or agent shall be liable to all the penalties prescribed in the Act for using an uncertificated boiler. Provided that, if the boiler is worked under a declaration for any period less than 30 days, the owner, manager, and agent shall nevertheless be liable to pay the same fee as if he had taken out a certificate.

XII.—For every certificate of inspection granted under this Act, the owner, manager or agent of the steam-boiler inspected shall pay to the Commissioner of Police, or, when he is not a member of the Commission, to the Deputy Commissioner of Police, a fee calculated on the horse-power of the steam-boiler according to the scale laid down in rule XVII, and such additional fee in respect of the expense (if any) of the journey of the Inspector to the place where the boiler is situated, as is prescribed in rule XVIII.

XIII.—A certificate granted under this Act shall not be in force—

(1) after the expiration of one year from the date thereof, or

(2) after the expiration of the period, if less than one year, for which the boiler and machinery have been stated in the certificate to be sufficient, or

(3) after notice has been given by the Commissioners to the owner, manager or agent of the steam-boiler to which the certificate relates that they have cancelled or suspended it.

XIV.—There shall be two kinds of inspection of boilers—

(a) A thorough examination once every twelve months, inside and outside, to be made by one of the Inspectors in person, for which purpose the boilers must be empty, cool, and clean, and flues swept; and, if required by the Inspector, any parts or settings must be removed for a complete examination of the boiler in every part.

(b) An ordinary inspection made at any time when an Inspector has reason to believe that the boiler is being improperly worked, or that the person in charge is not competent.

XV.—The Inspector shall give one week's notice of every such intended thorough examination; and if after that notice the boilers are not empty, cool, clean, and ready for inspection on the date named, the Inspector shall prohibit the boilers from working, and shall report the case to the Commissioners. Further, if any request be made to remove fittings or settings, and such be not complied with, the Inspector shall in like manner stop the working of the boilers.

(a) Provided that the inspection of boilers in the Raniganj, Giridih, and Gobindpur subdivisions, in the district of the Sonthal Parganas, and in the Municipalities of Burdwan and Bhagalpur, shall be made during the months of November to May inclusive, and the Inspector shall give 14 days' notice of the day when he will make such inspection.

(b) If any boiler needs inspection in the Raniganj, Giridih, or Gobindpur subdivision, in the district of the Sonthal Parganas, or in the Municipalities of Burdwan and Bhagalpur, during the months of June to October inclusive, either as being a new boiler requiring a certificate, or as being a boiler which the owner for any other reason wishes to have inspected, it may, on the application of the owner, manager or agent, be inspected during that period.

XVI.—The Vice-President and Secretary shall submit to the Commissioners at each meeting the Inspectors' reports on the boilers inspected, in the form of a diary which shall be recorded in the office.

XVII.—Fees for the delivery of certificates shall be charged according to the following scale:—

30. For the purposes of rules 28 and 29, municipal contributions shall be reckoned as receipts from public sources.

31. In respect of any school for which application for a grant is made, full information shall be supplied on the following points, and shall be thrown into the shape given in form A appended to these rules:—

(a) The pecuniary resources, permanent and temporary, on which the school will depend for support.
(b) The proposed monthly expenditure in detail.
(c) The average number of pupils to be instructed.
(d) The persons who are to form the Committee of Management.
(e) The class of school and course of instruction; the selection to be made from classes and standards recognized by the Department.

(f) The number and salaries of the teachers in detail.
(g) The fees to be charged in each class.
(h) The amount of aid sought.
(i) The existence of other schools of all classes within a distance of four miles.

32. In disposing of an application for a grant-in-aid, the Board shall consider whether the school supplies a want in the locality; whether the teaching staff is competent and adequate; how far its resources, inclusive of fees, are adequate to meet its necessary expenditure; whether the fees charged are reasonable; and whether the funds at the disposal of the Board are sufficient to meet the application.

33. The Board may, for reasonable cause to be duly recorded, either sanction the grant in whole or in part, or refuse it altogether. The Board shall send a copy of its order to the Inspector and another to the applicant.

34. The sanction to a grant shall be conveyed in Form B, appended to these rules, and on the conditions therein stated.

35. When a grant is sanctioned, the managers shall forward to the Board an agreement on stamped paper to the effect that they will conduct the school in accordance with the conditions of the grant.

36. Grants shall ordinarily be sanctioned for a period of three years, but the Board may, at any time during its currency, for reasons specified in writing, revise a grant. Against such a revision the same procedure shall be observed as is laid down in rule 18.

37. A grant shall ordinarily be reduced on renewal, when this can be done without serious loss of efficiency. Notice of any proposed reduction shall in all cases be given to the managers, who shall be allowed an opportunity of stating any objection that they may have to the reduction. Against any reduction that the Board may make, the same procedure shall be observed as is laid down in rule 18.

38. Leave to teachers of aided schools shall be granted by the managers in accordance with the rules of the Department. Notice of any leave given by the managers to the teachers shall be forwarded to the Board with the next grant-in-aid bill; and the Board may make any objection to the leave. In any such case, the decision of the Inspector shall be final. A monthly statement of the leave granted to aided school teachers drawing Rs. 20 a month and upwards should be forwarded to the Inspector by the Board.

39. The managers of a school shall fix the list of holidays to be observed in the school, subject ordinarily to the limitation of 60 days, exclusive of Sundays. They shall submit the list to the Board not later than the 1st of December next preceding the year for which the list is intended. The Board shall forward copies of the lists of holidays for all schools in the district to the Deputy Inspector on or before the 1st January.

Special Grants.

40. Grants may be given to managers of schools in aid—

(a) of erecting, enlarging, or furnishing school buildings;
(b) of executing extensive repairs; and
(c) in special cases, of paying off debts incurred in erecting or enlarging school buildings.

[NOTE.—Expenditure in the purchase of buildings shall be treated as expenditure in the erection of buildings.]
Note (a) Grants will ordinarily be given only for projects to create new means of education, or to extend existing means.
Note (b) The sum of Rs. 10,000 is fixed as ordinarily the maximum grant for any one undertaking or project.

41. Except in the case provided in the foregoing rule, no grant shall be made in consideration of former expenditure on school buildings.

42. No building grant shall be sanctioned unless the site, plans, estimates, specifications, title and trust-deeds are approved by the Inspector.

43. The trust-deed shall declare the building to be granted in trust for school purposes only. It shall also provide for the legal ownership of the premises, for the proper maintenance of the building, and for the inspection and management of the school.

[NOTE.—This rule does not preclude the managers from using the building for other purposes when not required for the purposes of the school.]

44. No grant shall be finally sanctioned until a certificate is received from the managers, setting forth that the funds in their hands will, when added to the grant, be sufficient to meet all claims and to close the account.

45. Advances shall be made from time to time out of the sanctioned grant, on receipt of a report from the Board's Engineer that the work is proceeding satisfactorily.

46. The grant shall not be paid in full until—

(1) a report is received from the Board's Engineer that the building is satisfactorily completed;
(2) the trust-deed is duly registered and a copy lodged with the Board.

47. If the total amount of the building grant does not exceed Rs. 500, and the building is, in the opinion of the Inspector, of such a description that it is not worth while requiring the execution of a trust-deed, the Board shall accept from the managers a written agreement on stamped paper engaging to maintain the building in proper repair for ten years.

48. Loans may also be made to managers of schools for the erection of school buildings. The amount of such loans shall generally be limited to the amount of any grant claimable under rules 28 and 29. The building shall be mortgaged to the Board as a guarantee for the repayment of the loan, and a term shall be fixed within which the loan is to be repaid. Interest at a rate not exceeding 4 per cent. may, if necessary, be charged.

SECTION IV.—(C) Primary schools under private management receiving stipends or earning rewards from a Board.

49. The Board shall not interfere in the local management of primary schools not directly managed and maintained by it.

50. Primary schools receiving aid from a Board may receive it in the form of fixed stipends or of payment by results. It shall be the general policy of the Board to replace the system of fixed stipends by that of payment-by-results, except in backward parts of the district, and in schools for aborigines or low-castes, girls' schools, and night schools for adults. No addition shall be made to the list of stipendiary schools without the sanction of the Director of Public Instruction.

51. The Board shall, in consultation with the Inspector, determine the rates of stipends payable to teachers of stipendiary schools, in accordance with rules prescribed from time to time by the Director of Public Instruction.

52. The Board shall be liable for the payment of the stipends of such stipendiary teachers of primary school as are sent under its orders for instruction in training schools.

53. The Board shall grant rewards to teachers and pupils of other primary schools within the district on the result of periodical examinations, and in accordance with rules prescribed or approved from time to time by the Director of Public Instruction:

Provided—

(1) that no rewards shall be given under the rules in this Section to teachers of schools directly managed by a Board, or of those schools receiving grants-in-aid under Section III;

(2) that rewards to pupils, other than girls, shall not be given in money, but only in books, maps, or other articles that may be useful to them in prosecuting their studies. Books given as rewards shall be chosen from a list approved by the Director of Public Instruction.

54. Arrangements for such examinations, including the appointment of examiners where necessary, shall be made by the Board in consultation with the Deputy Inspector.

55. All payments and rewards to teachers and pupils, to be granted on the result of such examinations, shall be sanctioned by the Board on the report of the Sub-Inspector, confirmed by the Deputy Inspector.

56. Primary schools shall be regularly inspected in situ.

SECTION V.—(D). Other schools.

57. The Lieutenant-Governor may, with the consent of the District Board, transfer to its control any schools or class of schools under public management other than those specified in Section II.

58. The District Board may, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor to be obtained through the Director of Public Instruction, establish schools of technical instruction to be maintained from the District Fund.

59. With regard to the schools referred to in the two preceding rules, the Board shall have the powers specified in Section II.

SECTION VI.—Local Boards.

60. Whenever a District Board shall, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor under section 101 of the Act, transfer the management, control, or supervision of any school or schools to a Local Board, the provisions contained in the foregoing rules shall be generally applicable to such Local Board; provided that the District Board shall, in all cases, have a general power of supervision and control over such Local Board.

SECTION VII.—Union Committees.

61. As regards primary education, the powers conferred on District and Local Boards by the foregoing rules shall be subject to the powers entrusted to Union Committees by section 112 of the Act.

62. In their dealings with primary schools, Union Committees shall be guided by the same general rules as are laid down for the guidance of District and Local Boards.

63. Every primary school under public management, with the maintenance and management of which a Union Committee shall be charged under section 112* of the Act, shall be called a Union school.

* Section 112 of the Bengal Local Self-Government Act:—

"Subject to any rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor under this Act, every Union Committee shall be charged with, and be responsible for, the maintenance and management of all primary schools within the Union, the appointment of the gurus of such schools, and the transmission to such gurus of any rewards that may be granted by the District Board or Local Boards."

64. Subject to the general control of the Department, every Union Committee shall have the power within the Union—

(1) of determining the places at which Union schools shall be opened;
(2) of transferring or closing existing Union schools;
(3) of fixing the class and standard of instruction of every such school: the selection to be made from classes recognised by the Department;
(3) of fixing (subject to section 36 of the Act) the salary of the guru of every such school, and of removing or transferring him within the Union;
(4) of fixing the rate of monthly, admission, or re-admission fees payable by the pupils of every such school.

65. Every Union school shall be liable to inspection and examination by the officers named in rule 4.

66. Nothing in these rules shall preclude the establishment and maintenance of primary schools within the Union by private persons or associations; and the teachers of all such schools may, with the sanction of the Union Committee, present their pupils at all examinations for rewards and grants payable by the District or Local Board to the teachers and pupils of primary schools. It shall be the duty of the Union Committee to direct the teachers of such schools to attend with their pupils at any other examinations and gatherings that may be from time to time ordered by the District or Local Board or by the Deputy Inspector.

SECTION VIII.—Finance.

67. The educational budget estimates of the District Board shall be prepared, in Form E appended to these rules, by the Deputy Inspector in consultation with the Inspector. The Deputy Inspector shall submit them to the Board on or before the 1st September in the year immediately preceding that for which they are framed. The budget estimates, as approved by the Board, shall be forwarded by the Board in triplicate to the Magistrate on or before the 15th September, who shall forward one copy to the Director of Public Instruction. The Director of Public Instruction shall forward his remarks on the estimates to the Commissioner on or before the 15th October. A copy of the estimates as finally sanctioned shall be forwarded by the Commissioner to the Director of Public Instruction and by the Board to the Inspector.

68. The procedure laid down in the last preceding rule shall be observed in every case when the budget estimate is amended or revised at any time by the Board under section 49 of the Act.

69. No transfer of funds shall be made from the major head 'Education' to any other head, or from one minor head subordinate to Education to another without the sanction of the Commissioner, who shall give notice of any such transfer to the Director of Public Instruction.

70. The unspent balance of the allotment made in any year for educational purposes shall not be subsequently transferred to any purpose other than education without the consent of the Commissioner.

SECTION IX.—Examinations and Scholarships.

71. The Lower Primary Scholarship Examination shall be conducted in the books and subjects prescribed from time to time by the Department, and, unless otherwise ordered by the Department, in the same question papers for all the Scheduled Districts of one Division. The papers shall be set by Deputy Inspectors or other officers selected by the Inspector, who shall forward printed copies in sufficient numbers to the several District Boards, for distribution to the Local Centres of examination in each district. The answers shall be examined by Examiners appointed for each District by the District Board. The supervision of the Examination at the different Local Centres shall be conducted by persons appointed for the purpose at each centre of the District Board. These supervising officers will also conduct the vivâ voce examination of the candidates at their respective centres. They will forward the answer papers, as may be directed, to the several examiners, and will send the results of the vivâ voce examination to the District Board. The examiners for the written examination will also forward the results to the Board. Finally the results of the examination shall be tabulated and declared by the Board. The cost of the examination shall be charged to the District Board, but the District Board will be at liberty to levy a moderate fee for admission to the examination.

72. The District Board shall admit to the lower primary scholarship examination pupils of all primary schools in the district situated in areas whether within or outside its control, and all such pupils shall be equally eligible for scholarships: provided that a candidate who has once passed the examination shall not be admitted to it a second time. No candidate shall be admitted to the Upper Primary Examination unless he has previously passed the Lower Primary Examination. Pupils of the lower classes of middle schools may also, at the discretion of the Board, be admitted to the examination, but shall not be eligible for scholarships.

73. All lower primary scholarships shall be awarded by the District Board in consultation with the Deputy Inspector. No candidate who has completed the age of 11 years shall be eligible for a scholarship, and not more than one scholarship shall be awarded to the same school in any one year. In the award of scholarships attention should be paid to the encouragement of schools in backward parts of the district. Should a difference of opinion arise between the Board and the Deputy Inspector regarding the award of scholarships, the Inspector may, if he thinks fit, report the matter to the Commissioner for decision.

74. In awarding the lower primary scholarships under the preceding rules, the Board shall be guided by the rules in force in the Department, or sanctioned from time to time by the Government.

75. The upper primary and middle scholarship examinations shall be conducted by the Inspector, and the scholarships shall be awarded by him. The Boards' Sub-Inspectors shall assist the officers of the Department in conducting the examinations. The cost of the examinations shall be borne by the Department.

76. It shall be competent to a District Board, before the award of upper primary and middle scholarships, to make representations to the Inspector in favour of particular schools or tracts which it may deem deserving of special encouragement on account of their less advanced state, or for other reasons, and the Inspector shall take such representation into consideration.

77. The Board shall be furnished annually by the Inspector with an abstract of the results of the upper primary and middle scholarship examinations regarding the schools with which the Board is concerned.

SECTION X.—Sub-Inspectors.

78. Sub-Inspectors shall be appointed by the Board in accordance with the rules from time to time sanctioned by the Government, the appointment being notified to the Inspector in each case. Leave may be granted to Sub-Inspectors by the Board in accordance with the rules made by it under section 34 of the Act, the fact being at the same time communicated to the Inspector. The Board shall be competent to make its own arrangements for allowances to acting officers.

79. The Board shall notify to the Inspector all appointments of Sub-Inspectors, whether permanent or temporary.

80. Sub-Inspectors shall be allowed travelling charges not exceeding those admissible under the rules of the Civil Service Regulations.

81. Sub-Inspectors shall submit their diaries to the Deputy Inspector, who shall forward them with his remarks to the Board. They shall also forward to the Deputy Inspector, before leaving head-quarters, the programme of each tour they intend to make, any subsequent change in it being promptly communicated to the Deputy Inspector.

82. Sub-Inspectors shall submit all applications for leave, including casual leave, to the District Board through the Deputy Inspector. In cases of urgency when the Deputy Inspector is absent from head-quarters, the application may be submitted directly to the Board.

83. The salary and travelling bills of Sub-Inspectors shall be submitted through the Deputy Inspector to the Board, with whom shall rest the power of passing them. The Deputy Inspector shall scrutinise the bills and submit his remarks thereon for the consideration of the Board.

84. The Board shall be competent to transfer a Sub-Inspector from one part of the district to another.

85. The Director of Public Instruction shall be competent to transfer from one district to another Sub-Inspectors whose services have been or may be transferred from the Department to a District Board. In such cases the transit pay and travelling allowances of each Sub-Inspector shall be paid by the Board of the district to which he is transferred.

86. Sub-Inspectors, whose services have been or may be transferred from the Department to a District Board, will be eligible for promotion in the graded list of the Department. The promotions of such transferred officers from class to class will be made by the Director of Public Instruction.

87. Sub-Inspectors, who at the time of their transfer to District Boards were or may be rendering qualifying service under the Civil Service Regulations, will continue to render qualifying service after their transfer.

88. The Board shall, in consultation with the Deputy Inspector, fix the scale of payments to be made to chief gurus and inspecting pandits employed to inspect primary schools within the district. Should a difference of opinion arise between the Board and the Deputy Inspector regarding the scale of payments, the Inspector may, if he thinks fit, refer the matter to the Commissioner for decision. The appointment, punishment, transfer, or removal of chief gurus and inspecting pandits shall rest with the Board.

89. The primary duties of Sub-Inspectors shall be to inspect schools; and no other duties shall be laid upon them by the Board without the sanction of Government. Application for such sanction shall be forwarded to the Director of Public Instruction through the Inspector.

SECTION XI.—Miscellaneous.

90. The Board shall forward copies of all its educational proceedings to the Inspector, who shall be competent to make observations thereon for the consideration of the Board.

91. A quarterly statement of all payments made for educational purposes within the district, on the authority of the Board, shall be forwarded by the Board to the Inspector, in form F appended to these rules.

92. The Deputy Inspector shall forward to the Board for its information a copy of so much of the quarterly return of his inspection of schools as has reference to schools over which the Board has any control.

93. At the close of every financial year, on such date as may be prescribed by the Department, the Board shall furnish to the Deputy Inspector such educational returns as may from time to time be required by the Department. Any assistance that the Inspector or the Deputy Inspector may require in compiling the returns shall be furnished by the Sub-Inspectors under the Board. The Board shall also submit to the Magistrate, within the time prescribed by the Department, a report of its educational operations. It shall contain such particulars as may from time to time be required by the Department. The Magistrate shall, on or before the 1st May, forward the Board's report to the Inspector, who shall submit it to the Director of Public Instruction with his remarks, together with his own report on education in the circle under his charge.

94. Should a difference of opinion arise between the Board and the Inspector in cases not provided for in these rules, on any question connected with schools and officers under the Board, the question shall be referred either by the Inspector or by the Board, through the Magistrate, to the Commissioner. The Commissioner's orders on such reference shall be final as between the Inspector and the Board, unless a question of principle be involved, in which case, if the Inspector be dissatisfied with the Commissioner's orders, he may refer the matter to Government through the Director of Public Instruction.

95. Correspondence between a District Board and the Director of Public Instruction shall pass through the Inspector except in cases otherwise provided for. In matters of exceptional importance, or where more than one district is concerned, such correspondence shall be carried on through the Commissioner.

5. All income arising from the Pension Fund and paid to the Managers under the provisions of this scheme shall be applied by them in accordance with the following provisions; that is to say,—

Mode in which Managers are to apply Income of Pension Fund.

(a) In the first place, the Managers shall pay out of the said income to each of the persons whose names, addresses and descriptions are set forth in the first and second columns of the schedule hereto (such persons being hereinafter referred to as "the original pensioners") a pension of such an amount and payable at such times as is shown by the particulars set opposite the name of such original pensioner in the third column of the said schedule during his life, or until he shall in the opinion of the Managers have been guilty of such misconduct as to disentitle him to receive such pension, or until he assign or charge or attempt to assign or charge the same or any part thereof, or until the happening of any other event whereby such pension or any part thereof, if belonging absolutely to him, would become vested in or payable to some other person and not be applicable for the personal benefit of such pensioner, or until the circumstances of such pensioner shall for any reason have so changed as in the opinion of the Managers to render it inexpedient that he should any longer receive his said pension, so that such pension shall cease to be payable upon the happening of such of the said events as shall first happen.

First in payment of pensions set forth in the schedule.

Events upon which the original pensions are to determine.

(b) If and so often as the pension payable to any married original pensioner hereafter shall cease to be payable either by reason of his death or during his lifetime by the happening of any event other than his misconduct, then the Managers shall (unless in their discretion they deem it inexpedient so to do) pay to the wife or husband of such pensioner (as the case may be) a pension of such amount not exceeding the amount of the pension payable to such original pensioner as the Managers may think fit during the life of such wife or husband, or during such shorter period or periods, either continuous or discontinuous, and upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the Managers may deem proper.

As to continuing pensions to wives or husbands of original pensioners.

(c) So much of the said income arising from the Pension Fund as from time to time shall not, in the opinion of the Managers, be required for the payment of any of the pensions mentioned in either of the two last preceding sub-sections shall from time to time be applied by the Managers in payment of pensions or allowances to such persons for the time being resident in Calcutta, and being of any Christian religion as may from time to time be selected by the Managers. Every such pension or allowance shall be of such amount (not exceeding in the case of any one person the sum of Rs. 25 per month) as the Managers may from time to time determine, and may be made payable during the life of the recipient thereof, or during such shorter period or periods, either continuous or discontinuous, and determinable on such events, and be subject to such conditions as the Managers may in each case deem expedient. In this sub-section the expression "Calcutta" shall mean and include every place situate within the town of Calcutta, or the suburbs adjacent thereto (including Howrah); and in selecting pensioners under the provisions of this scheme, the Managers shall as far as practicable give a preference to such persons as the Managers may consider to be East Indians or of European parentage, and permanently domiciled in Calcutta. Provided that the Managers shall not be bound to make any pension or allowance determinable upon the recipient thereof ceasing to reside in Calcutta, or to cease to pay any pension or allowance upon the recipient thereof ceasing to so reside.

As to payment of other pensions and allowances.

(d) If and so often as any pensioner (whether original or otherwise) shall by reason of bodily or mental ill-health be, in the opinion of the Managers, incapable of receiving his pension or allowance, the Managers may pay the same or any part thereof to such person on his behalf as they may think fit without being bound to see to the application thereof, or being responsible for the misapplication thereof, or they may themselves apply all or any part of such pension or allowance in such manner as they may consider to be for the benefit of such pensioner.

As to payments to or for the benefit of incapacitated pensioners.

(e) The Managers shall at all times keep proper books, and shall cause to be entered therein the names, addresses, and descriptions of all the recipients of pensions or allowances under this scheme, and the respective amounts of such pensions and allowances, and also accounts of all monies received and expended by the Managers under this scheme, and all other matters likely to be useful for or in connection with the administration of the trusts hereof, or which may from time to time be required by the Government of Bengal to be entered in such books, and the Government of Bengal and any person appointed by them shall at all reasonable times have access to all such books and be at liberty to inspect the same and take copies or extracts therefrom.

Books to be kept by Managers.

(f) The Managers shall also at all times, both during their tenure of office and after the determination thereof, furnish to the Government of Bengal or any person appointed by such Government all such information as the Government may require in relation to the trusts hereof, or the administration thereof, or any other matters in any wise connected therewith.

Managers to give information to the Government of Bengal.

(g) The Managers may from time to time make such rules and regulations (not being inconsistent with the terms of this scheme) as they may think fit with reference to the management of the income of the Trust Fund and the mode of payment of any pensions or allowances hereunder, and otherwise in connection with the administration of the trusts of this scheme, and may from time to time alter or vary the same in such manner as they may deem expedient, provided that all such rules and regulations and all alterations and variations thereof shall as soon as practicable after the making thereof be submitted to the Government of Bengal, and any rule or regulation, whether original or altered, or varied, which that Government shall consider improper or undesirable shall be forthwith cancelled.

Mode in which Managers are to apply income of Management Fund.

6. All income arising from the Management Fund shall be applied by the Managers in payment of the expenses incurred by them in connection with the duties imposed on them by sub-section (e) of the last preceding clause hereof, and so that for the purposes of such duties the Managers may from time to time employ an accountant or clerk upon such terms as they may think fit, provided that the salary for the time being payable to any such accountant or clerk shall not exceed the income for the time being of the Management Fund.

Receipt of the treasurer or proper officer of the Managers to be good discharge for income, and Treasurer not to be liable for misapplication.

7. The receipt in writing of the person acting as treasurer to or other proper officer for the time being of the Managers shall be a good discharge to the Treasurer for all monies paid to the Managers under the provisions of this scheme, and the Treasurer shall not be in any wise responsible for the misapplication or non-application of any such monies or be bound to see whether such monies or any of them are being applied in accordance with the provisions of this scheme.

Investment clause.

8. The Treasurer may either permit the Trust Fund or any part thereof to remain in the state of investments in which it may be when the vesting order is made, or may, under direction of the Government of Bengal as provided in section 10 of Act VI of 1890, vary or transpose such investment or any future investments representing the Trust Fund or any part thereof into or for any other investment in which trust funds may for the time being be authorised by the law for the time being in force in India or in England to be invested. Provided that, notwithstanding any change of investments, the Pension Fund and the Management Fund shall, as far as practicable, be kept separate.

How allotments of new stock, &c., are to be dealt with.

9. In case any preferential right to take or subscribe for any new or other funds, shares, stock or securities shall be offered to the treasurer as holder of the Pension Fund or of the Management Fund, the Treasurer may, under such direction as aforesaid, dispose of or transfer any such new funds, shares, stock or securities or the title thereto in such manner as he may be directed, and every premium or profit arising therefrom shall, as well as all interest, dividends, bonuses or other advantages payable or receivable in respect of the Pension Fund or the Management Fund, be treated as income of the fund in respect of which it shall be payable or receivable.

Duration and termination of office of Managers.

10. Every Association who shall for the time being be Managers under this scheme shall hold their office until—

(a) they shall be dissolved, or
(b) they shall, by giving notice in writing to the Government of Bengal, resign their office, or
(c) the Government of Bengal shall, by writing under the hand of the Secretary in the General Department, certify to the effect that in the opinion of Government they have seriously and persistently failed to observe or perform the provisions herein contained with respect to the application by them of the income of the Pension and Management Funds or either of them;

and upon the happening of any such event, such Association shall vacate their office of Managers.

Government of Bengal to have power of appointing new Managers.

11. If and so often as the office of Managers under this scheme shall, by any means, be vacant, the Government of Bengal may from time to time appoint any Association which they may think fit to fill the vacant office. Provided that, if the District Charitable Society at Calcutta, who shall be the first Managers, shall vacate their office by reason of their dissolution, the Government of Bengal shall appoint as Managers in their place the successors of the said Society, if such successors shall, in the opinion of the Government of Bengal, be a charitable association constituted or organised under or in accordance with a scheme approved by the Government of Bengal; and so that in filling up any vacancy in the office of Managers, the said Government shall, as far as may be practicable, always appoint an Association constituted or organised in manner last aforesaid.

As to delivery up of funds, &c., by Managers vacating office.

12. Any Managers who shall vacate their office under any of the foregoing provisions shall thereupon deliver all monies in their hands subject to the trusts of this scheme, and all books and papers relating to the administration of the said trusts or to any matters in any wise connected therewith to such person as the Government of Bengal may appoint for that purpose.

Power to Government of Bengal to determine questions.

13. The Government of Bengal shall have power in their uncontrollable discretion to determine all questions, disputes or matters of doubt touching the construction, meaning or effect of these presents, or any clause or thing herein contained, or the rights or liabilities of any person under these presents, or otherwise howsoever in relation to the trusts hereof or arising in the execution of the trusts of these presents, and every determination, whether made upon a question actually raised or implied in the Acts and proceedings of the Government of Bengal, shall be conclusive and binding on all persons interested or claiming to be interested under this scheme.

Neglect to appear.

33. In case of a person summoned under section 37 neglecting to appear, or if a summons under that section cannot be served, the registering officer may call upon the Revenue Officer or Civil Court through whom his summonses are served to take any further action authorized by the law for the time being in force for the purpose of securing the attendance of the person whose evidence is required, and such a requisition must be accompanied by the proper fee. It rests with the registering officer to specify the form of action to be taken.

When a document is presented under section 24 to a registering officer other than the Registrar, the registering officer shall, after examining it in regard to the above particulars, forward it at once to the Registrar, and if it is returned with an order for registration, shall deal with it in the same manner as other documents presented within the time allowed for registration.

Insufficiently stamped documents.

Proviso.—When a document is presented not duly stamped, the registering officer shall at once impound it under section 33 of the Indian Stamp Act I of 1879. Before forwarding it to the Collector, the registering officer shall record on it the endorsement prescribed by rule 44, and if possible that under rule 46, but no fee shall be taken. The document shall not be copied or certified as registered under rule 55 until it is returned to him with the Collector's certificate that the proper or deficient stamp duty has been paid.

Stamps for formal parts of endorsements.

47*a*. The use of rubber stamps is allowed for the formal parts of the first, the second, and the final endorsements, and for the certificate of admissibility. Such stamps must be obtained through the Inspector-General, and can only be supplied to Rural Sub-Registrars on their personally defraying the cost.

Use of stamps for copying in the registers.

47*b*. When the use of stamps has been sanctioned, they may be also used for copying in the registers, provided that the impression can be conveniently contained in the width of the margin.

Signature of illiterate person.

48. When a person who cannot write signs his name by means of a mark or by touching the pen, his name shall be recorded at length, and the writer of the name shall also sign his own name in attestation that the mark was affixed or the pen touched in his presence. In districts where Sir William Herschel's system for identification has been introduced, such marks shall be made by a slightly rolled impression of the registrant's left thumb taken in printer's ink off a flat piece of tin, properly prepared for the purpose, and transferred both to the document to be registered and to a blank register to be kept for the purpose in the registration office. Against each impression in this register the name of the party, the number of the deed in Books I, III, or IV, and the date, shall be entered. In such districts the registering officer shall require every executant, who is not personally known to himself, to affix such an impression both to the deed and the register in his presence, whether he can write his name or not.

Recording of evidence when an oath is administered (section 63).

49. Whenever a registering officer administers an oath, he shall record the evidence of the witness examined on a separate sheet of paper, and a note of the fact shall be endorsed on the deed itself. An oath should only be administered when the registering officer doubts the truth of any verbal statement made to him.

Documents partly executed.

50. When a document is presented which has only been executed by some of the parties to it, the other executants may attend and execute the document and admit their execution without the payment of any further fee, so long as the certificate of registration under section 60 has not been endorsed thereon; but if the registration of the document has been completed, it must be presented afresh for registration, and a second fee shall be payable.

Document to be copied after admission of execution.

51*a*. When all the persons executing a document, or their representatives, assigns, or agents, have appeared and admitted its execution, the document shall be copied in the register.

51*b*. In the event of a document being inadvertently copied in a wrong book, the registration shall stand, but the Registrar may direct that the document with the endorsements and certificate thereon, shall be copied into its appropriate register without further charge.

Copies of the same document.

52. When two or more copies of the same document are brought for registration at the same time, it shall not be necessary to enter the document more than once in the register, but all the endorsements shall be written upon each copy.

Endorsements to be in red ink, except signatures.

53. All endorsements shall be made in red ink, excepting signatures, which shall be made in black ink.

Insufficient space on documents for endorsements.

54. When there is not room on a document for the necessary endorsements, they shall be made on a separate quarter sheet of machine-made medium paper, which should be supplied by the office and attached to the document, note being at the same time made on the document itself and signed by the registering officer. Every piece of paper so added must bear the seal of the registering officer and be signed and dated by him.

Final endorsement of registration.

56. In order to establish the identity of persons appearing before him, the registering officer shall require the best testimony procurable. The testimony of persons known to himself, or of persons in a public position, such as zamindars, Court officials, pleaders, &c., is better than that of unknown and obscure persons.

Testimony of so-called mukhtars to be accepted very cautiously.

57. Registering officers should be very cautious in accepting the testimony and statements of so-called mukhtars, who are not enrolled as such, when appearing before them for the purpose of identifying persons.

58. It is not sufficient for the registering officer to record the statement of any witness the parties may choose to produce. He must satisfy himself that the witness is really acquainted with the person or persons whom he is produced to identify. The name of the person to be identified must be stated to the identifier, and he should be clearly and specifically asked whether that person is or is not the person that he professes himself to be.

Registering officer to satisfy himself with the identification.

DELAY IN PRESENTATION AND APPEARING.

59. Sections 23, 24, 25, 26 and 34.—Section 25 refers to documents executed out of British India, and is noticed below. With regard to all other documents, the law requires (sections 23 and 34, clause 1) that both the presentation for registration and the appearance of the executant shall take place within four months from the date of execution. But in order to avoid hardship in certain cases, it also provides that a further period of four months shall be allowed, subject to a fine—(1) when a document cannot be presented within the first four months owing to urgent necessity or unavoidable accident (section 24); and (2) when, after a document has been presented, the executants, owing also to urgent necessity or unavoidable accident, cannot appear, or cannot be made to appear, to admit execution (section 34, proviso). In cases of urgent necessity or unavoidable accident, therefore, a delay of four months after due time is allowed for presentation under section 24, and a similar delay for appearance under section 34; and both periods may be allowed for the same document, if an urgent necessity or an unavoidable accident occurs to prevent both the presentation of the document and the appearance of the executant in due time. The two periods are quite distinct, and are given for different purposes and at different stages in the procedure of registration. This distinction is important, and if it is borne in mind, the following instructions will be readily understood.

Interpretation of the law relating to delay in the presentation of documents for registration and in the appearance of executants.

60. Sections 23 and 34.—When a document has been presented under section 23, the executant must appear to admit execution within four months from the date of execution, and on his failure to do so, the Sub-Registrar must immediately, after the expiration of the four months, record a formal refusal to register, leaving it to the parties to appeal to the Registrar under section 72 within 30 days if they think proper. Notwithstanding the executant's failure to appear, however, the Sub-Registrar shall not record an order refusing registration, if the person presenting the document has, before the expiration of four months from the date of execution, taken proceedings under section 36 to procure the appearance of the executant, but in that case he shall report the matter to the Registrar for orders at the end of the four months. Both in this case and in the case of an appeal under section 72, the Registrar shall not pass an order granting an extension of time or directing the Sub-Registrar to register the document, unless it is shown that the executant had not appeared owing to urgent necessity or unavoidable accident. In both cases, also, if he passes such an order, a fine must be paid under section 34 (see article O of the fee-table), and the document may be registered at any time within eight months from the date of execution, as the order would be equivalent to the granting of a delay of four months for appearance. If after this order the executant does not appear within the eight months, the Sub-Registrar must record a formal refusal to register immediately after the expiration of that period. No document presented under section 23 can, under any circumstances, be kept pending after eight months, as the presentation having been made within the ordinary time, only an additional four months can be granted for the appearance of the executant.

Procedure to be followed on failure of the executant to appear within the prescribed time.

61. Sections 24 and 34.—A document presented, on payment of a fine, under section 24 is allowed four months in addition to the ordinary period, and the executant must therefore appear to admit execution within eight months from the date of execution. Should he fail to do so, the Sub-Registrar will record a formal refusal to register immediately after the expiration of eight months, leaving it to the parties to appeal to the Registrar under section 72 within 30 days, if they think proper. Notwithstanding the executant's failure to appear, however, the Sub-Registrar shall not record an order refusing registration if the person presenting the document has, before the expiration of eight months from the date of execution, taken proceedings under section 36 to procure the appearance of the executant, but in that case he shall report the matter for the orders of the Registrar on the expiration of the eight months. Both in this case and in the case of an appeal under section 72, the Registrar shall not pass an order granting an extension of time, or directing the Sub-Registrar to register the document, unless it is shown that the executant has not appeared owing to urgent necessity or unavoidable accident. In both cases, also, if he passes such an order, a fine must be imposed under section 34 (see article O of the fee-table) in addition to the fine already imposed under section 24, and the document may be registered at any time before the expiration of one year from the date of execution, as the order would be equivalent to the granting of a delay of four months for appearance, in addition to the delay of four months for presentation already granted under section 24. If after this order the executant does not appear within the year, the Sub-Registrar must record an order refusing registration immediately on the expiration of that period. No document presented under section 24 can, under any circumstances, be kept pending beyond one year from the date of execution.

Procedure to be followed on presentation of a document after payment of a fine under section 24.

62. Sections 25 and 34.—The above instructions regarding documents presented under section 23 apply also to documents presented under section 25, with this exception only, that the first period of four months and the extended period of eight months must be reckoned from the date of their arrival in British India, and not from the date of their execution. These documents can under no circumstances remain pending beyond eight months from the date of their arrival in British India.

Procedure in the case of documents presented under section 25.

In the case of a document executed by some of the parties in and by others out of British India, the party presenting the document may proceed at his option under section 23 or section 24 instead of section 25, and if he does so, the provisions of and the above instructions regarding those sections shall apply.

All pending documents must thus be refused registration after eight months from the date of execution if presented under section 23; after twelve months if presented under section 24; and after eight months from the date of arrival in India if presented under section 25.

Summary.

63. Interpretation of Section 26.—This section refers only to the time allowed for presentation. It therefore applies to the first period of four months from the date of execution allowed under section 23, to the second period of four months from the same date, which may be allowed on payment of a fine under section 24, and to the period of four months after arrival in India allowed under section 25, but not to the additional period of four months which may be allowed for appearance, on payment of a fine, under section 34.

REFUSAL OF REGISTRATION.

64. If the deed has not been presented in the proper office [rule 41 (a)], it shall be simply returned to the presenting party. In this case no entry need be made in Book II.

Documents inadmissible on presentation at wrong office.

65. If the executant of a deed who is in doubt about the proper stamp consults a registering officer on the subject before formal presentation, the required information may be given to him without impounding the deed. But any deed formally presented with an insufficient stamp must be impounded.

Advice as to stamp duty.

66*a*. If the provisions of rule 41 (c) to (g) have not been complied with, or if the presenting party refuses to pay the proper fee, the deed must be returned at once to the presenting party with the endorsement—

Documents inadmissible under rule 41(c) to (g).

"REGISTRATION REFUSED,"

an entry being made at the same time in Book II.

66*b*. Orders under this rule may be deferred at the request of the parties in order to enable them to comply with the requirements of the law. But in such cases an order of refusal shall be passed if the requirements of the law have not been complied with within the time allowed for presentation under sections 23, 24, 25 or 26, as the case may be.

Orders may be deferred.

67. A Sub-Registrar is not authorized by law to refuse to register a document because he is directly or indirectly interested in the transaction to which it relates; but he will always recommend the parties to present such a document at some other office. If the document relates to moveable property only, such other office may be the office of any Sub-Registrar under the same Local Government at which all the parties may desire the document to be registered. If the document relates to immoveable property, such other office will (unless the parties prefer to resort to the Registrar of Calcutta) be the office of the Registrar of the district. The latter officer will (as provided by the note to article K of the table of fees) register such document without charging the usual extra fee. If the parties, after being recommended as above, insist on the Sub-Registrar registering a document in which he is interested, he must do so. In this case he will report the fact for the information of the Registrar to whom he is subordinate.

Sub-Registrars interested in documents presented to them.

68. The circumstances under which a document should at once be refused on presentation are given in rules 64-66. A document duly presented and accepted for the purpose of enquiry will not be admitted to registration under the following circumstances:—

Refusal of duly presented documents.

(1) If the executant denies execution. (Section 35.)
(2) If the executant fails to appear and admit execution. (Section 35.)
(3) If the person by whom the document purports to be executed be dead, and his representative or assign deny execution. (Section 35.)
(4) If the person purporting to have executed the document appear to be a minor, an idiot, or a lunatic. (Section 35.)
(5) If the registering officer be not satisfied of the identity of the person appearing before him, and alleging that he executed the document. (Section 35.)
(6) If the registering officer be not satisfied as to the truth of the allegation that a person who executed the document is dead. (Section 35.)
(7) If the admitting agent's power-of-attorney has not been made in accordance with the Act, or if an alleged representative or assign has failed to prove his status. (Section 35.)

Provided that a document executed by several persons shall not be refused registration merely by reason of one or more of the executants denying execution, or appearing to be minors, idiots or lunatics, or being dead .... shall be registered in respect of any of the other parties who admit execution.

69. The reasons of refusal must ... recorded by the registering officer with his own hand in Book II, and the particulars should be fully and clearly stated in each case. When one out of several executants declines to comply with the requirements of the law, his name should be given: when the registering officer is doubtful as to the identity of a party admitting execution, the grounds of his suspicion should be stated.

Record of reasons for refusal to register.

They shall be dealt with in the same way as other public money, and be paid into the nearest Treasury. From district and subdivisional offices the fees shall be remitted to the Treasury daily: from rural offices they shall be sent to the Treasury twice monthly or at such shorter intervals as the Registrar shall direct. In all cases remittances to the Treasury should be accompanied by the chalan book duly filled up in duplicate. One copy of each chalan will be then kept by the Treasury officer, and the other returned with his signature.

If an application is made in writing, the registering officer should initial it at once, giving the date. If an application is made vivâ voce, the registering officer should write on a slip of paper "Give copy," or some such brief order, adding his initials and date. When it is desired that the supply of register books, &c., should be forwarded to any sub-registry office direct instead of being sent through the office of the Registrar to whom the Sub-Registrar is subordinate, an intimation to that effect should accompany the Registrar's indent, and the indents of such Sub-Registrars should be submitted separately in triplicate with the Registrar's endorsement instead of being embodied in the Registrar's indent. A supply of new register books required to be opened on the 1st January of each year should be included in this annual indent The indents will be forwarded by the Inspector-General to the Superintendent of Stationery, after being checked and countersigned, by the 1st September.

Reminders are useless without it.

122. Rural Sub-Registrars may be supplied with registration ink and other stationery from the district office at cost price, which should be ascertained from the Superintendent of Stationery. The machine-made medium paper required for copies under sections 64 and 65 will be supplied to them gratis. They are also supplied with registers, index books and printed forms free of charge.

Supply of stationery to Rural Sub-Registrars.

123. The cost of sending the registers, &c., from the Stationery Office to the offices of Rural Sub-Registrars, which are situated at a distance from Calcutta, is borne by Government, and the charge is met from the provision made in the budget for the Registrar's office contingencies.

Ex-officio Sub-Registrars paid by commission.

is payable half-yearly, and the bills require the countersignatures of both the Registrar and the Inspector-General of Registration. The commission bills are to be prepared in Accountant-General's form No. 285. An ex-officio Sub-Registrar is entitled to commission at 25 per cent. of the fees, but his total commission in any one month will not exceed Rs. 100 or Rs. 600 for the half-year. Commission on the fees will be allowed on those documents only which have been accepted for registration, and not on those that are refused or pending. Credit is at the same time given by the form for the fees on documents which, having been thus excluded from the bill for the half-year in which they are presented, are nevertheless registered in the subsequent half-year.

Officers temporarily in charge of Sadar Sub-Registrar's office not entitled to commission.

128. When an officer is temporarily placed in charge of the office of a Special or an ex-officio Sub-Registrar during his absence on casual leave or on inspection duty in the interior of his district, he is not entitled to draw commission, but the commission for that period shall be retained by the Special or the ex-officio Sub-Registrar.

132. A permanent advance, not exceeding Rs. 200, will be allowed for each District Registrar on account of (1) contingencies, (2) service postage, and (3) refund of registration fees; but he need not draw the full advance of Rs. 200 where his ordinary expenses fall much below that amount. The Registrar will apportion the amount drawn according to the requirements of each subordinate office, care being taken that a sum is allowed sufficient to meet charges for refunds only, because in the case of rural offices contingent charges will be defrayed by the Rural Sub-Registrars, and in other sub-registry offices they should be met from the advance for general purposes received from the Accountant-General. In case of dismissal or death of Rural Sub-Registrars, the District Registrar will be held responsible for the amount of the advances made by him. On the 15th of April each year the District Registrars will send an acknowledgment of the entire advance to the Accountant-General, Bengal, in the printed form supplied by him.

133. The advance received by a Sub-Registrar will never be repaid into the Treasury, but recouped from time to time, when necessary, by the submission to the Registrar of an abstract bill or bills supported by needful vouchers. Sub-vouchers of contract contingencies.

145. A bill must always be drawn on or immediately before 31st March of each year for all expenditure under contract contingencies up to date. Money drawn from the Treasury after that date comes out of the allotment of the next year, and it is contrary to the principles of the scheme that expenditure incurred in the current year should be in any way held over, after being incurred, to be paid out of the allowances of the next year. This final bill will produce a total which either exceeds, equals, or falls short of the total allotment. For any excess the drawing officer is personally responsible, and unless he can procure exemption from the Government, the amount will be recovered from his personal allowances.

Charges are debited to the allotment of the year in which the bill is actually drawn.

149. When a document is presented, or the execution is admitted, more than four months after execution, the Registrar may either register the document himself, in which case an extra fee under article K of the table of fees, as well as the penalty under article O, shall be levied, or he may direct its registration (on payment of the penalty under article O) by any Sub-Registrar in whose office it could have been registered if presented within four months. In such cases the date on which the application was made to the Registrar shall be regarded as the date of presentation.

The holidays to be observed in registration offices shall be those which are gazetted by the Government under section 25 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, XXVI of 1881, and those specified in the section itself.

These labels will be supplied to Sub-Registrars (on application) by District Registrars, who will disallow unreasonable and excessive demands. A monthly statement of the distribution of service labels should be submitted by each District Registrar for the information of the Inspector-General. The cost of these labels will be met from the consolidated advance mentioned in rule 132.

156. Bills, monthly returns, and regular indents should not be accompanied by covering letters. The envelopes containing them should be marked "Returns." Letters and urgent indents should be separately sent.

Covering letters not to be sent with bills, &c.

A duplicate bill should never be submitted unless the original is lost in transit or otherwise, in which case a certificate should be attached to the effect that the bill has not been cashed at the Treasury. The previous sanction of the Accountant-General to its payment must be obtained before such a bill is presented for encashment at the Treasury.

The following classes of candidates will be admissible to the examination:—

(a) Persons who have passed the Entrance Examination of the Calcutta, Allahabad, or Punjab University, provided they are not less than 21 nor more than 25 years of age.

(b) Persons now serving as head-constables and writer-constables in the police, who have obtained the permission of the District Magistrate to appear at the examination, provided that they are not more than 30 years of age, and are of not less than two years' standing in the Department. This permission will only be given to persons who satisfy the conditions laid down in Rule 2.

2. No person will be deemed qualified who does not satisfy the following conditions:—

I.—That he has no disease, constitutional affection or bodily infirmity unfitting him or likely to unfit him, for police duties, and that he is up to the physical standard prescribed by Government Circular No. 4436J. of the 9th July 1892.

NOTE.—"Stuttering or stammering" is a constitutional defect, and represents a physical disqualification.

II.—That he is of good moral character.

III.—That he belongs to a respectable family.

IV.—That he produces a certificate of ability to ride signed by a district officer.

3. Applications for permission to appear at the examination must be submitted, not later than one week before the date fixed, to the Magistrate of the district in which the candidate resides, stating the place at which he desires to appear for examination. Each application from class (a) candidates must be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 5. All candidates will be required to satisfy the conditions specified in Rule 2 above. The certificate of health should be signed either by the Civil Surgeon of the district in which the candidate ordinarily resides, or in Calcutta by one of the Professors of the Calcutta Medical College. Forms of application are available in the offices of District Superintendents of Police.

The Magistrate should require a personal identification of each candidate by some known person, whose name should be recorded, and satisfy himself that the certificates of respectability and moral character refer to the individual applying for permission to appear at the examination, and send him to the District Superintendent for certificate as to physical fitness. This certificate should contain the applicant's descriptive roll, thumb impression, signature and address for purposes of identification. The District Superintendent will then obtain a health certificate, (the fee for which will in all cases be Rs. 4) from the Civil Surgeon, and send it, together with the certificate of physical fitness, to the Magistrate, who will, after subjecting the candidate to an examination in riding and noting the fact, grant a written permission to appear at the examination.

As these certificates form the verification rolls of candidates, they should be very carefully examined and enquiries made when necessary.

The above papers with the examination fee will be forwarded without delay by the Magistrate of the district in which the candidate resides to the Magistrate of the centre at which the candidate wishes to be examined.

The Examination Committee before the examination will compare the descriptions, thumb impressions, duplicate impressions being taken for the purpose, if necessary, and signatures, and satisfy itself about the identity of the person appearing.

At the examination the candidate will be required to sign the papers in every subject, writing his father's name and his own address on them to avoid confusion arising out of a similarity of names.

After the result of the examination is known, the certificates of passed candidates will be forwarded to the Inspector-General's Office, and will then be treated as verification rolls.

The certificates of unsuccessful candidates will be returned if asked for within two months, or destroyed at the end of that period.

4. The subjects of examination will be as follows:—

I.—Dictation, letter-drafting, precis-writing, and a short translation from Bengali, Uriya or Hindi into English. Europeans and Eurasians will be allowed to choose one out of these three languages to be examined in. No candidate failing to obtain half-marks in this paper will be considered qualified for appointment.

II.—Paper on general knowledge. The questions will be set so as to test the general information and intelligence of candidates.

III.—Mathematics, including arithmetic and algebra, and account-keeping.

IV.—Law, including the Penal Code, the Criminal Procedure Code, and the Evidence Act.

N.B.—Clause (b) candidates will be exempted from passing in algebra.

5. The marks will be given on the following scale:—

1.	Dictation and language	200
2.	General knowledge	200
3.	Mathematics	200
4.	Law	200

6. After the results of the examination have been ascertained, a list will be prepared of the candidates selected for appointment. Those who have not obtained half-marks in dictation and language, and one-third marks in the aggregate of the remaining papers, may be struck out as ineligible for appointment. Of the remaining candidates a list will then be composed as follows—(a) one-half of the candidates who stand highest on the list in order of merit; (b) one-half of candidates selected from among those candidates who have obtained not less than one-third of the marks. At least two-thirds of the appointments will, if qualified candidates are available, be given to outsiders.

7. Natives of Bengal Proper will be eligible for appointments in all Bengal districts and in Manbhum; natives of Bihar in Bihar districts and in Hazaribagh and Lohardaga; and natives of Orissa in the Orissa Division and the district of Singhbhum. Selected candidates will be liable to be transferred to any district.

8. Selected candidates on appointment will undergo a three months' course of instruction at the Bhagalpur Police Training School. This course will include drill, elementary surveying, anthropometry, and instruction in prosecuting cases in Magistrate's Courts. At the end of the three months all probationers obtaining a certificate of proficiency will be posted to districts and receive appointments in due course as 5th grade Sub-inspectors. During the period of probation candidates will receive 20 rupees a month as salary. Candidates who fail to display due diligence during their period of probation will be liable to lose their appointment.

9. Candidates resident in any of the districts of the Patna, Bhagalpur, and Chota Nagpur Divisions, who take up Hindi at this examination, will be considered to be natives of Bihar. Candidates competing at Cuttack, who take up Uriya, will be considered natives of Orissa.

10. Information as to the hour and place of examination can be obtained 15 days before the examination by applying to the District Magistrates of the 24-Parganas, Dacca, Patna, and Cuttack.

The following are the conditions of sale:—

1.—The opium will be sold for exporation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

2.—The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 800 per chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause 13 of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

3.—The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M.; but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or, if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Board of Revenue may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

4.—Each lot shall contain five chests.

5.—A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale, noted in the margin, shall be taken as a deposit on each lot from the purchaser in the sale-room and before the lot is registered in the sale-book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Bank of Bengal receipts or by substitution of other public securities of the Government of India, on or before 3-30 P.M., in the afternoon of the fifth day after the sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

DEPOSIT.

When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs. 300 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,600 and upwards, but less than Rs. 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.

And so on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional, to the extent of Rs. 400.

6.—The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

7.—The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M., if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

8.—No tender of money, Bank of Bengal Receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause 5 on the fifth day following the day of sale will be afterwards accepted. Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. 5 and No. 6.

9.—The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

10.—Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots, or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests originally required to be included in each certificate or order.

11.—No deposit of public securities under the fifth of the present conditions will be received in this office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the sale-book, or his authorized agent. The receipt for deposit of public securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

12.—The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand render at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal Receipts, or Government Securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

13.—With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually by Rs. 5 at a time until a bid is obtained; and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government Superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rs. 800 specified in the second of these conditions.

14.—The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said twenty-five.

15.—In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

16.—The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the Office of the Board of Revenue:—No. 1, certificate of the opium advertised for sale; No. 2, report of the examination of such opium.

17.—The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazipur Factory for the year 1894-95, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug when packed at the Patna and Ghazipur Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the Office of the Board of Revenue.

18.—Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale, that may be desired by parties connected with the trade, will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the Office of the Board of Revenue. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board of Revenue entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

Offg. Secretary.

NOTIFICATION.

In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 49 and 63 of the Inventions and Designs Act (V of 1888), the Governor-General in Council is pleased to make the following rules for the preparation of applications and specifications filed under sections 5, 8 and 51 of the Act and of drawings attached thereto :—

1. All words used in these rules and defined in the said Act shall have the meanings thereby assigned to them respectively.

2. Applications and specifications must be neatly and legibly written, printed, or otherwise reproduced upon one side only of stout paper of half foolscap size, that is, of a size of 13 inches in height by 8 inches in width, and the pages numbered consecutively in the right-hand top corner.

3. Drawings must be on either stout paper or tracing cloth, and must be neat and clear. Photographs will be accepted if made or mounted in accordance with the following rules.

4. The left-hand portion of each sheet of drawings, to the width of a half sheet of foolscap, that is, a width of 8 inches, must be left blank, so that when the sheets are opened out, the sheets which lie above them and contain the text of the application or specification will conceal no portion of the drawings.

5. Each sheet of drawings must be—

(a) of a width not greater than that of a sheet of foolscap, that is, a width of 16 inches, except when the size of any single drawing is such that a greater width is required for it;

8. The name of the applicant, and the year in which the application is made or specification filed, should be shown on each sheet of drawings in the right-hand top corner of the blank space left, under rule 4. The sheets, when more than one, should be numbered consecutively, and the number of each should be shown in the right-hand top corner of the sheet.

2. Substitute the following for sub-rule $\frac{\text{4 of Rule 7 at pages 122 and 123 (Civil)}}{\text{IV of Rule 6 at pages 174 and 175 (Criminal)}}$ ibid:—

4. When a copy of a judgment or decree or any other document is required, the party requiring the same shall deliver to the officer designated by the Judge under Rule 1 an application signed by his vakil or by his authorised agent, or by himself, if acting in person, in Form B, which will be obtainable in loose sheets in the same way and at the same cost as Form A.

4A. Every such application shall be numbered consecutively as received, and it shall be the duty of the officer to whom the requisition is delivered at once if possible, or during the same day, or not later than the following day, to ascertain the amount of court-fee stamps payable for the copy asked for and the number of folios required for its preparation, and at the same time to inform the applicant thereof.

4B. When such information cannot be given at once, the officer shall inform the applicant when he may expect to obtain it. The counterfoil of the application shall be returned to the applicant, and it shall be his duty to attend at the time named.

4C. The amount of court-fee stamps and the number of folios required shall always be noted on the back of the requisition, and the applicant shall be required to put his signature thereto as an acknowledgment of his having received the information.

4D. The applicant shall further be informed that his application will not be considered complete, and that the preparation of the copy will not be commenced until he has supplied in full the court-fee stamps and the number of folios stated to be required.

4E. When he supplies the stamps and folios, the applicant shall present the counterfoil of his application, which has been returned to him, and a memorandum shall be made thereon stating the date and hour when the copy will be ready. A corresponding note shall be made on the body or main portion of the form, which shall then be passed on into the office, together with the stamps and folios, for the preparation of the copy. The applicant shall retain the counterfoil, and it shall be his duty to attend on the date fixed for the purpose of receiving the copy.

3. Cancel the "NOTE" at the foot of the "Form of application for copies" reproduced at page $\frac{127 \text{ (Civil)}}{180 \text{ (Criminal)}}$ ibid and substitute therefor the following:—

NOTE.—This portion of the form must be filled up by the applicant. He will receive it back signed by the proper officer. He shall be informed, as soon as possible, of the amount of court-fee stamps and the number of folios required. If this information cannot be given at once, the applicant should attend at the time named for the purpose of obtaining it. The application will not be considered complete, and the preparation of the copy will not be begun, until the stamps and folios necessary have been supplied in full. When the applicant supplies the stamps and folios he shall present this counterfoil, and the date on which the copy will be ready will be noted on the back. The applicant should keep the counterfoil, and on his presenting it, either personally or by an agent whose name has been endorsed on the back, on the date fixed, the copy (there being no objection) will be given to him.

4. In clause (k) of $\frac{\text{Rule 8}}{\text{Rule 7}}$ at page $\frac{181 \text{ (Civil)}}{184 \text{ (Criminal)}}$ ibid, for "Date of delivery of the requisite stamped sheets," substitute "Date of delivery of the requisite stamps and folios."

SIBPUR, the 22nd November 1895.

NOTIFICATIONS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE.

UNDER section 22 (2) of Act I (B.C.) of 1895, the Public Demand Recovery Act, the following rules have been framed by the Board with reference to the requirements of section 287 of the Code of Civil Procedure in regard to sales of property in execution of a certificate, and are published for general information:—

I.—When the officer who effects an attachment under section 269, Act XIV of 1882, believes that the property attached does not exceed twenty rupees in value, he shall inform the debtor, or, in his absence, any present adult member of his family, that it will be sold by public auction at once, without the issue of any proclamation under section 287. In case the decree-holder or the judgment-debtor, or any person on his behalf, objects to the adoption of the course, the attaching officer will convoke a panchayat of not less than three respectable adult male inhabitants of the neighbourhood, of whom ordinarily the headman of the village should be one, and will require them to assess the value of the property. If they determine that it exceeds Rs. 20 in value, he shall deal with it under the rules framed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, otherwise he shall forthwith proceed to sell it by auction, after giving such reasonable notice, as the circumstances of the case admit of, to intending purchasers.

II.—At the time of making an application under section 230, Act XIV of 1882, for the attachment of moveable property in the possession of the judgment-debtor, the decree-holder shall pay the costs of issuing the proclamation of sale under section 287 of the Act, unless the value of the property, the attachment of which is applied for, is alleged by him not to exceed Rs. 20 in value. In this case, should the value of the property as determined by the above rule, be found to exceed Rs. 20, the decree-holder shall pay the costs of the proclamation immediately on receipt of notice of attachment.

III.—Sales of moveable property not exceeding Rs. 20 in value shall be held on the spot. Such sales will necessarily be conducted by peons when they are the attaching officers. Sales of moveable property of greater value may be held on the spot or at the Sadar or subdivisional head-quarters, as may seem convenient and conducive to the securing of good prices. For such sales officers of higher rank than peons should always be deputed when the value of the property is estimated to exceed Rs. 50, and proclamation should be issued. When the value is between Rs. 20 and Rs. 50, the Collector or Deputy Collector may by a special order depute a peon, if he considers it desirable to do so.

Sale of moveable property.

IV.—Sales of immoveable property should ordinarily be held at the district or subdivisional head-quarters, according as the villages may be nearer to either, but sales on the spot are desirable when bids or sufficient bids cannot be obtained at head-quarters. It sometimes happens that it is only by holding sales in the villages that the property can be disposed of. When this is the case, nazirs, naib-nazirs or bakshis should be employed; but in rare instances, where the value of the property is very small and the cost of deputing a higher officer would be out of proportion to it, a trustworthy peon may be sent out under the special orders of the Collector or Deputy Collector. For all sales of immoveable property proclamation must be issued.

Sale of immoveable property.

V.—Sales of estates or shares of estates should always be held at the district or subdivisional head-quarters.

Sale of estates or shares of estates.

VI.—In order to ensure a good attendance of bidders and fair bids, it is desirable that regular sale days, whether one or more in the month, should be fixed, and that lists of property to be put up at each sale should be published some days in advance. This arrangement cannot, perhaps, be made ordinarily at subdivisions, where sales are few and far between, but it should be introduced where the sales are sufficiently numerous and regular.

Procedure for ensuring a good attendance of bidders and fair bids.

cases in which the decree-holder applies for leave to purchase under section 294 of the Code of Civil Procedure, no order to set off the purchase-money against the amount of the decree shall be made upon the application for leave to purchase. Such order shall be made upon a petition presented after the property has been knocked down to the decree-holder at the auction-sale, and such petition shall be stamped with stamps of the value of the poundage fee due for selling the property, viz.—

2 per cent. on the gross amount realised by the sale of the property, up to Rs. 1,000.

1 per cent. more on all excess of all gross proceeds beyond Rs. 1,000.

VIII.—Upon the hearing of such petition the costs of execution, including the amount of the stamps attached to the petition, shall be ascertained and shall be added to the decree; and in cases in which the amount of the purchase-money exceeds the amount of the decree and of such costs, the decree-holder who has so purchased the property shall pay into Court the sum of 25 per cent. upon the balance of the purchase-money after deducting the amount of the decree and of such costs, and shall pay the balance at the expiration of fifteen days in accordance with section 307 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The following are the conditions of sale:—

1.—The opium will be sold for exporation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

2.—The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 800 per chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause 13 of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

3.—The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M.; but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or, if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Board of Revenue may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

4.—Each lot shall contain five chests.

5.—A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale, noted in the margin, shall be taken as a deposit on each lot from the purchaser in the sale-room and before the lot is registered in the sale-book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this Office by Bank of Bengal receipts or by substitution of other public securities of the Government of India, on or before 3-30 P.M., in the afternoon of the fifth day after the sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

DEPOSIT.

When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs. 300 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,600 and upwards, but less than Rs. 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.

And so on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional, to the extent of Rs. 400.

6.—The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

7.—The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M., if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

8.—No tender of money, Bank of Bengal Receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause 5 on the fifth day following the day of sale will be afterwards accepted. Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. 5 and No. 6.

9.—The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

10.—Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots, or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests originally required to be included in each certificate or order.

11.—No deposit of public securities under the fifth of the present conditions will be received in this office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the sale-book, or his authorized agent. The receipt for deposit of public securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

12.—The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand render at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal Receipts, or Government Securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

13.—With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually by Rs. 5 at a time until a bid is obtained; and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government Superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rs. 800 specified in the second of these conditions.

14.—The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said twenty-five.

15.—In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

Places of accommodation for emigrants.

2. Every Agent shall provide and maintain, in such places as the Local Government may from time to time direct, or in the absence of such direction in respect of any route, in such places as the District Magistrate may direct or approve, depôts and rest-houses for the accommodation of the emigrants who may be collected by him or on his behalf, pending their removal and during their journey to a labour district.

Failure to provide and maintain the accommodation required by this rule shall render an Agent liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200, and, if the accommodation is not provided within a reasonable time after the infliction of such fine, he shall be liable to a further fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for every day until the accommodation is provided.

3. The amount of accommodation to be provided and maintained, and the sanitary arrangements to be made in such depôts and rest-houses, shall be regulated generally by the rules prescribed under Act I of 1882 for depôts, subject to any modification which the District Magistrate may permit in the case of rest-houses. The District Magistrate may require the Agent to make such arrangements for the supply of drinking water as may seem to him necessary. At least one side of each depôt shall be enclosed along its whole length by an iron railing or wooden paling instead of a continuous wall, to allow perflation of air, and such railing or paling shall not be blocked in any way internally.

4. No such depôt shall be used for the accommodation of emigrants until the sanitary arrangements in it shall have been approved by the District Magistrate, and no place which has not been so approved shall be recognised as a depôt within the meaning of rule 2. A placard shall be affixed to the depôt signifying that the District Magistrate has approved of the sanitary arrangements and stating the number of emigrants who may be accommodated in it. Such approval may at any time be withdrawn by the District Magistrate for sufficient reasons to be stated in writing.

If the number of emigrants accommodated at one time in any such depôt exceed the number for which accommodation has been duly provided, the Agent or Manager responsible shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 5 for each emigrant in excess of such number for every day during which such excess exists.

5. The District Magistrate shall maintain a Register of the depôts and rest-houses approved by him under this rule in the Form A attached to these rules.

In Calcutta the powers conferred and the duties imposed by this rule and the rules preceding on the District Magistrate shall appertain to the Superintendent of Emigration.

6. For each depôt or rest-house while it is in use, the Agent shall, unless he himself lives on the premises, appoint a Manager to be approved by the District Magistrate, and on failure to do so, shall be liable to a fine of Rs. 100, and to a further fine of Rs. 20 for each day during which such failure continues after he has been convicted of a breach of this rule.

7. The District or Subdivisional Magistrate, or a Magistrate subordinate to him, the Civil Surgeon, or an Assistant Superintendent of Emigration, or an officer of Police above the rank of Sub-Inspector authorized by the District Magistrate, and in Calcutta the Superintendent of Emigration, may inspect all depôts and rest-houses, and all Agents and employés of Agents in charge of such places shall afford to the inspecting officer every facility for making such visits and inspections.

All inspection notes shall be entered in an inspection book to be kept up in such places of accommodation.

A copy of the inspection notes shall be forwarded at once by the inspecting officer to the District Magistrate.

Any person who wilfully obstructs or causes to be obstructed any of the above-mentioned inspecting officers entering any depôt or rest-house for making any lawful inspection or inquiry, shall for every such offence be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

Treatment of emigrants on a journey.

8. The routes by which emigrants and their dependents shall travel on leaving a depôt, as prescribed by the Local Government, are shewn in the schedule attached to these rules.

The taking of emigrants by any other than a prescribed route is prohibited, and every Agent or Manager responsible for emigrants being so taken shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for every emigrant so taken.

9. An Agent shall either himself accompany the emigrants engaged or assisted by him until they are put on board the steamer at Goalundo or Dhubri, as the case may be, or shall send with them some competent person. Such Agent or other person shall have and produce, when called upon to do so by any officer authorised to inspect depôts and rest-houses, a chalan showing particulars of the emigrants in his charge in the following form :—

Neglect of the provisions of this rule shall render the Agent or person in charge of the emigrants liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for each emigrant travelling in his charge the requisite particulars respecting whom are not duly entered in the chalan.

10. When the number of emigrants (exclusive of dependents) proceeding on their journey to a labour district is more than twenty, for every twenty emigrants so in excess, or for any number of emigrants less than twenty in excess, one additional Agent, or person appointed by him, shall accompany the emigrants so proceeding. Provided that when the emigrants are embarked in any steamer for conveyance to their destination by water, no such additional Agent or person appointed by him shall be required to accompany the emigrants during such river journey.

Neglect of the provisions of this rule shall render the Agent liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20 for every emigrant travelling otherwise than in accordance with this rule.

11. Every Agent, or person appointed as aforesaid, who accompanies emigrants to the labour districts, shall provide each emigrant and dependent (if any) travelling between the months of November and February inclusive with a thick and warm blanket and a woollen jacket in the case of males, and with a thick warm blanket and a woollen kurta in the case of females, besides the clothing ordinarily provided.

For every omission to comply with the provisions of this rule, the Agent or person appointed as aforesaid shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

12. Every Agent, or person appointed by him as aforesaid, shall provide two cooked meals every day for emigrants travelling by road, and a cooked meal for emigrants to be started on a railway journey after 9 A.M., and for those to be started at or before that hour, if a cooked meal cannot be provided, a dry meal instead, consisting of (a) bread or biscuit and sugar in the proportion of one pound of bread or two large biscuits and one ounce of sugar to each emigrant of and above 10 years of age, and half the above quantities to each emigrant under the age of 10 years, or (b) choora and suttoo or similar food eaten by people of the class to which the emigrant belongs. In the evening a cooked meal or, if that is impracticable, a dry meal as above shall be provided. Also, if the journey between two halting stations is likely to occupy more than 6 hours of daylight, a supply of food in the same proportion shall be given by the Agent or person aforesaid for distribution to the emigrants for consumption during the journey.

The Agent or Manager in charge of a depôt or rest-house shall also be responsible that all emigrants are properly fed and cared for as required by the rules while under his charge.

For every omission to comply with the provisions of this rule, the Agent or person appointed by him as aforesaid, or the Manager responsible, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each emigrant in respect of whom the rule is broken.

13. When emigrants are about to be despatched by a train, the purest drinking water obtainable shall be supplied by the Agent in a sufficient number of vessels conveniently placed with the emigrants in the carriage.

Such supply shall be at least one quart for each emigrant and dependent, and there shall be at least one vessel for each compartment of the carriage. Emigrants should be afforded during the journey opportunities for leaving their carriages at suitable places, to be fixed from time to time by the Superintendent of Emigration.

Neglect of the provisions of this rule shall render the Agent or person appointed by him as aforesaid liable to a penalty not exceeding Rs. 20 for every emigrant in respect of whom such neglect occurs.

14. Emigrants about to travel by train shall be accommodated, as far as possible, in third class carriages specially reserved for them, or in suitably constructed goods wagons, and the number in each carriage shall in no case exceed the regulation number.

Procedure in case of death or illness of emigrants.

15. Every Agent or Manager shall report to the police-station, within the jurisdiction of which the depôt or rest-house of which he is in charge is situated, the occurrence and the supposed cause of every death which takes place at such depôt or rest-house, or in the course of the journey to any depôt or rest-house. Such report shall be made within twenty-four hours of the occurrence of such death.

For every omission to comply with the provisions of this rule, the Agent or Manager responsible shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200.

16. Every Agent, or person appointed by him as aforesaid, shall report to the nearest Magistrate, police-station or Embarkation Agent, or to the Superintendent of Emigration in Calcutta, the case of any emigrant or dependent who, while under his charge, appears to be suffering from cholera or small-pox, and in default shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200.

A Magistrate or Embarkation Agent or the Superintendent of Emigration in Calcutta may, on receipt of such report, or on his own motion, if himself a medical man, examine, or, if not himself a medical man, send for examination to a medical man, any emigrant who appears to be suffering from cholera or small-pox.

17. If such emigrant or dependent is on such examination declared to be suffering from such disease, the Magistrate or Embarkation Agent or the Superintendent of Emigration in Calcutta may order him to be detained at such place as he thinks fit, until the emigrant or dependent is in a fit state of health to undertake such journey, when he shall either be forwarded to the labour district, or sent back to the place from which he came, according as the Agent or person appointed by him accompanying such labourer or dependent may elect.

While any emigrant or dependent is so detained, he shall be entitled to be fed, lodged, clothed, and (if necessary) medically treated at the cost of the Agent.

18. When an order under Rule 17 has been made with reference to any emigrant, any person dependent upon, and any other emigrant being the wife or husband of, such emigrant shall be entitled—

(b) if such emigrant is sent back to the place from which he came, to be sent back to such place at the cost of the Agent.

When any such order has been made with reference to any dependent, the emigrant to whom he is attached shall thereupon, until such dependent is in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour district, be entitled, if the emigrant so wishes, and if he or she be the husband, wife, son or daughter of such dependent, to be fed, lodged, clothed, and (if necessary) medically treated at the place where such dependent is detained, and at the cost of the Agent; and if such dependent is sent back to the place from which he came, such emigrant shall, if he or she so wishes, and if he or she be the husband, wife, son or daughter, of such dependent, be sent back to such place.

If such emigrant is entitled and claims to be fed, lodged, clothed, and (if necessary) medically treated or to be sent back, his or her dependents, and any other emigrant being the wife or husband of such emigrant, shall be entitled, as the case may be—

(a) to be fed, lodged, clothed, and (if necessary) medically treated at the place where such dependent is detained, and at the cost of such Agent, until such dependent is in a fit state of health to undertake the journey to the labour district, or

(b) to be sent back at the cost of the Agent to the place from which he or she came.

19. If the Agent or person appointed by him accompanying any emigrant or dependent fails to provide such emigrant or dependent with food, lodging, clothing and medical treatment, or to send him back as required by Rule 17 or 18, the Magistrate or Embarkation Agent or the Superintendent of Emigration in Calcutta may order such Agent or person to pay such sum as is necessary to provide such food, lodging, clothing and medical treatment, or to defray the cost of the return journey of such emigrant or dependent, as the case may be, to the place from which he came, and on failure for twenty-four hours of such Agent or person to comply with such order, he may pay the sum specified in the order to or on behalf of such emigrant or dependent, and recover the amount from the Agent.

20. In the event of an emigrant or dependent dying on the journey by road to any railway station on the way to the labour district, the Agent or his employé shall arrange promptly for the disposal of the dead body in a suitable manner. If he fails to do so, the District Magistrate, or any one appointed by the District Magistrate in that behalf, or the Superintendent of Emigration in Calcutta, may dispose of the dead body, and the cost shall be recoverable from the Agent.

21. If an emigrant or dependent is attacked by cholera or small-pox, he shall on recovery be supplied with clothing by the Agent on the scale provided in the case of contractors' emigrants by the rules made under Act I of 1882. If he fails to do so, the District Magistrate, or any one appointed by him in that behalf, or the Superintendent of Emigration in Calcutta, may supply such clothing, and the cost shall be recoverable from the Agent.

22. If an emigrant or dependent is attacked by cholera or small-pox on a railway journey, the Agent, or person appointed by him as aforesaid, shall remove the patient as soon as possible to the nearest cholera hospital on the line, or other suitable place for medical treatment, or in default shall be subject to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200.

SIBPUR, the 22nd November 1895.

NOTIFICATIONS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE.

UNDER section 22 (2) of Act I (B.C.) of 1895, the Public Demand Recovery Act, the following rules have been framed by the Board with reference to the requirements of section 287 of the Code of Civil Procedure in regard to sales of property in execution of a certificate, and are published for general information:—

I.—When the officer who effects an attachment under section 269, Act XIV of 1882, believes that the property attached does not exceed twenty rupees in value, he shall inform the debtor, or, in his absence, any present adult member of his family, that it will be sold by public auction at once, without the issue of any proclamation under section 287. In case the decree-holder or the judgment-debtor, or any person on his behalf objects to the adoption of the course, the attaching officer will convoke a panchayat of not less than three respectable adult male inhabitants of the neighbourhood, of whom ordinarily the headman of the village should be one, and will require them to assess the value of the property. If they determine that it exceeds Rs. 20 in value, he shall deal with it under the rules framed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, otherwise he shall forthwith proceed to sell it by auction, after giving such reasonable notice, as the circumstances of the case admit of, to intending purchasers.

II.—At the time of making an application under section 230, Act XIV of 1882, for the attachment of moveable property in the possession of the judgment-debtor, the decree-holder shall pay the costs of issuing the proclamation of sale under section 287 of the Act, unless the value of the property, the attachment of which is applied for, is alleged by him not to exceed Rs. 20 in value. In this case, should the value of the property as determined by the above rule, be found to exceed Rs. 20, the decree-holder shall pay the costs of the proclamation immediately on receipt of notice of attachment.

III.—Sales of moveable property not exceeding Rs. 20 in value shall be held on the spot. Such sales will necessarily be conducted by peons when they are the attaching officers. Sales of moveable property of greater value may be held on the spot or at the Sadar or subdivisional head-quarters, as may seem convenient and conducive to the securing of good prices. For such sales officers of higher rank than peons should always be deputed when the value of the property is estimated to exceed Rs. 50, and proclamation should be issued. When the value is between Rs. 20 and Rs. 50, the Collector or Deputy Collector may by a special order depute a peon, if he considers it desirable to do so.

Sale of moveable property.

IV.—Sales of immoveable property should ordinarily be held at the district or sub-divisional head-quarters, according as the villages may be nearer to either, but sales on the spot are desirable when bids or sufficient bids cannot be obtained at head-quarters. It sometimes happens that it is only by holding sales in the villages that the property can be disposed of. When this is the case, nazirs, naib-nazirs or bakshis should be employed; but in rare instances, where the value of the property is very small and the cost of deputing a higher officer would be out of proportion to it, a trustworthy peon may be sent out under the special orders of the Collector or Deputy Collector. For all sales of immoveable property proclamation must be issued.

Sale of immoveable property.

V.—Sales of estates or shares of estates should always be held at the district or subdivisional head-quarters.

Sale of estates or shares of estates.

VI.—In order to ensure a good attendance of bidders and fair bids, it is desirable that regular sale days, whether one or more in the month, should be fixed, and that lists of property to be put up at each sale should be published some days in advance. This arrangement cannot, perhaps, be made ordinarily at subdivisions, where sales are few and far between, but it should be introduced where the sales are sufficiently numerous and regular.

Procedure for ensuring a good attendance of bidders and fair bids.

VII.—In cases in which the decree-holder applies for leave to purchase under section 294 of the Code of Civil Procedure, no order to set off the purchase-money against the amount of the decree shall be made upon the application for leave to purchase.
